Haskell Indians Are Working Hard Rounding Into Condition for Nebraska Game.

Lawrence, Kan., Oct. 9.—(Special.)—With the record of 103 points amassed in the two games played this season and no points scored against them, the Haskell Indians have turned their attention to preparation for the first real football battle of the year, the game with Nebraska, October 15, at Lincoln.

The reputation won in recent seasons by the University of Nebraska on widely scattered gridsiron is formidable. While admitting that this record is impressive, the Braves are firm in their belief that they have more than a fighting chance to be victorious when they meet the Huskers.

Madison Bell, coach of the Indians and former Center college star, is putting his braves through the most rigid training ever indulged in at the Indian school, at least in recent years. The usual plod which ordinarily concludes the day's work on the gridiron has been stretched into a full mile run in these days before the Nebraska struggle and copperhead athletes on many tries met about the field daily from early afternoon to dusk.

Little was shown in the first two games of the season which might indicate the true strength of the Haskell team. The Indians triumphed over the Kansas City Normal in the season's opener, 14 to 0, under a boiling sun two weeks ago. The Braves trampled underfoot the Kansas Wesleyans, 89 to 0, in what might be christened a re-enactment of the battle of the Little Big Horn.

Before the contest came to an end the members of the second team and many of the third string men were given a chance.

Regardless of the absence of data gathered when the Braves were being forced to extend themselves, it seems safe to say that the Indian school will be represented by the strongest football team it has produced since the days when Ben Powell, former running mate of Jim Thorpe, cavorted about the gridiron, some eight or 10 years ago, carrying the old gold and purple of Haskell.

In these days of high railroad rates quite a travel bill might be run up before a person could journey about the central west far enough to discover a better backfield than may be picked from the Haskell string which includes McLemore, captain and quarterback; Levi, who stands well over six feet and is in the 200-pound class; and Campbell, fullback; Anderson, Otipich, Bates and other ballbacks.

Davis, a full-footed braver from Oklahoma and Carpenter, a full-blooded Sioux, at ends, are professed enough in the gridiron sport to delight the heart of any coach. What Haskell may be able to do with heavy teams like Nebraska and Notre Dame is who the Indians may prevent these teams from doing to Haskell will probably rest on what the line from tackle to tackle can show.

Big League Stars Playing Managers for California Winter League Ball Clubs

Four Teams in League and Cobb, Heilman, Hornsby, Sisler Divided Among Them—First Real Season

Los Angeles, Oct. 9.—Four major league stars—Ty Cobb, Harry Heilman, Rogers Hornsby and George Sisler—who are today managing the four clubs in the California Winter league, are pepping up the play although the season is less than a week young.

All are playing managers, and are held responsible for making the first season of Winter league a success. California heretofore has had many Winter base ball clubs, but this is the first attempt to play regular league ball.

Here's how they line up on the Winter league diamonds today: Cobb—Outfielder for San Francisco Seals. Heilman—Rightfield for San Francisco Missions. Hornsby—Second base for Los Angeles club. Sisler—First base for Vernon club.

All-Stars Slip Buffaloes 13-2 Defeat at Park

"Smiling" Bert Glaizer is Nicked for Eight Runs and 13 Hits—McManus Soaks Ball Over Fence.

JOHNNY Tobin's All-stars have had the offerings of "Smiling" Bert Glaizer yesterday and tucked a victory under their belts by the top-heavy score of 13 to 2. The Buffaloes had a chance to stand toe to toe with the American Leaguers in the first round, but in the second, the Tobinites got their stride and rolled it one score.

Then in the third they grabbed off five more counts and the same number in the fourth. Glaizer halted them in the fifth and then turned the glove over to Conkright, the Detroit hurler, who joined Omaha late last season.

Conkright did JOHNNY TOBIN, not make a good start. He was the first man up and then McManus, the erstwhile Oiler second sacker, clouted the pellet over the right field barrier for a home run, bringing in the deadhead Jones.

But speaking of home runs, this Jones of the Duffers, Tigers also clouted one. It went over the right-field boards in about the same place as McManus.

Dixie Davis was on the mound for the leaguers and just shipped the Buffaloes enough hits to keep up their enthusiasm.

Hazen pulled the spectacular play of the game when he made a running one-handed catch of Davis' long drive to right field.

The leaguers play at Fremont today.

The lineup: All-Stars, Omaha. Tobin, 25; Conkright, 20; Jones, 10; Hazen, 15; Davis, 12; Williams, 18; McManus, 14; Glaizer, 11; Schlang, 8; Wagner, 5; Hagan, 2.

Champion Since 1906 Beaten by Marion Hollins

New Yorker Never Allowed Title Holder to Get Lead And Took 36-Hole Match, 5 and 4.

Deal, N. J., Oct. 9.—A new champion woman golfer of the United States was crowned on the fourth green of the Hollywood Golf club Saturday, Miss Marion Hollins, a member of the West Brook Golf club of Great River, N. Y., succeeding Miss Alexa Stirling of Atlanta, Ga., who had held the title since 1916.

In the final round of the week's annual national tournament, Miss Hollins defeated Miss Stirling, 5 and 4 in a 36-hole match. Miss Stirling was never in the lead, and was four down after the morning play of 18 holes.

Heavy rain was falling as the afternoon play began. Before it had ceased Miss Stirling had cut her opponent's lead to one up, winning three of the first four holes in the afternoon. The minute the rain stopped Miss Hollins had better control of her long tee shots and began to increase her lead.

Buckeyes' Dignity Receives Hard Jolt

Columbus, O., Oct. 9.—Ohio State's western conference players were given a setback Saturday. Oberlin, a small upstate college, accomplished the unexpected and defeated the Buckeyes, 7 to 6. Ohio State showed little of the driving offense which carried the conference championship last year.

bagger against the left field barrier and McNally counted, but Rawlings tossed out Mays and Schlang was left stranded. Thereafter until Ruth got hold of a moist offering in the ninth, the Yanks had no real scoring opportunity.

Douglas fanned eight Yanks in all, two in the seventh and two more in the eighth.

Foot Ball Facts Worth Knowing

By SOL METZGER

Q. Player of the kicker's side purposely touches punted ball. Is the ball dead?

A. A ball is not necessarily dead and any defensive player may pick up and run with it provided the whistle has not blown.

Q. Can a team receiving the kick-off run the ball back if it crosses the goal line and then the side line?

A. No.

Q. May the receiver of a punt using his hands to shield his eyes from the sun be allowed to advance the ball after catching it?

A. He can. The position of his arm when signaling for a fair catch must be fully extended in a vertical position and his elbow not bent.

Q. May a guard on offense receive the ball from the center?

A. He may, provided he conforms with the line of scrimmage rule and does not advance the ball.

Q. What choice has the winner of the toss?

A. He may kick-off or defend a specific goal.
