

Gipsy Describes Life in Trenches At Auditorium

Building Crowded to Capacity and Many Stand to Hear Evangelist Tell of War Experiences.

The first portion of Gipsy Smith's lecture, "Three and a Half Years With Our Boys in the Trenches," was delivered Wednesday night at the Auditorium to a crowd estimated at more than 8,000.

The first part of the lecture dealt mainly with the men as the evangelist came in contact with them while working at a Y. M. C. A. but in France. He paid glowing tributes to the American soldiers and the American Y. M. C. A.

Not Prepared for War. "When war broke out England was not prepared," he said. "England hadn't 20 tons of TNT and we had none. But when war was declared we began shipping more ammunition to Germany by a different route."

Service Men Stand. At this juncture the evangelist asked all former service men to stand. He said: "Gentlemen, we are proud of you. We can repay our debt to you. You have saved the race. We love you and don't want to forget you and the brave men you represent. You gave up mothers, wives and homes to fight. God forgive us if we ever forget you. You came to our rescue when the world was in danger. You shall always hold our everlasting love. You did a great thing when you showed you were ready to die for your country. You can do better now by living for it, and you can do that only by living as God would have you live."

The evangelist's words were received with cheers. "I saw the boys, the cream of the world, going out to fight. I decided that was the place for me, with the cream. I tried to enlist as a soldier. I was told I was too old. I could have got a job as chaplain, but I wasn't a regular parson, thank God. "Out there, you know, they didn't care to what denomination you belonged. They were too big for that. All they wanted was Jesus and they got Him from me. "I finally got a job as a Y. M. C. A. representative. "There isn't a British soldier that won't say, 'Thank God for the Y. M. C. A.' You would too if you were honest about it." The last remark was addressed toward the ex-service men.

Burglars Loot Grocery, Cafe and Clothing Store. The grocery store of G. A. Mullinger, 2501 South Twenty-fourth street, was robbed of $300 worth of goods Wednesday night by thieves who broke through the front door. They took summer sausage, cream cheese, catsup, rice, eggs, butterine, bottled ham, tobacco, cigars and a dozen hair nets. A burglar opened the door of Elias Mena's store, 420 North Sixteenth street, with a key Wednesday night and stole $5 and four dozen pairs of women's stockings of assorted colors. Ralph Barich's cafe, 1306 Dodge street, was entered Wednesday night by a thief who carried off two granite cooking utensils and one of aluminum.

U. S. Attorney Unable to Get Quintet Out of Jail

James C. Kinsler, United States district attorney, wields a lot of authority around the federal building. But he can't get people out of the county jail. Wednesday night he telephoned to Sheriff Mike Clark to release five men arrested in a raid yesterday afternoon in two shacks near East Omaha. "They gave bond in county court," he explained. "Nothing doing," was Mike's reply. "They've got 'em in their slippers. They're in for the night." And in they stayed. They were released yesterday morning when a regular release form was sent over from the federal building.

Nine Children Found by Dead Mother's Bedside

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 10.—(Special Telegram)—Neighbors who went to the home of Charles Earnest here found nine little children, cold and hungry, in a rooming house, the dead body of their mother, which lay half clothed on a small cot. The father was out in search of work. He has been practically without work all summer. The mother had given birth to another baby a few days before and after its death she was too weak and undernourished to meet the demands of privation, doctors said.

Man Who Ticked Girl Apologizes Before Court

Katherine Kilkenny, 17, Drake Court, who caused the arrest of J. S. Monganero, 616 Pacific street, at the Moon theater Wednesday, received a public apology from Monganero in Central police court yesterday. Miss Kilkenny accused Monganero of tickling her.

Two-Minute Sermons Written Especially for The Bee by Gipsy Smith

Paul said, "All things are lawful, but all things are not expedient." He was a big enough Christian and a big enough man to be willing to sacrifice even those things he liked, not only for the sake of Christ, but for the sake of his fellow men. Hence he declared, "The things that were dear to me, I counted as dung and dross that I might know Him, and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His suffering."

Program on Opening Of Arms Meet Planned

Washington, Nov. 10.—(By The Associated Press.)—Active exchange of views are taking place between the delegations to the armament conference in order to agree on the program for the inaugural meeting Saturday. Up to the present, it seems that President Harding's opening address will be followed by the proposal from the English delegation to appoint Secretary Hughes as president of the conference which it is expected will be approved unanimously. Secretary Hughes will address a few words of welcome to the foreign delegates. Immediately afterward a committee will be formed or the delegation presidents of the five great powers which is already called the "big five" for the drafting of the agenda. Another committee composed of the representatives of the delegations of the four smaller countries, Holland, Portugal, Belgium and China will be added for the agenda concerning Far Eastern problems. The conference will then adjourn to Tuesday when the reports of these two committees will be presented.

Widow Wins $13,500 Verdict From Missouri Pacific

Mrs. Eva Hand won a verdict of $13,500 in federal court yesterday against the Missouri Pacific Railroad company. She sued for $74,000 for the death of her husband, Fay D. Hand, a switchman, killed in February, 1920.

Education Will Not Save World, Asserts Gipsy

Sin Began in a Garden, Recalls Evangelist—"Ye Must Be Born Again."

"The world is not to be saved through education," declared Gipsy Smith at the noonday religious services at the Brandeis theater yesterday. "But through regeneration." "The church keeps saying continually, 'educate,' while the Holy Ghost still preaches that old, old gospel, 'regenerate.' "You are born in the kingdom of sin and you must be reborn before you can enter the kingdom of God. You can give a child the best educational advantages possible until he has finished all the higher institutions of learning, but you have only a natural man. To get God in his heart, he must be regenerated. "You can't make new creatures by making new surroundings. Some of the worst sinners I know live in big houses, ride in automobiles and wear silk and broadcloth, while some of the holiest people I have known have lived in hovels, but they had the spirit of God with them. "Sin didn't begin in a hovel, but in a garden. You must hear the voice of God and be regenerated if you want salvation," he urged.

Prices of Clothing Drop, Says Omahan

John A. Swanson, president of the Nebraska Clothing company, who returned yesterday from a buying trip in the eastern markets preparatory to the store's 36th anniversary sale, declared that prices of clothing are substantially lower. "The wise merchant today will adopt the policy which the Nebraska Clothing company believes in, namely that of cutting prices to a basis of replacement cost," he said. "It may be necessary for the clothing merchant to take losses because of falling prices. But, if he is wise, he will do that and keep his goods moving and give his customers the benefit of the falling wholesale prices."

Miners to Strike If Wages Are Cut

Colorado Workers Decide to Strike If Attempt to Reduce Rates Is Made.

Trinidad, Colo., Nov. 10.—A reduction of wages at any mine owned by the Colorado Fuel & Iron company will be met by a suspension of work in all that company's mines.

That was the plan of action definitely decided upon here last night by officials of the United Mine Workers of America, meeting here to discuss a threatened wage reduction, according to union officials. John P. McLenna, president of District No. 15 of the union, issued a statement in which he said: "We are all aware that a reduction in wages in the Colorado fuel and iron mines would simply be preliminary to a reduction in all other mines and it is the policy of our organization that if a cut is put into effect in any of the Colorado fuel and iron mines, the miners working at all mines will suspend work. "We have the full moral and financial support of the international union resisting any reduction in wages and upholding the award of the United States government commission. We hold that a coal operator has no more right to violate an agreement than has a coal miner."
