2. Continued improvement of the Nebraska Highways...

New Party for Nebraska
While the formation of a political party in Nebraska holds nothing of novelty, the experience being not in any sense unusual...

Men Who Do Things
The aviation contest is to be held, after many weeks of uncertainty. On every hand there has been vacillation and doubt.

It's Imported
What the attraction is would be hard to analyze, but the mere mention that an article is imported increases the regard in which it is held.

French Wine and Our Morals
Henry Wales cables from Paris that the French officials and employes who will come to the Washington conference are distressed...

Recalling a State Administration
Unofficial returns from more than half the precincts of North Dakota indicate that Governor Lynn J. Frazier has been recalled by the citizens of that state...

Good Health, Good Business
Tuberculosis is commonly thought of as a disease peculiar to human beings, but it is also one of the greatest menaces to the live stock industry.

How to Keep Well
Questions concerning hygiene, sanitation and prevention of disease, submitted by Dr. Evans to readers of The Bee, will be answered personally...

Roosevelt and Railroads
Letter to Lyman Abbott is Timely at the Present.
The following letter, sent by Theodore Roosevelt to Dr. Lyman Abbott, in September, 1916, is published by The Outlook:

My Dear Doctor Abbott:
I hope you liked my speech at Lewiston. I wish to express my obligation to you for the admirable suggestions you made to me, and which I worked into the latter part of the speech.

Men Who Do Things (continued)
This event is destined to be a big one, if present plans succeed. But it is not too big for Omaha. The capacity of the city for staging national and international events is to be measured only by one thing: the willingness of men of wealth and influence to exert themselves for the public benefit.

It's Imported (continued)
The attraction is would be hard to analyze, but the mere mention that an article is imported increases the regard in which it is held.

French Wine and Our Morals (continued)
The French do not understand a civilization which denies citizens the use of wine. They do not understand a diet which is possible without it.

Recalling a State Administration (continued)
Unofficial returns from more than half the precincts of North Dakota indicate that Governor Lynn J. Frazier has been recalled by the citizens of that state.
