

Council Bluffs Society

DAN CUPID'S name did not appear on the list of the 6,999 pupils who registered in the public schools Tuesday morning, September 6, but he was there nevertheless, and as a result Miss Hazel Arnold, who was the first school nurse in Council Bluffs, is now wearing a platinum band on the fourth finger of her left hand. Her marriage to W. M. Swanson of Omaha occurred in Fremont, Neb., last week, and was a very quiet affair.

Mrs. Swanson will only continue her duties until Mr. Saam is able to fill the place, but this should not be a difficult matter for the superintendent as both Mrs. Swanson and Mrs. Bondo, the other school nurse, have entered the matrimonial field within a year, and in each case since they took up this particular line of work.

Mr. and Mrs. Swanson have taken an apartment in Omaha.

Hanchett-Mark.
A wedding of interest to Council Bluffs people was solemnized in Lake Forest, Ill., yesterday afternoon when at 4 o'clock Miss Alice Mark became the bride of Dr. William McMicken Hanchett, now of Chicago, but formerly of this city. The ceremony was performed at the home of Clayton Mark, whose daughter had as attendants her four sisters, Mrs. Everett W. Ryan, Mrs. John Kimball Saville and the Misses Anna and Seytha Mark. Miss Edith Swift was also in the wedding party.

Alfred Hanchett came from New York to serve as best man for his brother, and Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Hanchett, of this city, parents of the groom, were present at the nuptial.

Wedding.
In St. Francis Xavier's Catholic church last Monday morning occurred the wedding of Miss Freda Valzora Later and Homer Andrew Wood.

The ceremony, which was followed by a nuptial mass, was witnessed by relatives and intimate friends of the young couple.

Sunday Night Supper.
Mrs. Angelina Brimmaid invited 10 guests to an informal supper at her home last Sunday evening.

Miss Flickinger to Sing.
One of the first musical treats scheduled for Council Bluffs this season is the recital in which Miss Edith Flickinger is to appear at the First Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, September 27.

This artist came from New York early in July to spend the summer with her mother and sister, and before returning east to resume her work in opera has consented to sing for Council Bluffs and Omaha people, who are greatly anticipating this event.

She is a former pupil of Miss Mary Munchhoff and during her years of study with this teacher was accompanied in the studio by Miss Helen Sadleir, Omaha pianist, who has since married Mr. Kuhl. This talented matron will not only play Miss Flickinger's accompaniments in the recital, but will also contribute with a piano group.

Mrs. Ellis Entertains.
A theater party, followed by tea at the Fontenelle, was the manner in which Mrs. F. H. Ellis chose to entertain last Monday afternoon.

Her guests included Mesdames Robert Wallace, H. A. Woodbury, Fred Emplie, George Wickham, L. L. Henninger, W. A. Cutler, A. E. Brock, Edith Beardsley, Misses Mary DeVol, Evelyn Thomas and Agnes Wickham.

Luncheon.
In honor of Miss Edith Flickinger of New York who is visiting in the city with her mother and sister, a luncheon was given on Saturday by Mrs. Carleton Woodward, at her home on Oakland avenue.

Bridge Parties.
On two afternoons of last week Mrs. F. H. Hollingsworth entertained at bridge. Four tables were placed for the game on Tuesday and Mrs. F. J. Schmorl was awarded the high score prize. Mrs. A. W. Tyler received the cut-for-all.

Twenty guests were present Wednesday, when Mrs. Elmer Shugart and Mrs. John Mulqueen received prizes.

Tea.
Miss Adele Keeline and her sister, Mrs. Paul Burke, who has been here from Dubuque, Ia., for a visit, entertained at a beautiful tea last Tuesday, honoring Mrs. Franklyn Keeline, who recently came from Grand Island, Neb., with her husband to make Council Bluffs their home.

About 50 guests called during the afternoon. Assisting the hostesses were Mesdames Donald Annis, Eugene Reynolds and Harry Seales; Misses Fern Clark, Rodna Hughes, Claire McInerney and Winifred Tingley.

Astors and daisies in a crystal vase placed on a mirror made an attractive centerpiece for the dining table and other early autumn flowers were artistically used throughout the rooms.

Golf.
In the semi-finals of last Wednesday at the Country club Mrs. B. O. Brington defeated Mrs. Crawford, and Mrs. E. E. Evans won from Miss Marian Turner.

Twins Go to College

Claire and Rose Seybert, twin daughters of Dr. and Mrs. F. T. Seybert, and June graduates of St. Francis Academy, left last week for Notre Dame, Ind., where they have entered for a college course at St. Marys.

Miss Claire Seybert is an accomplished pianist, and both she and her sister expect to have voice training.

Camp Fire Girls
After the summer vacation Camp Fire Girls are again resuming activities, and the first of these is "Read day," which comes October 1. The girls are busy tending to regular meetings and during spare moments, so all will be in readiness for the big tag day.

The Omaha Guardians association held a picnic supper at Elmwood park Thursday evening. Plans were discussed for the fall work. Twenty guardians were present.

Camp Fire Girls, their guardians and board of directors will have tea Saturday, September 24, at the Burgess-Nash tea room. It is hoped that every Camp Fire Girl will be able to attend. For further particulars call headquarters.

Charles S. Rockhill of Philadelphia, Pa., director of our "Camp Fire Girls" magazine bureau, visited our city Saturday morning and explained in detail to the guardians the operation of the plan to start the various camps on their way to secure funds to be expended for whatever purpose they desire.

Some very interesting booklets containing the camp diaries of the Lesse group are on display at headquarters.

Special Invitation
Women's Clubs, Parent-Teacher Association, Mothers' Circles, Church Societies, Patriotic Organizations, Lodges, Unions, Civic Societies, Social Clubs, Neighborhood Groups, etc., are cordially invited to hold the October meeting in the lecture room of the Alamito Dairy Co.
Leavenworth and Twenty-Sixth Streets
any morning, afternoon or evening, Sundays excepted, from Monday, October 3, through Saturday, October 29. Miss Lutie E. Stearns of Milwaukee will deliver a vital message of the greatest importance to every woman in Omaha and Council Bluffs. Those who have heard Miss Stearns, do not need to be told of her ability to interest and entertain an audience. Since her last visit to Omaha, Miss Stearns has lectured to thousands of women in Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois, Ohio, Kentucky, Missouri and Tennessee. Miss Stearns will speak daily at 10:30, 2:30 and 4:00. Evenings by special appointment. Mothers are invited to bring their children and teachers of the Fifth grade and above are asked to bring their pupils as an "Industrial Tour." Prizes given classes for the best written description of the talk and plant. Dairy refreshments will be served free and every mother will be given a package of cottage cheese after inspection of our white, sanitary plant. Organizations and individuals are urged to phone Douglas 0409 or write to the Dairy, specifying day and hour desired. Please do this at once to avoid possible disappointment later, as lecture-room capacity is limited.
