The class in expression III, under Miss Tohill, entertained the students Wednesday during chapel period with a short comedy, "Joint Owners in Spain." It was an all-feminine cast, as follows: Dorothea Tyler, the heroine; Pforence Rubottom, Anna Smith and Dora Strickland. The impersonation of the characters in the old lady's home required not a little cleverness in makeup and acting.

No, this is not the Ku Kiu Klan, but only the Klass in Kamp Kookery that made two trips to the hills to gain actual experience in modern camp cookery. The first trip was not an entirely successful one, owing to a lack of suitable firewood, but the last one was very satisfactory. In a very short time the class and their instructor, Miss Delzell, were enjoying a most delicious supper of griddic cakes with syrup, rice and tomate sauce and coffee.

The A. F. P. received a strong infusion of fresh talent on last Thursday when 13 students were introduced to the mysteries which transformed them into followers of Alice Freeman Palimer and sectors after the Seven Graces.

At the first meeting of the sophomore class this year Helen Eason was elected president; Vida McMillan, vice president; Dorothea Builard, secretary-treasurer. By a unanimous vote Miss Boyer was chosen sponsor.
