

2 Divorces, $15,000 Balm, Sought in Quadruple Tangle

Mrs. Nettie L. Allsman Asks Separation, Naming Mrs. Florence Clasen as "Love Thief."

Mrs. Nettie L. Allsman, in an answer to Walter E. Allsman's petition for divorce, named Mrs. Florence Clasen as a co-respondent. She asked separate maintenance.

Mrs. Allsman also filed suit in district court yesterday against Mrs. Clasen, charging her with alienating her husband's affections, and asking $15,000 damages.

Mrs. Clasen, October 26, asked district court for a divorce from August Clasen, charging cruelty.

Capias Issued for Allsman.

Late yesterday afternoon, at the request of Mrs. Allsman, a capias was issued for Mr. Allsman, for alleged failure to support his wife and children.

In her cross-petition, Mrs. Allsman alleges that his love for Mrs. Clasen and in a fit of anger he called her vile and vulgar names. She also charges him with being abusive to his children.

For two months prior to November, 1918, Mrs. Allsman alleges that her husband refused to provide food for her and the children and several times the latter went hungry.

In her petition she also alleges that on November 18 of this year Allsman brought one of Mrs. Clasen's sons to her home where he slept with her husband. Although abusing his own children, Mrs. Allsman says he called the Clasen boy endearing names.

Sent Home to Mother.

On November 19 her husband sent her and the children to her mother's home in Blair, Neb. She begs the court to deny him an absolute divorce. She has two boys, Ernest, 7 years old, and Roland, 13 months.

To recover damages from Mrs.

Clasen, Mrs. Allsman alleges that her husband became acquainted with Mrs. Clasen in August. She charges that Mrs. Clasen wrongfully contrived and intended to deprive her of her husband's society and protection and to destroy the love and affection of her husband.

In her petition for divorce, Mrs. Clasen charges her husband with cruelty. She says she is hard of hearing and alleges that he taunts her with her afflictions. She also charges him with non-support and avers that she was forced to do dressmaking to support herself. In a cross-petition, he charges her with cruelty. Judge Sears granted her a temporary alimony of $50 a month.

Man Found With Throat Cut; Suicide Is Belief

Patrolman Reber yesterday morning discovered a man hidden in some weeds between Seventh and Eighth streets on Leavenworth street, with his throat cut from ear to ear. He was rushed to St. Joseph hospital, but died shortly after being taken there.

Police believe the man, who was identified as Frank Urban, a Union Pacific employe, killed himself. A knife was found near where he had lain.

Urban, until two weeks ago, worked in a steel gang at Grand Island, Neb.

Gift to Shoe Fund Aids Poor Waifs

And Donor Has That Pleasant Feeling of "Fullness After Giving."

You may have felt that feeling of "fullness after eating." Have you ever felt that feeling of "fullness after giving?" The latter is a decidedly pleasant feeling. It's good for the soul of the giver.

And while you are experiencing that pleasant feeling, there is a feeling of warmth and comfort for which you are responsible, in the feet of some poor waif, son or daughter of a widowed mother who is fighting a bitter fight with poverty and adversity.

Send a contribution to The Bee, to be used in supplying shoes to the waifs of the desperately poor. Do it now, if you can.
