Harvard to Play Hoosiers in First Intersectional Clash of the Season

Indiana Primed For Saturday's Battle in East

Notre Dame Bucks Iowa in Feature Game of Middle-West-Both Teams Composed of Veterans.

With every eleven of note swing-ing into action next Saturday, the long list of foot ball games will featured by om different secons of the counry. Harvard is a representative of eastern foot ball, while the Hoos-(Indiana captain.) iers, who give promise of being onger than the usual run of In-eleven to represent the middlewest. Notre Dame Takes on Iowa. In the middlewest the clash be-tween Notre Dame and Iowa on the latter's gridiron should be one of hardest fought of the season. Both teams will be made up of tried veterans whose ability is too well known for comment. Coach Rockne has a formidable array of talent, and the way his team won the open-ing game from Kalamazoo, 56 to 0, shows there is power and speed in the machine. Iowa will present a strong front and a versatile attack. With Capt. Aubrey Devine performing in the triple role of passer, kicker and runner, Iowa has a great player. The Hawkeye leader will be supported by his brother, Glen, at haliback, Locke at fullback, Slater at tackle and Belding at end, players who rank with the leaders in the section.

Purp'e to Test Gophers. The result of the game between Minnesota and Northwestern at Minneapolis will be watched with in-terest, not so much from the Purple's standjoint as from the Gophers'. Coach Williams has a great array of talent, and his team should make amends for the showing of a year 230, when every conference game

Purdue will play its first conference game by meeting Chicago on Stagg field. The Boilermakers, under Mays Won His 27th Game of the guidance of William Dietz, former Carlisle Indian player, are expected to make a stronger showing than former Purdue teams. The Indian mentor has a number of veterans, and if they play up to form should give the Maroons a battle, Badgers Strong in Back Field. Wisconsin, runner-up in last year's conference race, will play South Dakota college at Madison in a game which the Badgers should win. Coach Richards is hard pressed for a quarter back, and if he elects to use Elliott he will have a great quar-tet of ball carriers in Elliott, Wil-liams, Capt. Sundt and Gould.

Illinois will engage in its first battle by playing South Daketa at season. Mays, however, was hit Trbana. A lot of interest will cenhard at times. Philadelphia getting ter around the showing of this year's eleven, because Zuppke's squad has been riddled by injuries and failures of promising players to return to col-

Ohio State, 1920 champions, will regage in its second struggle of the year with Oberlin the opponent. Betore the Buckeyes joined the conference this was an important game on the schedules of both elevens. The contest should go a long way toward fitting Coach Wilce's team for the first important battle of the season with Minnesota at Columbus on October 15.
