Autumnal Council Conducted by Camp Fire

A beautiful autumnal council fire was held last Sunday at the McKenzie home by two North Omaha Camp Fire groups. Mrs. McKenzie (guardian of the Lexae group) and Velora Boone (guardian of the Tatapochons) conducted the ceremonial.

A number of the girls' parents and relatives were present. The fires of Work, Health and Love were lit by Frances Hilding (Ahneha), Maybelle Reineke (Uda) and Colina McKenzie (Osoha). Goldie Cupp (Owassa) gave the chant to each fire as it was lit.

The Lexae group took the following new girls into Kim's fold: Mary Louise Brown, Marjorie Potts, Fredrika Campbell and Dorothy Zimmerman. It also awarded Elizabeth Sayles the woodgatherer's rank and Frances Harmon that of fire-maker.

The Tatapochons welcomed to their circle Bernetta Wiebe, Clara Curtis, Helen Houghton, Nancy Brown Saunders and Edna Hanson. Frances Hilding and Frances Williamson received local honors.

Mrs. McKenzie gave an inspiring talk to the girls' parents and relatives by explaining to them Camp Fire work and asking for the cooperation of each and every one.

Miss Boone had the girls tell about their gowns, headbands and Indian names and touched upon the Camp Fire "Bead day" to be given October 1 for the purpose of keeping up the Omaha Camp Fire office.

ADVERTISING. Declares She Hadn't Walked in Six Months. Nebraska Woman Had to Be Carried From Bed to Chair—Now in Fine Health.

Mrs. O. L. Henderson, 969 North Twenty-fifth avenue, Omaha, Neb., in relating the facts of her remarkable restoration to health, said: "I had rheumatism so bad that I hadn't been able to walk a step in six months and had to be carried from my bed to my chair and back again. I had fallen off from a 150 pounds to an even 100 and suffered so much from indigestion that I lived on milk and eggs alone."

"Tanlac has toned up my stomach, rid me of rheumatism and made me gain wonderfully in weight. If I talked from now to the end of my days I couldn't say all the good things Tanlac deserves."

Tanlac is sold in Omaha by the Sherman & McConnell Drug Co. and by leading druggists everywhere.

PROBLEMS THAT PERPLEX ANSWERED BY BEATRICE FAIRFAX. "Doesn't Like to Work." "Dear Miss Fairfax: I am a girl of 19 and in love with a fellow of 20. I know this fellow for the last eight months and until he asked me to keep steady company, I did not go out with him any more because he did not work, but he told me if I did he would work, but I did not like that. Now, do you think I did right? If not, do you think I should write to him or forget him? J. J. R."

"No, if he isn't man enough to get out and work without having to extract a bargain from a young lady he's not much good."

"Tell Her—Hard." "Dear Miss Fairfax: I'm in love with a girl. I'm sure she loves me, 'cause I've heard so, but would like your advice on how to propose to her. By doing so I hope you will oblige. FREDDY"

"Now, Fred, it's up to you to map out a proposal yourself if you want that girl. Many a good girl has been lost to a man who hesitated over the proposal. Just come out with it the next time you are together. Tell her you're crazy about her and ask her if she loves you."

"Accepting Invitations to Dance." "Yes, indeed you may have the next dance, 'if the pleasure' is sufficient indication of the lady's willingness to give a dance. A lady waits to be sought by her partner to whom she has promised the first of the dance. When the music for the dance, which she has promised him strikes up, should he fail to seek her out she may assuredly expect an apology and plausible explanation for his delinquency."

"To Work in Schools." Miss Nan Hunter of Minneapolis is the guest of Mrs. Luther Drake. Miss Hunter will spend the winter in Omaha working among the defective children of the public schools here. Miss Hunter has taken special courses in this line of training and is a graduate of Miss Baker's school of this work, in Minneapolis.

