

Auction of Humans To Be Prohibited In New York City

Police Commissioner Bans Project—Says Plenty of Organizations Now Are Aiding Unemployed.

New York, Sept. 16.—Urban Le-doux, otherwise "Mr. Zero," will not be permitted to transfer his auction block for jobless from Boston to New York, Police Commissioner Enright said today, and added that there are plenty of municipal and private organizations now doing all possible to aid the unemployed.

"The auction will not take place," said the commissioner. "That sort of thing is not necessary here. The welfare bureau of the police department is doing what it can to do secure work for the unemployed. Any one who needs help can apply to the bureau and we will find a man to fill the position."

"Recently Mayor Hylan appointed a commission to look after the unemployed of New York, and there are enough charitable organizations in the city in addition to take care of those out of work."

The plans of the "Bureau of Public Aid," created by Bird S. Coler, commissioner of public welfare, took form today. A committee of housing and relief was appointed and Major Edward Underwood of the Salvation Army, one of the commissioner's chief advisers on relief work, was appointed chairman. Other members are:

The Rev. Archibald R. Mansfield of the Seaman's Church institute, the Rev. William J. Rafter of the Holy Name mission, Harris Schlacht of the East Side Neighborhood house and Edward E. McMahon, superintendent of the Municipal Lodging house.

"Although everything that is possible will be done to get men jobs, there will be some who will have to be fed and housed," said Major Underwood. "I am not an alarmist, and do not want to be, but if this winter is severe, handicapped by labor troubles, there will not only be need for employment bureaus, but also need for relief work until men get jobs. Commissioner Coler realizes this."

Light Farm Credit Calls On Finance Board Seen
Washington, Sept. 16.—Calls upon the war finance corporation for agricultural and live stock credit under the enlarged powers authorized by congress will not be generally expected, according to the view expressed today at the treasury.

While large amounts probably will be advanced by the corporation, high treasury officials said, the main effect of the recent legislation was the beneficial psychological effect upon the small banks. Banks which had that they may pass on their agricultural loans to the war finance corporation, official asserted, may prefer to keep them because of the assurance that they can obtain credits if necessary.

Plea Made for Dye Industries in U. S.

Former Michigan Congressman Speaks at Omaha C. of C. Luncheon.

In a speech at a public affairs luncheon at the Chamber of Commerce at noon yesterday Gilbert Currie, former congressman from Michigan, declared for more independence in the industry in America. His speech, "Independence for American Industries," was a protest against too much legislation against business and a plea for better governmental support to the industries which stood by the government in the war crisis.

Mr. Currie represents the Chemical Foundation, an American organization which seeks to protect American industries, especially the dye industries. American companies bought the patents of pharmaceutical and dye concerns taken over by the government from Germany during the war. Mr. Currie declared that because these concerns stood by the American government in its hour of greatest need, the government should afford them adequate protection now.

The speaker also pleaded for protection to the firms which have $450,000,000 invested in these concerns and more freedom in the textile, leather, paper, paint, varnish and dye industries. He also discussed the necessity of national defense and the need of advancement in science and medicine.

Mrs. Obenchain Seeks Release Pending Trial

Request for Freedom Under Bond to Be Based on Doctor's Affidavit That Health Impaired.

Los Angeles, Sept. 16.—A motion to admit Mrs. Madelyne Obenchain to bail pending her trial for the murder of J. Belton Kennedy, broker, for which she was jointly indicted with Arthur C. Burch, was scheduled for argument here today before Judge Sidney N. Reeve of the Los Angeles county superior court.

Warren Williams, counsel for Mrs. Obenchain, stated the defense would "demand" the release on bail of his client to prevent her health from being permanently impaired. He said the "demand" would be supported by an affidavit from Dr. Ross Moore, Mrs. Obenchain's physician, that already has been brought before the court.

Mr. Williams said any attempt of the state to introduce a copyrighted story, recently published in the Los Angeles Examiner, relating to an alleged confession on the part of Burch, would be fought on the ground that even if genuine it could not be admitted against Mrs. Obenchain because it was alleged to have been made by a co-defendant.

As a consequence the deputy district attorney stated it was his opinion that it would be unnecessary to consider more than a physician's affidavit and that the prosecution would contend the grand jury indictment presumably was based upon sufficient evidence to try Mrs. Obenchain for murder, an unailable crime.

Mrs. Obenchain was to be present during the argument. Burch's attorney said neither they nor their client would attend the proceedings.

Hail Insurance Is Paid By State From Fund Reported Empty

Lincoln, Sept. 16.—(Special.)—Three weeks ago democrats, through their newspapers, advertised in big headlines that the state was "broke," that there wasn't sufficient money on hand to pay hail insurance premiums and numerous other calamities which gave outsiders to understand that near starvation faced the state.

Warrants calling for payment of $197,000 in hail insurance premiums were mailed today from the state house at Lincoln to county treasurers.

"Can this be possible, that the state has money to pay for hail insurance premiums?" D. B. Cropsy, state treasurer, was asked.

"Yes, we have the money to pay for them," Cropsy replied. "The warrants were sent to county treasurers in the state because some who took out policies under the old law, which provided for the collection of premiums with taxes, have not yet paid their 1920 taxes or premiums. The county treasurers are expected to see that such unpaid premiums are deducted from the amount due on warrants."
