necessary delay in some cases results in congestion which multiplies the troubles of all the waiting aliens.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Oct. 28 .- (Special Telegram.)-A jury in the Custer county circuit court, after a sensational trial lasting 10 days, returned a verdict of second degree manslaughter against Joseph Foertsch for having shot and killed his wife on her ranch near Fairburn last July The couple had separated and the murder resulted from a family feud. Foertsch had been living at Chadron, Neb., and he made the trip from there to the ranch of his wife to commit the crime. He was captured by a posse of forest rangers and ranchers while niding in the Black Hills following the tragedy. Eighty-five jurors were summoned and examined before the 12 who sat on the case were selected. The testimony of 25 witnesses was taken. Judge William Miser, who presided, has not yet imposed sentence.
