Krasne and Camero Chalk Up Touchdowns for Book-keepers, While Mathews Scores for Visitors.

Another state high school fell by the wayside in the race for the state grid championship yesterday when Coach James Drummond's High School of Commerce triumphed...

Commerce Deserves Credit. Commerce also earned a dandy game and won a well-earned victory. Coach Drummond's backfield plugged away at the light Beatrice line from start to finish for good gains. The Maroon backs were given good interference each time they lugged the ovals, and this, coupled with the speed of the Commerce backfield, was one of the best features of the game.
