Newcomer

Mrs. L. E. Poe

Musical circles in Omaha have received an addition this fall in the person of Mrs. L. E. Poe who has come here to live from San Diego, Cal. Mrs. Poe is well known on the Pacific coast as a singer, her specialty being concert work with brass bands. She has sung with Sousa, Innes and Ohlmeyer's Coronado Band, and the year of the Panama Pacific exposition, Mrs. Poe sang both at San Francisco and San Diego with this last organization.

"One of my most interesting concert tours," said Mrs. Poe, "was with Wheelock's American Indian band in the east. The members of it come largely from Carlisle and Haskell institutes in Kansas, and the leader was a full-blooded Oneida, popularly known as the 'Red Sox'."

Mrs. Poe is a graduate of the New England conservatory in Boston, where she studied with William L. Whitney. She was the instructor in vocal music at the University of Kansas for 10 years, and while in San Diego was connected with the Bishop school. She is a member of the Omaha Woman's club and the College club.

Mrs. Poe's 18-year-old daughter, Helen, is in the east at present studying the cello, with the idea of going on the concert stage some time in the future.

Activities of Women

There are only five women in the world who are members of the Royal Geographical Society of England.

Reports recently compiled show that 500,000 women have come to this country since the signing of the armistice.

Many women authors use men's names as pen names, which to many has proved beneficial in the sale of their books.

Mrs. Marion T. Leach, representative of an American concern, is the only female member of the Chamber of Commerce in Buenos Aires.

Mrs. Charlotte Cameron, of England, now on her third trip around the world, has traveled more miles than any woman in the world.

While they must pass certain legal examinations which a barrister must pass, women in Germany cannot become barristers or judges.

The two wives of Reuben C. Bland of Robertsonville, N. C., have borne him 34 children—the first wife, now deceased, 15, and the present wife, 19.

brarian, Ora K. Bushman; assistant librarian, Lillian A. Henderson; chairman courtesy committee, Lillie Maude Hoffman; publicity chairman, Estelle Dinan; director, Henry G. Cox.

The time of meeting is Wednesday at 2 p. m., and the place, the Y. W. C. A. auditorium.

After luncheon a talk will be given by Lottie Stearns of Milwaukee and Mrs. R. L. Frantz, leader of the department, will outline the year's work.

Miss Van Gordon Opens Concert Series.

Several requests have come to the Omaha Business Women's club, who are sponsoring a series of popular price concerts during the winter, that Miss Van Gordon sing "The Cry of the Valkyrie" when she appears at the City Auditorium Friday evening. It is hoped that this number may be included among her encores.

Thomas J. Kelly, former conductor of the Mendelssohn choir of Omaha and now connected with the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, writes concerning Miss Van Gordon: "I heard her last season in 'Lobengrin,' and she made a magnificent Ortrud."

A musical journal says: "Cyrena Van Gordon has had the most sensational debut at the Chicago opera company since that of Galli-Curci. The range of her voice is phenomenal and electrifying in its dramatic intensity."

Sisters of Mercy Alumnae Plan Bazar.

Cards and dancing will be featured on the affair.

The committee in charge of the bazar includes: Mrs. James E. Reed, chairman; Mrs. Frank Moriarty and Mrs. J. A. Sanders.

What's What

By HELEN DECIE.

There are many men and women who forget the visions and the impulses of their vanished youth, or who boast with more or less truth of never having been other than matter-of-fact, and punctate as regulated clock-work, even in their long-ago "salad days." These self-proclaimed paragons are often merciless toward even the minor faults of young men and young women who are passing through the phase of inconsistency which comes to most of us in the April tide of youth.

Courtesy, well defined as "benevolence in little things," is due to fluttering youth as to quivering age. "When a feller needs a friend," to encourage his aspirations and to help correct his little mistakes, it is disheartening to encounter an inhuman sidding machine who sums up his faults into a terrifying total, and gives him zero for all his endeavors toward betterment. What he wants is what he should have—all this period is the big-brotherly counsel of a real man who knows that a little encouragement is a marvelous tonic at certain crises of life when undue severity—the wrong prescription—may have poisonous reactions.

Sensible Shoes Are Fashionable

Shoes with sensible walking heels and comfortable toes are the vogue for outdoor and daytime wear. Rapidly, the high French heel and the uncomfortable pointed toes are being limited by fashion to formal dress affairs.

The greater comfort and peace of mind enjoyed by the wearing of sensible shoes has been the cause of a new fashion's attitude toward correctly shaped shoes. The leading influence in this style trend has been, and is, the well-known Cantilever Shoe. It has a flexible arch and a close-fitting instep which make walking a joy and which take the fatigue out of both walking and standing.

Conscientious Pricing at Replacement Values

THE policy of John Henrikson has ever been to present RIGHT merchandise at RIGHT Prices.

Coincident with the reduction in the cost of silver and platinum with the general readjustment of wages in the jewelry and kindred manufacturing industries—we have marked our entire stock to accord with the new replacement prices of today.

That jewelry prices are now stabilized is the unanimous belief of the most authorities.
