Mrs. Neal Will Go To Trial Tuesday On Murder Charge

Widow of Farmer of Peru, Found Slain in Home, September 12, to Start Battle for Life.

Auburn, Neb., Nov. 14.—(Special.)—On Tuesday morning, November 15, Mrs. Lucy Neal will be placed on trial in the district court of Nemaha county, Judge John B. Raper presiding, for the murder of ter late husband, Billington F. Neal, on the night of September 11, 1921. on the night of September 11, 1921. County Attorney Ernest M. Armstrong demanded an immediate trial. A large crowd from all over the county, it is anticipated, will be attracted to Auburn during the trial because of the prominence, of the persons connected with the tragedy. Farmer Found Dead.

Billington Neal, 62, was found ly ing dead one the floor of the bedroom of his bungalow on an isolated farm in the hill country, lying be-tween Brownville and Peru, on the morning of Friday, September 12, by a posse which had been summoned from Peru by the dead man's wife. She stated she had been awakened from her sleep by the sound of two revolver shots. Then she heard the thud of her husband's body as it fell on the floor. Her 16-year old daughter, Ava, a step-daughter of Neal's, said she had been awakened by one shot, and leaping from bed. a room in another part of the house, joined her mother in the dining room, and together they ran screaming to the home of a neighbor, Charles Buck.

Buck telephoned to Peru for assistance. Town Marshal J. C. Woodie and Dr. Vance found Near lying on the floor. There was a bullet wound in the left side of his neck. There were no powder stains at the opening of the wound. Wedded 12 Years.

Neal and his wife had been married 12 years and their marital relations during that period had been tempestuous. In a flue in the kitchen was found concealed a letter purported to have been a confession of improper relations of Mrs. Neal with A. E. Butler, a Fremont man, who had been in the employ of the state as a guard at a road builders camp of convicts from the peniten-

WHY-

Is a Roll of Tobacco Called a "Cigar"?

A number of prominent etymolo gists, among them Littre, have endeavored to prove that the word and finally even that went against "cigar" is derived from the Spanish "cigarra," meaning a grasshopper, and that it was applied to the rolled leaves of tobacco by reason of their similarity in shape to the body of this insect. This explanation, while ingenius, hardly fits the facts in the
