

Council Bluffs Society

October Affairs. Many events are planned for October, but three stand out prominently among them all.

The ladies of St. Pauls church are completing arrangements for their style show which will be held in the Auditorium next Wednesday evening, October 5, and the committees in charge promise something quite out of the ordinary for this occasion.

Among the pretty models who will display autumn costumes are Misses Adele Keeline, Theresa and Claire Kinzel, Kathleen Peacock, Rodna Hughes, Claire McInerney, Viola Albin, Norma Tyler, Katherine Cheyne, Enla Klee, Jane Reed, Mildred and Elizabeth Tinley, Bernice Howe, Elizabeth Evans, Marian Speiman, Katherine Capell, Mary Elizabeth Innes, Hazel May Larsen, Amy Robinson, Mathiesen, Chase and Mrs. Elverding.

On October 17 and 18 about 150 delegates will gather here for the Ninth district convention of the Iowa Federation of Women's clubs, and for this event an interesting program is being arranged.

Then on the 27th will occur the cabaret dance, at the Auditorium under the auspices of the American Legion auxiliary. Elaborate preparations are under way for this affair, which promises to eclipse anything of a similar nature yet staged in Council Bluffs.

Practically every woman in the city has been appointed on some of the various committees in connection with one or more of these three events, and as club life has again been resumed and church activities are more spirited, the present month will indeed be a busy one.

Here From New York. Mrs. George E. Stewart of New York City arrives today to visit at the home of her brother, Charles T. Stewart. She will also be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Tinley and during her stay will attend a few days with Mrs. A. M. Jackson and Miss Mollie Rice.

Before her marriage Mrs. Stewart was Miss Elizabeth Stewart and Council Bluffs was her home.

Council Bluffs Girl in Recital. A most artistic program was given at the First Presbyterian church Tuesday evening when Miss Edith Flickinger, assisted by Mrs. Helen Sadilek, Kyhl, pianist of Omaha, sang a group of lovely songs before an enthusiastic and music-loving audience.

Miss Flickinger had her early training with Miss Mary Munchhoff and of later years has been studying in New York with Mme. and Maestro Sappio. She is a thorough musician, whose glorious soprano voice is every moment under perfect control, and her program for this occasion was especially well chosen and arranged.

From the opening aria "Fors e lui" from Traviata to Edward Elgar's "Pleading," every number was enthusiastically received and Miss Flickinger graciously responded to the many demands for encores, among which were the always popular "Annie Laurie," "Her Dream" and the charming little "Cuckoo Clock."

Mrs. Helen Sadilek Kyhl accompanied this artist, only a talented musician can, and in addition delighted the audience with Mendelssohn's "Rondo Capriccioso," a prelude by Cui and a beautiful number of Gernshelm's.

For Mrs. Everest. At the J. A. Clark home on Bluff Street, a bridge party will be given next Thursday by Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Roy DeVol, in honor of Mrs. Folsom Everest, a recent bride.

Informal Luncheon. Mrs. F. W. Houghton invited seven guests to an informal luncheon at her home last Monday.

Bridge. Mrs. E. A. Wickham entertained two tables of guests informally at bridge Tuesday afternoon at her home on Third street.

Birthday Parties. Jere Benton VanKessel is a little miss of 4 who celebrated her birthday last Saturday by entertaining 18 young friends at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Benton.

Decorations for the affair were in lavender, even the candle-lighted birthday cake being in this shade, and each guest was presented with a doll dressed in lavender organdy with hat to match.

Little hand-painted clowns were used to mark the places at the luncheon table, and lavender baskets of candies served as favors.

Another young hostess of the week was Virginia Brown, who reached her fifth milestone on September 27, and celebrated the event with a real party at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Brown.

A delightful feature of the day was a fish pond from which many treasures were drawn, and a birthday cake, with other refreshments was served to the 20 guests at the close of the afternoon.

Miss O'Donnell Entertains. A very enjoyable bridge party was given Thursday by Miss Margaret O'Donnell at her home on Glen avenue.

