By RALPH WAGNER.

With King Foot Ball ready to take a back seat in the sportlight of Nebraska, state high school grid teams are making a hard fight to make the closing days of the 1921 season a grand success at their respective schools.

Thirty-eight his chool foot ball games are scheduled for Nebraska elevens this afternoon, and when game-time rolls around the followers of "prep" school gridiron battles should witness several interesting contests. Of the 38 games carded for this afternoon one will be played in Omaha and two in Iowa, the remainder being billed for Husker soil.

Should Be Good Game.

While both schools are out of the running for the state championship punting, the game should develop into a hard-fought affair, with the Packers having the edge. In Sulli-van and Bernard, Coach Patton has two backfield men who are dandy end runners and good tackles. The South high line is improving with every game and should be capable of holding the opposition this after-

Last week Lincoln eliminated Cambridge, 1920 champs, when the Capital City eleven defeated the ambridge squad in a hard-fought contest by the score of 6 to 0. Beatrice has lost but one game thus far this season, that to the Commerce gridsters, 13 to 6.

Lincoln has yet to meet defeat, although it has been held to a score-less tie by York. Without a doubt the Lincoln-Beatrice clash will be one of the hardest battled affairs on today's schedule and to predict the vinner is a hard job. Both teams appear strong on paper, but whether Quarterback Purdy of Beatrice, the heady little pilot, can steer his reammates to victory over their old rivals remains to be decided on the field of battle. Lincoln has an all-state backfield man in Lewis and the Beatrice warriors will do well if they keep an eagle eye on this dusky gridster wno is fast and a daudy broken field run-

Local Cagers To Meet Strong Basket Team

Creighton Schedule This Winter May Include Iowa Along With Notre Dame.

The efforts of the Creighton uni-sity athletic board to schedule a post-season game with one of the leading foot ball teams of the coun-try have failed. However, Creigh-ton fans need not worry over this for it is now a certainty that they will get a "close up" of several of the greatest foot ball players in the game today, when they appear here on the basket ball floor this season. On January 20 and 21 the University of Notre Dame will send its husky cage squad here to do battle with Coach Kearney's Blue and White team, Capt. Eddie Anderson of this year's Notre Dame foot ball team, and picked by many critics as All-American timber, both this season and last, plays standing guard on the basket ball team. Rodger Keiley, who is Anderson's running mate in foot ball and who cinched his place on the All-American team for this season when he ran amuck with the pigskin in the Notre Dame-Army game two weeks ago, plays running guard on the basket ball team. Hector Garvy and Harry Mohers, two giant line men are also members of the basket

There is also a persistent rumor going about the Creighton gym that the University of Iowa basket bali team will come to Omaha for a a few years ago one of the cleverest brace of games late in December. Welters in the business, and has No official announcement of this scored 13 knockouts in his last 18 enhas yet been made, however. In event the Hawkeyes do appear here they will have a few of the country's best pigskin luggers on their cage squad. Notable among these will be Captain Aubry Devine of the foot ball team, also a strong bidder for All-American honors; his brother, Glen Devine, Gordon Locke, fullback, with well-carned national reputation, and Belding, lowa's greatest tackle. Colgate university of Hamilton, N. Y., will be seen here on the 26th and 27th of December and the Michigan Aggies will mix it with Coach Kearney's team on February 3 and 4.

After Feather Title Two Teams Tied

For Honors in State Conference

Nebraska Wesleyan and Wayne Normal enter the home stretch in the Nebraska conference pigskin race this week tied for first place. Each of these schools has won three games, lost none and tied none. Wayne hopped into a tie with the Wesleyans last week by trouncing the Peru institution.

This week Wesleyan plays York at University Place. Wesleyan necessarily must humble the York team as a defeat would give the title to Wayne. The Panthers, at one time the leaders of the conference, have lost their last three games and are doped to lose to the Wesleyans. Hastings college has reinstated itself in the conference limelight. Jerking Cotner from the top as one of the three leading teams last week,

Hastings smeared the dope schedule with a shutout, Hastings plays the Peru Normals at Peru tomorrow and a victory, coupled with a Wayne and a Wesleyan defeat, means a revamped Standing again next week.

York holds the only defeat against Hastings, made early in the season.
If the York trio of victories are wiped from the calendar as sug-gested by its dean, because of the playing of an ineligible member, here will be another shake-up of the
