

Military Holds Sway at Jubilee At Shenandoah

Governor Kendall Joins in Celebration Bright and Early—Festivities Close Tonight With Pageant.

By EDWARD BLACK.
Staff Correspondent of The Bee.
Shenandoah, Ia., Oct. 14.—The military was in possession of Shenandoah yesterday, designated as Military day on the calendar of the Golden Jubilee celebration. Harry Day and Carl Brown, mounted lancers, rode through the streets at 6 a. m., arousing the sleepers to greet another sun-kissed dawn.

First White Child of "Daughter of the Stars"

Joseph O'Day

Shenandoah, Ia., Oct. 14.—Joseph O'Day is the oldest living native of Shenandoah. Residents of this town refer to him as "the first white child born in Shenandoah." During the golden jubilee week, Mr. O'Day, the golden jubilee man, donned his best bib and tucker and joined in the merry throng of celebrants.

This oldest inhabitant of the "Daughter of the Stars" was born on February 22, 1871, on Sheridan avenue, the main street of Shenandoah. When he was born, Shenandoah was known as "Fair Oaks," the settlement having been given its genesis by the Mormons who settled at Mantle. Mr. O'Day's father, Daniel O'Day, came from Illinois in 1870 and managed a boarding house where he accommodated workmen who graded the Burlington right-of-way through Page county.

He has observed Shenandoah grow from its primitive condition to its present importance as one of the leading communities of southwestern Iowa. It is an interesting and instructive dramatization of episodes from the overseas journey of Columbus to modern Shenandoah; 600 participants will appear in the pageant. The first part of the history, with an immense quilt, written on the pages of a great book, while on the opposite pages are shown living pictures. The court of Spain, America, Iowa in 1673, when Father Marquette, first white man in the Hawkeye state, preached to the Indians; Iowa in territory days, showing friendly Indians and trappers making trails for the pioneers.

Part two of the pageant will depict the Blackhawk purchase in 1832. Another scene will show pioneering in Page county, followed by Shenandoah yesterday; episode four will be Shenandoah of today and tomorrow. At the conclusion of the pageant the audience will join in singing "Shenandoah," a local song, the first verse of which follows: "We have built us a city strong and fair and good shelter safe for home and fireside; Warm with brotherhood in our hearts we have inspired here though we widely roam; Fond remembrances will call us back to our Shenandoah home. The defeat of a local team of 60-year-old veteran base ball players, by the Fish Center girls team by a score of 22 to 18 has added to the merriment of jubilee week. John Edwards was captain of the veterans who put A. M. Bowman in to swirl and L. M. Daughters behind the plate. The vets were gay to the fourth inning, when the girls began to play with unwonted vigor. The story is that Willie Glasgow and Martin Sims, who impersonated as girls, went in to pitch and catch, respectively, in the fourth for the Fish Center beauties.

BIG CHANGE IN THIS FAMILY IS NOW REMARKED

Man, Wife and Daughter All Report Wonderful Gains in Weight.

"I gained 12 pounds, my wife gained 26 pounds and my daughter is gaining day by day taking Tanlac. It's the biggest surprise of our lives and all our friends and neighbors are talking about it. This medicine has made a wonderful change in every one of us. Before I got Tanlac, I could hardly drag one foot after the other. I had indigestion perfectly awful. In fact we were all regularly dyspeptics. We all swear by Tanlac now at our house. It ought to be in every home. It's the world's greatest family medicine."

The above statement was made by George L. Tessa, a well known and highly respected machinist, living at 83 Downing street, Buffalo, N. Y. Tanlac is sold in Omaha by the Sherman & McConnell Drug Co. and by leading druggists everywhere.

Haynes Strikés Staggering Blow At Home Brewers

Prohibition Commissioner Announces Drive on Dealers Selling Malt and Hops—Planned as Test Case.

Washington, Oct. 14.—Prohibition Commissioner Haynes struck a blow at home brew that may prove fatal. Beginning with raids in Washington on dealers who sell malt, hops and other ingredients used in the making of beer in the homes, the commissioner announced that he had directed similar raids all over the country. The raids are made to test the provision of the Volstead act relating to the selling of materials that can be used in the manufacture of beer and liquor. The government officials do not contemplate invading the homes in this campaign to stop home brewing, but will confine their activities to stopping the sale of the ingredients. Yesterday's action came as a general surprise because the sale of malt and hops has gone on unmolested by the authorities throughout the country. Grocery stores and notion stores everywhere had been supplying the demand which has

Deadwood, S. D., Oct. 14.—A forest fire is raging along a two-mile front near Buckhorn, Wyo., in the Black Hills national forest. Four forest rangers and 40 ranchers and farmers who are battling the flames sent an urgent appeal to Deadwood at midnight Thursday for more men and supplies. Toronto Doctor Nearly Starved for Lack of Match

Atikokan, Ont., Oct. 14.—Dr. Graham Chambers, Toronto physician, rescued after being lost for two weeks in the woods, almost starved to death for lack of a match.

Dr. Chambers, weakened from cold and hunger, arrived here last night on a litter strapped to the bow of a motor boat. He said he had seen plenty of partridges and that he had not lacked ammunition, but refrained from shooting any birds because he was convinced he could not eat them raw. His feet were badly blistered from tramping. He said one of the air-men engaged in the search for him had flown over the spot where he was standing but he was unable to attract his attention.