About 30 guests attended and Mrs. T. J. Leary had high score for the afternoon. Miss Elizabeth Day was awarded the cut-for-all.

Bridge. Complimentary to four out-of-town young women who have been visiting in Omaha, the Misses Geraldine and Gretchen Hess entertained 16 guests at bridge last Monday afternoon at the Country club.

Sacrilege. The river in its majesty stretches a topaz masterpiece with filigees of green and silver. On either shore the woods are riotous in autumn colors. Only the cedars' deep green withstands Winter's first death kiss.

Softly the canoe glides on. There is scant need of the paddle in his huge hands.

The sky is turquoise streaked with fleecy.

The black things above weaving fanciful lines are wild fowl from the north seeking the rice fields.

And sunshine of the south. On we glide, now through meadows burned by summer's hectic breath. Then back again into the forest's colors.

Is this a fairy stream, in some enchanted land? Is it a swan-drawn barque carrying me through some fantastic realm of color?

Then he speaks. "There's a bunch of steers Pete's fattening for market."

No, this is not Fairyland. No swans draw my barque; I am in a canoe on the Iowa And he who paddles. Complains of hunger!

—JACK LEE. Three tablespoons of gingered pears are a delicious addition to apple pie.

To Wed in Washington

Miss Margaret Green, bride.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Green, daughter of Representative and Mrs. William R. Green of Council Bluffs, to Courtney Campbell of New York, will take place in Washington on October 6. It is to be a very small church wedding, only the immediate families being present.

The bride will wear a dark suit. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will take a trip through the mountains of West Virginia, and afterward will divide their time between New York, Washington and Mr. Campbell's ranch in South Carolina.

Miss Green is being elaborately entertained in Washington, D. C. Mrs. John Briar gave a luncheon for her Wednesday, when Mrs. Henry C. Wallace and Miss Mary Wallace, wife and daughter of the secretary of agriculture, were ranking guests.

Mrs. Briar gave the luncheon in her beautiful country home at Wellington, Va., which was decorated with autumn flowers and foliage in really suburban fascinating fashion.

Among the other guests were the Misses Cummins, sisters of Senator Cummins of Iowa; Mrs. Arthur P. Davis, Mrs. Goodrich, Mrs. Soyer, Mrs. Edwin A. Merritt, Miss Virginia Merritt, Mrs. John Sauer and Mrs. Judson Weaver.

Miss Florence Curry, daughter of Representative and Mrs. Charles F. Curry of California, entertained for Miss Green at a beautiful luncheon on Thursday; Miss Irma Strong, daughter of Representative and Mrs. James G. Strong of Kansas, will entertain her at luncheon on Monday and Dr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Merritt will give a dinner dance for the bride and bridegroom and their families Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Campbell and Orlando Campbell of New York, parents and brother of the bridegroom, and Mrs. C. H. Lloyd of Chicago, aunt of the bridegroom, will arrive in Washington tomorrow and be in the party.

Little Sun-Maids

"The Between-Meal Raisins"

—the Cure for 3 o'clock Fatigue

FOR years you've loved to munch on raisins. Wouldn't you buy them down town, if you could, in little 5c packages?

Well, now you can! They're in drug stores, groceries, candy and cigar stores, in the neatest little 5c pocket packages you ever saw.

Little Sun-Maids, "the between-meal raisins," made from tender, luscious, juicy, seedless table grapes.

Seventy-five per cent pure energizing nutriment (146 calories for 5c) in practically pre-digested form. Quick-acting stimulant—to counteract brain-fog, lassitude and let-down which come to millions at 3 o'clock, according to efficiency experts.

Rich in blood-building food-iron also—frequently the one lack that keeps thousands under par.

You need but a small bit of iron daily, yet that need is vital.

So get raisins now, and form the habit. Have these luscious little seedless raisins on your desk or table—within easy reach—all day to stave off hunger and fatigue.

