Fashion Notes

A favorite combination is black and white Georgette crepe. Flowings, bindings, draperies and scallops are still good.

The pointed bodice and full skirt are having a small revival.

Paris generally uses the circular skirt with a low waist line.

Russell Parrish Wedding Party

Plans for the marriage of Miss Helen Parrish, daughter of Mrs. John W. Parrish, and F. M. Russell of Lincoln on October 8, at All Saints church, are now complete.

Miss Margaret Parrish, sister of the bride, will be maid of honor. The bride has chosen for her other attendants, Miss Lois Russell of Ames, Ia., sister of the groom; Misses Dorothy Cavanaugh, Winifred Brandt and Dorothy Hipple.

Ralph Bortoff of Ames will act as best man. The ushers will be Ted Russell of Ames, brother of the groom; Charles Peterson of Omaha and E. H. Levens and Leonard Snyder, who were classmates of the groom at the University of Iowa.

Little Esther Bliss, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Rodney Bliss, will be ring bearer. Edward M. Martin, godfather of the bride, will give her in marriage.

Nebraskans in Washington. Justice Constantine J. Smyth has returned to his apartment at 2400 Sixteenth street after spending his vacation in Omaha with Mrs. Smyth and their sons-in-law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Sibergens and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burgess, Mrs.

Smyth is still there and will not return here for some time. Their younger son, Edward Smyth, has joined his father and will be in Washington now permanently.

Omaha will figure considerably in the early autumn weddings, as Miss Margaret Scoville Aspinwall will be married early next month to Lieut. Carlisle Allen, U. S. A., son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Budington Allen of Omaha. The announcement caused much surprise here as Miss Aspinwall is scarcely out of the school room.

Lieut. Allen is now stationed at Camp Benning, Ga., where he is aide de camp to General Gordon. Miss Aspinwall is a granddaughter of the late Rev. John A. Aspinwall, who founded St. Margaret's church.

The Iron Food Free We'll send 100 luscious raisin recipes in a free book to anyone who mails coupon below.

He needs it—'The Iron Food for Vitality' Men are quickly refreshed at night by a dessert like this 3 cups Sun-Maid Seeded Raisins 2 cups water 1/2 teaspoon salt 1 tablespoon lemon juice 1 tablespoon corn starch 1 tablespoon sugar Wash the raisins, put in saucpan with 1 cup cold water and bring slowly to a boil. Add sugar, salt and corn starch which has been mixed with 1 cup cold water. Boil 3 minutes; add lemon juice. Pour in pie tin which has been lined with crust, while hot cover; brush top with cold milk and bake in moderate oven until brown.

Stewed Raisins Soak for breakfast every morning and put your daily iron this way Cover Sun-Maid Raisins with cold water and add a slice of lemon or orange. Place on fire; bring to a boil and allow to simmer for one hour. Sugar may be added but is not necessary, as Sun-Maid Seeded Raisins contain 75 per cent natural fruit-sugar. All measurements for these recipes are level.

Tired Man's Dessert Digests almost immediately Revives his Vim Men are grateful for a pie like this AT TIED man's first need at night is new energy—to revive his lagging spirits and his strength. Give it to him in this luscious pie. Effective and incomparably delicious! You get almost immediate results. For this pie—note the recipe—is made with tender, juicy, meaty raisins furnishing 1500 calories of energizing nutriment per pound. Raisins are 75 per cent pure fruit-sugar (in practically predigested form) so require little digestion and therefore the energy is felt at once. Raisins are rich in food iron. The "Iron Men"—the men of healthy blood—need but a small bit of iron daily, yet that need is vital. There's no better way to impart the vitality of iron than through a luscious raisin pie. Remember these facts when you choose dessert. Give raisin pie to tired men in the interest of their pleasure and success.
