

Another Search To Be Made for Fogg Murderer

Detectives to Comb City for Guilty Person Following Acquittal of James Saxton.

A new search will be instituted immediately by police and the county attorney's office for the murderer of Frank Fogg, veteran druggist, who was shot to death in his store.

Following the acquittal of James Saxton, 23, of the murder, Chief of Detectives Van Dusen announced yesterday morning that he would assign detectives to search the town for the guilty person.

Three witnesses are said to have changed their testimony on the stand after having identified Saxton as the man seen running from the Fogg drug store following the shooting.

Van Dusen is convinced the real murderer is a drug addict, probably a white man.

Saxton was acquitted when District Judge Troup took the case from the jury.

County Attorney Coffey announced yesterday that the prosecution had six eye-witnesses to the murder of John Brzowski in a South Side drink parlor July 19, Charles Marezek, charged with the crime, will go on trial Monday.

The trial of John Latier, negro, charged with killing Carl Ruben, grocery store owner, will be held a week from next Monday.

Man Tries to Get Former Wife Back

Girl Demurs—All She Wants From Ex-Hubby Is Coat, Watch and Books.

When Zella Dubigg, 20, married S. C. Carbaugh, 44, in Tekamah, Neb., May 18, 1920, she did not know he was 24 years older than she, she asserts. At the end of three weeks, she learned the truth, however, her dreams of happiness disappeared and she went to her mother's home at Coffman, Neb., according to Zella.

She is now in the Salvation Army Rescue home in Omaha, and Carbaugh has opened fight in district court for a writ of habeas corpus to have his former bride returned.

When informed yesterday that Carbaugh had instituted action to have her returned, she replied: "I won't go back to him. Why he's older than my father. All I want from him is my winter coat, wrist watch and school books—and to be left alone."

According to Matron Lillian Neas of the Rescue home, the marriage was annulled through the efforts of Attorney Grace Ballard of Washington county.

Cabinet Member's Wife Visits Here

Mrs. Hoover in Omaha Over Night

Few Persons Aware of Fact, As Identity Kept From Public.

Mrs. Herbert Hoover, wife of the secretary of commerce, was in Omaha Tuesday night and Wednesday morning, but very few persons knew it, as she registered at the Rome hotel and Omaha Automobile club as just plain "Mrs. Lou Henry Hoover."

With her were Charles Henry, L. H. Homer, Mr. and Mrs. Delarge, and S. C. Chaffier. They are making an automobile trip to Waterloo, Ia., where they will visit relatives. The party started from the Hoover home in Berkeley, Cal., some time ago.

In a letter to J. L. Haskins, secretary of the Omaha Automobile club, when the party started, a request was made that Mrs. Hoover's identity be kept from the public as she wished to travel without any demonstration. Identity of the party was learned after it had gone.

The tourists left Omaha Wednesday morning for Waterloo, Ia., where Mrs. Hoover will join her husband.

Children Object to Frenzer Will Probate

Objections to the probate of the will of the late John N. Frenzer, real estate man, by his two sons, Arthur and Clarence, and his daughter, Esther, were filed in county court yesterday.

The objections state "that the will was drawn through the result of fraud, mistake and undue influence exerted on the deceased while he was sick and infirm."

The will, as filed for probate, makes eight charitable institutions and eight distant relatives beneficiaries to small sums and provides $600 a year each for the two sons and daughter.

Spurious Money Passed in Omaha

Secret Service on Trail of Counterfeiter Who Vic-timized Stores.

According to reports from several Omaha stores and bakeries, a lone counterfeiter has been passing worthless $10 bills in the last four days.

P. T. Hedin, manager of the Federal Bakeries, reported the matter to the secret service office in Omaha, Saturday. Investigation disclosed that Hayden Brothers and the Basket Stores had received some of the spurious paper.

The counterfeiter has been traced from the Pacific coast to Salt Lake City, Denver and thence to Omaha. His picture has been identified by several clerks in stores here.

When a counter girl in a North Sixteenth street bakery detected one of the counterfeit bills last Monday, the man attempting to pass it snatched it from her and ran.

Sues for $10,000 Damages For Loss of War Relics

Loss of his war relics was equivalent to the loss of $10,000 in the opinion of John G. James, who filed suit yesterday for that amount in district court against Burt Taylor, proprietor of a rooming house at 1708 Jackson street.

James says he rented a room of Taylor September 13, and that during his absence, someone stole a suitcase, containing a German belt, a gas mask and other relics which he collected in France, including a bullet which was removed from his cheek.

Music in the Home Puts Sunshine in the Heart

A Plain Talk

There Is No "Best Piano"

There are three or four makes of pianos developed to such a point of perfection that they have acquired distinct individuality. Each of their makers has evolved certain theories of tone quality. They are each made of the finest obtainable material by the most skilled workmen. It cannot be claimed that one is better than another. Among these

MEISSNER PIANO

Possesses a tone personality peculiarly its own, characterized by resonance, depth and sympathy. And weighs only 384 pounds, three feet, seven inches high and a full 7-octave. A fitting instrument for the finest home.

Come in and see this wonderful big and yet small piano.