A good way is to Buy at Noon

Always buy at noon so you'll have them for your afternoon refreshment—make that your daily, profitable habit.

Packed just like "big sister" Sun-Maids in a great, modern, sanitary plant in California! Wholesome, sweet and clean. Made from highest quality seedless table grapes, the finest grown.

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This irritates the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Mulified coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything you can possibly use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls of Mulified will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulified coconut oil shampoo at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months. Be sure your drug-gist gives you Mulified.

Be sure you get the highest quality Mulified. Be sure you get the highest quality Mulified.

ADVERTISEMENT. Rupture Kills 7,000 Annually

Seven thousand persons each year are laid away—the burial certificate being marked "Rupture." Why? Because the unfortunate ones had neglected themselves or had been merely taking care of the sign (swelling of the abdomen) and paying no attention to the cause. What are you doing? Are you neglecting yourself by wearing a brass appliance of whatever name you choose to call it? At best, the brass is only a makeshift—like a splint against a collapsing wall—and cannot be expected to act as more than a mere mechanical support. The brass pressure retards blood circulation, thus robbing the weakened muscles of that which they need most—nutriment.

But science has found a way, and every truss sufferer in the land is invited to make a FREE test right in the privacy of their own home. The PLAPAO method is unquestionably the most scientific, logical and successful treatment for ruptures the world has ever known.

The PLAPAO PAD when adhering closely to the body cannot possibly slip or shift out of place, therefore cannot chafe or pinch. Soft as velvet—easy to apply—irrespective. Be used whilst you work and whilst you sleep. No straps, buckles or springs attached.

Learn how to ease the hernial opening as nature intended so the rupture CAN'T come down. Send your name today to PLAPAO CO., Block 840, St. Louis, Mo., for FREE trial. Place and the information necessary.

Children's Theater

Established in Omaha

Omaha will have a "Children's Theater" according to plans of Miss Marguerite Beckman, who has charge of the dramatic department of the Sherwood school, now opening at Jacobs hall, Seventh and Dodge streets. The school is a branch of the well-known Sherwood school of Chicago.

"Little Red Riding Hood" will be the first play given. It is scheduled for October 8 and will be followed by "The Traveling Musician," "One Eye, Two Eyes and Three Eyes," all delightful stories of fancy. The children will play not only the character parts but will represent animals and even trees and flowers, it being Miss Beckman's purpose to develop imagination, poise and power of expression in her pupils.

The cast for "Red Riding Hood" includes Dorothy Wahl in the title role, Donaldia Karis as the mother, Blaine Wahl, the wolf, and Walter Doty, the woodman.

The properties of the former Craik theater will be taken over for this work. A small door fee will be charged for the plays.

Miss Beckman, who is a member of the educational committee of the Drama league, has a class of 80 pupils at Mt. St. Mary's and several private classes of girls clubs, as well as individual pupils. She is fitted for her instructional work through professional dramatic and operatic experience as well as through her studies with Mme. Marie Lydia Stanich of Chicago, who will appear in Omaha this season before the Drama league, and Yvette Guilbert of New York City, who was in Omaha two seasons ago.

Humane Society Holds Tag Day

Miss Jessie Millard, one of the trustees of the Nebraska Humane society, which is to hold its second annual tag day Saturday, October 8, makes the following appeal: The Nebraska Humane society is to have a tag day, Saturday, October 8, and the generous people of Omaha are asked to help an organization unique in its scope.

This organization works for children, together with the Creche Child Saving Institute, day nursery, Father Flannagan's home, Visiting Nurses and other helpful agencies, each in its own chosen way, but the Humane society is the only organization that works for the dumb, helpless animals. Omaha has many pitiful cases of abused and neglected animals calling for a "square deal" and if it were not for the Humane society no attention would be paid to their suffering.

The Nebraska Humane society has charge of the shelter, the dog tax, hauls away the dead animals and tries to answer all emergency calls in this wide area called Omaha.
