

Close To Nature On The Screen

Shantinn Day goes back to Nature - The former Ziegfeld girl, who has lately achieved success in the movies, strikes a graceful pose and contemplates (with the connivance of the camera man) the primal skies in a primal gown.

Marie Prevost, former bathing beauty, doesn't let stardom interfere with her play. Here is the comely star emulating the angler in one of Hollywood's well stocked streams.

A pearl before swine! Here we have Norma Talridge in a garden in Iowa.

Conita Talridge is as near to nature as her tuffy bathing garb will permit.

Not so bad for an amateur. Jackie Coogan is quite a fisherman besides being an accomplished actor.

George Fawcett showing kiddies how to fish.

Anita Stewart on location in "Gods Country".