Problems That Perplex

ANSWERED BY BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Doesn't Like to Work. Dear Miss Fairfax: I am a girl of 19 and in love with a fellow of 20. I know this fellow for the last eight months and until he asked me to keep steady company, I did not go out with him any more because he did not work, but he told me if I did he would work, but I did not like that. Now, do you think I did right? If not, do you think I should write to him or forget him? J. J. R.

No, if he isn't man enough to get out and work without having to extract a bargain from a young lady he's not much good.

Tell Her—Hard. Dear Miss Fairfax: I'm in love with a girl. I'm sure she loves me, 'cause I've heard so, but would like your advice on how to propose to her. By doing so I hope you will oblige. FREDDY

Now, Fred, it's up to you to map out a proposal yourself if you want that girl. Many a good girl has been lost to a man who hesitated over the proposal. Just come out with it the next time you are together. Tell her you're crazy about her and ask her if she loves you.

Accepting Invitations to Dance. Yes, indeed you may have the next dance, 'if the pleasure' is sufficient indication of the lady's willingness to give a dance. A lady waits to be sought by her partner to whom she has promised the first of the dance. When the music for the dance, which she has promised him strikes up, should he fail to seek her out she may assuredly expect an apology and plausible explanation for his delinquency.

Camp Fire Girls

The Akabonni group held a business meeting at the home of Margaret Moorehead Wednesday afternoon. Plans were made for a hike Friday afternoon, October 1. Jennie Galt and Frances Anderson will plan the supper and make the fire. Ruth Cochran and Florence Neff will bring the supper and make the fire. The Chaska Campfire group met at the home of Charlotte Trossel Wednesday afternoon and a new constitution was presented and voted upon. Ruth Manning was a visitor.

The Okta Campfire group met at the home of Elizabeth Hutwell Tuesday. The girls had beads and planned a candy sale for October 1 at the Y. W. C. A.

A new group has been organized at Bennington, Neb., and the following girls have been elected: Lydia Witte, president; Edith Grant, vice president; Bernice Hickey, secretary; Gladys Bourn, treasurer. Miss Ruth Edmonds is guardian.

The Alina group, with Miss Alice Day, guardian, met Friday to discuss for Saturday. Lucile Peterson represented this group at the tea given at Burgess-Nash last Saturday.

Corns Ended by a Touch

Pain Stopped Instantly—Corns Removed Quickly and Gently. THIS is the scientific way, the modern way to end corns. A famous expert evolved it. A world-famed laboratory produces and guarantees it.

With millions it has displaced old methods, harsh and crude. It is Blue-jay—the liquid or the plaster. Either is applied by a touch. The pain stops at once, and soon the whole corn loosens and comes out.

Thus any corn, old or new, can be ended at your will. No joyful hour need ever be spoiled in this way.

Prove this tonight. Get Blue-jay at the drug store. Bid all corns a lasting farewell.

Liquid or Plaster Blue-jay stops pain—ends corns a Bauer & Black product

The proper way to eat chicken is to separate the meat from the bones with a knife and fork, not doing this to the entire portion on the plate at once, but by degrees as needed. It is not good form to take a bone in the hand and pick it with the teeth. Every edible morsel of the chicken can be cut with the knife and fork, and even if a little sliver of meat should adhere to a bone, the thrifty or greedy eater must refrain from bone-picking, a canine act which may be robbing the pet dog of its lawful perquisites.

The cat portions of chicken should be eaten with a fork, held in the right hand. If rice and peas are served, these also should be eaten with the fork; only little children and old people in second childhood eat vegetables with a spoon. The rule for eating chicken—a word used here in its generic sense—applies to all other fowl, including game birds.

her son, Morse Palmer will occupy an apartment at the Elwood this winter.

Mrs. M. A. Woodruff, who has been spending several months with her daughter, Mrs. Charles J. Hubbard, leaves next week for California accompanied by Mrs. M. J. Scott of St. Louis, who is also a guest at the Hubbard home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Root and children will leave Sunday evening for their home in Estes Park, Colo., where they will spend a short time before motoring to California, where they plan to spend the winter months.
