

Race Driver Had Premonition of Losing His Life

Cy Cobb Told "Buddy" He Would Give Up Racing After Next Week For His Family's Sake.

Cy Cobb, who was killed in the Ak-Sar-Ben auto race Saturday, when his Fiat crashed through a fence going nearly 50 miles an hour, intended to give up racing next week for the sake of his wife and 9-year-old daughter.

Cobb had a premonition Friday night of the accident which yesterday cost him his life, and confided in his roommate, Emile King, also an auto racer, that he intended to quit after the Sioux City races next week, in which he was to compete.

"I had a premonition of an accident," Cobb told his "buddy." It had left me a "fool" to take the risk when he has a wife and little girl dependent upon him.

"I'm going to quit."

"I think that is the reason he was driving so hard yesterday and taking the curves so fast," King said. "He wanted to win a few stakes before quitting."

Cobb was never heard to make a remark like the one which passed from his lips Friday night. He was known as a dare-devil among the other drivers and formerly was a trick performer driving motor cars down steep descents and making leaps into space.

His roommate believed the accident was caused from a defective wheel.

Cobb's body will be sent to his wife in Minneapolis. King probably will accompany it.

Huge Legion Parade At State Convention Planned at Fremont

Fremont, Neb., Sept. 18.—(Special.)—Plans for a military parade, to which at least 1,500 members of the American Legion and the Woman's Auxiliary, who meet here at the state convention, September 29, 30 and October 1, will participate, are gradually being worked up by the local post.

The parade will be reviewed by Governor McKelvie, Senator Reed and State Commander Robert G. Simmons of Scottsbluff, A. Evans. Large sums have been expended and other prominent officials are expected to hold places in the reviewing stand.

Three Fremont bands, the Lincoln Legion post band and organizations from other cities in the state are expected to take part and furnish the cadence for the swinging lines of bands in khaki. Orders from the state commander request all delegates and alternates to bring their uniforms to Fremont for the purpose of taking part in the parade.

The Legion post throughout the surrounding towns have been invited to share in the convention and help Fremont entertain the visiting veterans. Large sums have been expended to secure patriotic decorations for the cities during the convention and all the merchants have contributed to a fund which will literally enclose the city with a mass of flags and red, white and blue decorations. The parade will be one of the "biggest features of the convention."

Local Ministers Use the Arbuckle Case As Lesson

Pastors To Base Sermons on Latest Scandal in Ranks of Motion Picture Actors in California.

Rev. Howard Clark Whitcomb, at Calvary Baptist church preached last night on "The Modern Menace of Immorality," using the Roscoe Arbuckle scandal as an illustration.

He was one of several local ministers who drew a pulp lesson from this notorious case.

"There is a deadly disease of impurity working itself insistently through our social life," said the Rev. Mr. Whitcomb last night.

"I shall state in my sermon that the case of this moving picture actor is simply an eruption extraordinary of the disease that is seriously affecting the social body.

Revision Inevitable. "The whole motion picture world is stirred by this scandal because such a large percentage of the most featured men and women in the picture world are men and women to whose names scandal is attached.

"A revision by the better people from the moving pictures is inevitable until the producers have had a house-cleaning.

"And this must be backed up by sterner standards of purity among the millions. Social impurity among all classes and ages of society is so widely diffused and fastened into the vitals of the community that those persons of the social state who are striving to save the soul of civilization and who know best what the world's moral condition is, are near to despair."

How to Meet Temptation. Rev. A. F. Ernst at the Lowe Avenue Presbyterian church preached on "How to Meet and Conquer Temptation" and used the Arbuckle case as illustration.

"There is no real prosperity without God and when godless men gain what to them seems like prosperity, the devil quickly finds a way to undo them and make them far worse off than godly men to whom worldly prosperity never comes," he said.

