

Civilian Speed Cops to Display Badges on Cars

Some speed demons in autos will not stop when ordered to do so by a citizen officer of the safety traffic bureau of the Chamber of Commerce, declared Secretary George Carey yesterday. "As a result the bureau plans that civilian speed officers will display huge white badges on their cars to identify them as officers, according to Carey. Since the organization of the bureau a year and a half ago, the work done by the citizen coppers in campaigns for the prevention of automobile accidents, has meant dollars to Omaha. Harvey Milliken, chairman of the committee, pointed out yesterday at a meeting in the Chamber of Commerce. Some Blackstone Tenants Don't Pay Promptly, Alleged After extensive hearing before Federal Judge Woodrough yesterday, action was deferred upon the application of the Bankers' Realty company for a restraining order to prevent A. L. Schantz from disposing of $248,000 of notes of C. A. Schimmel, owner of the Blackstone hotel. William Ritchie, attorney for Schimmel, opposed issuance of the order, declaring that it would interfere with plans of Mr. Schimmel for refinancing the property. One reason that this is necessary, he said, is that some tenants of the fashionable family hotel do not pay their bills promptly. "Please make it clear," he said, "that I say 'some tenants,' not all. I live at the Blackstone and I don't want any trouble with my neighbors." Gray furs seem to be leading in favor.

W. R. McKeen, Motor Co. Head, Is Divorce Defendant William R. McKeen, former president of the McKeen Motor company, was sued for divorce Friday in district court, by Mary L. McKeen. Extreme cruelty is charged in the petition. Mr. and Mrs. McKeen were married in Santa Ana, Cal., August 23, 1911, following a sensational divorce suit in which Mrs. McKeen, then Mrs. Hull, sued Charles W. Hull. Shortly before that McKeen had been divorced by his first wife. The McKeens live at 5165 Leavenworth street. England leads the world in divorces, one being granted every 71-2 minutes.
