

Widow of Buffalo Bill
Left Estate of $95,000;
Nebraskan Gets $5,000

Wyo., Oct. 28.—The will of the widow of Col. W. F. (Buffalo Bill) Cody, who died at her home here last week, was filed for probate yesterday and revealed an estate of $95,000, of which $15,000 is in personal property and $80,000 in real estate.

Clara B. Penn of London, England, under the will, receives $1, and William Cody Boal of North Platte, Neb., $5,000. The remainder of the estate is to be divided equally among Jane Irma Garlow, William J. Garlow and Frederick Cody Garlow, adopted children and grandchildren by blood. The Garlow children live here.

The will provides for the sale of famous pictures belonging to the estate, including the Buffalo paintings, "Alas Poor Yorick," "Drifting," and "Good Morning," the portrait of Buffalo Bill by Rosa Bonheur and the painting by Beacon, "The Conquest of the Prairie."

J. M. Schwob and S. C. Parks, jr., of Cody, are named executors.
An easily attached handle has been patented to replace one on hand baggage that has been worn out or broken.

Man Confesses to Series Of Oil Station Robberies
Salt Lake City, Oct. 28.—A man giving the name of S. E. Hartsell, 29, who confessed, according to the police, that he was the leader of a gang of five men which recently held up clerks at many oil supplying stations here, was arrested by detectives as he was paying for a meal in a restaurant today. Hartsell is suffering from a wound in the leg. He denied that he was shot while committing a robbery in Los Angeles a few weeks ago, as alleged by the police. Hartsell's alleged confederates were captured last week a few minutes after holding up an oil station clerk and are serving sentences at the state prison.

Twenty-Seven Rewarded
By Carnegie Hero Fund
Pittsburgh, Oct. 28.—Twenty-seven persons, eight of whom lost their lives while attempting to save the lives of others, were formally recognized by the Carnegie Hero Fund commission at its fall meeting here. Four heroes received silver medals and the others medals of bronze. Money awards were made as follows: Five pensions aggregating $4,620 a year; one pension of $25 a month, and a cash reward of $250; seven educational awards aggregating $7,400; other worthy purposes in 12 cases, $10,500.

Trimmed Hats

At 8.75

Bright autumn tinted velvets, ostrich sweeps, fetching pompons, flowers and metal trimmings, make these hats attractive. There is sure to be a becoming style among the flaring up-turned brims or the wider droopy ones. Others have stiff narrow brims with soft crushed crowns which are so easy to wear. A rather different looking one is a smart colonial shape with a jaunty ostrich pompon of French blue. But come and see for yourself this charming selection of hats that are so moderately priced at 8.75