Rev. Charles H. Lytle at the First Unitarian church preached at 10:30 yesterday on "The Christ Manhood or the Cave Man? Moral and Cultural Perils of the Present Epidemic of Naturalism." At the First Christian church, last evening, Rev. C. E. Cobey preached on "Fatty Arbuckle's Sin."

Fremont, Neb., Sept. 18.—(Special.)—Scribner's stock show came to an end in a blaze of glory that bespoke the most successful year enjoyed by the organization. Despite the reports from other fairs and stock shows that attendance is on the decrease this year, gate receipts spoke much louder than heretofore at Scribner. There were 275 pure-bred hogs on exhibit during the Scribner fair, 126 Poland Chinas, 20 Hampshires, 16 Chester Whites, 10 Spotted Poland Chinas, and 103 Durocs. This is one of the largest exhibits of hogs placed before the public at county shows in the state this year. The list day was known as Hooper day and the Hooper ball club emphasized the fact by defeating the Scribner team 7 to 0. A feature of the evening entertainment was a wrestling match between Stanley Buresh of the Joe Stecher stables, and Arno Koplin of Scribner. The latter had no chance with Stecher's student, who won the first fall within four minutes and the second within two.

Female "Peeping Tom" Terrorizes Fremont

Fremont, Neb., Sept. 18.—(Special.)—Residents of the northwest part of the city have been terrorized the past few nights by the visits of a female "peeping Tom," who has been unusually active in the residential district. The woman has become a general nuisance and her wanderings during the dark hours of the night have thrown severe scares into the women and children. The identity of the nocturnal visitor is believed to be known but in the hope that her operations will cease, no word was given to the police. De Valera Claims Acceptance of British Proposal

Says Telegram Sent to Lloyd George Friday Was Agreement to Conference Without Any Ties.

By JOHN STEELE. Chicago Tribune. Copyright, 1921. London, Sept. 18.—Developments came fast in the Irish situation today.

First was Prime Minister Lloyd George's flat reply to Eamonn De Valera's telegram, stating that the government would not enter into any parley with Irish delegates so long as they demanded to be considered as representatives of an independent sovereign nation. This message sent hope for Irish peace slipping down into the depths.

But an hour later that hope was again soaring for immediately upon receipt of Mr. Lloyd George's firm dictum, Mr. De Valera sent a reply to the prime minister in which he declared that the telegram he sent to him Friday was intended as an acceptance of a conference without any ties, as Mr. Lloyd George had insisted.

"I have already accepted your invitation in the exact words which you quote from your letter of September 7," said Mr. De Valera's latest message.

This is believed in official circles to mean that the invitation to the Irish delegates to attend a conference will be renewed and hope runs high that with Mr. De Valera now down from his position of absolute defiance of the government, a means to bring about the peace in Ireland so much desired by the people of both islands, will be found.

How soon the conference will be held is a matter of doubt, for it was announced that Mr. Lloyd George is suffering from a chill and septic absorption and that he must not attend to any but the most vitally important business for several days. He may not be able to attend a meeting for more than a week.

Coroner Probes Death of Broker In Des Moines

Suicide Hinted at as Man Had Love Affair With Telephone Operator Although Married.

Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 18.—(Special Telegram.)—A complete investigation of the circumstances surrounding the death of W. O. Brammer, real estate broker, whose body was found lying at the river's edge at the end of the Belt line bridge today, has been instituted by Coroner Guy Clift, to determine whether the man's death was the result of suicide, murder or apoplexy. An autopsy was performed at the order of Coroner Clift. The stomach was removed and turned over to experts, who will analyze the contents for traces of poison. The result of the analysis, Coroner Clift said, will not be known for several days. Until the analysis is completed there will be no inquest.

Circumstances surrounding death of Brammer indicate that the man may have committed suicide to escape the results of a love affair, which was to have culminated in marriage Saturday morning. Brammer, who had a wife and three children at Britt, Ia., had been paying attentions to Miss Helen Drawz, 22, a telephone operator, and asked and obtained her acceptance to marry him yesterday.
