Postal Department Makes Prompt Response to Protest From Farmers of Nebraska.

By E. C. SNYDER.

Washington, Dec. 2.—(Special elegram.)—As a result of a gen-ral protest from citizens of Ne-raska and other western states, the Dec. 2.- Special ostoffice department, according to iformation received by Congressian Jefferis from Dr. Hubert Work, assistant postmaster general, revoke the order recently issued will revoke the order recently issued will revoke the order recently issued will reference to the delivery of Sunday mail for farmers and again became the practice of distributing limit from postoffices on Sunday.

Several weeks ago, H. D. Lute, excretary of the Nebraska Farm Buscau federation, with headquarters in Lincoln, stated in a letter to Congressman Jefferis that numerous complaints were being received from all parts of Nebraska protesting seainst the recent order of the Postoffice department whereby a farmer to rural routes was unable to obtain his mail on Sunday by calling at the postoffice for it. Mr. Lute said the farmer likes to get his Sunday paper on Sunday, when he has his leisure to read, and feels that he is just as much entitled to get it on Sunday by calling for it as is the Sunday by calling for it as is the

The problem was taken up with ourth Assistant Postmaster General Billany, who stated that the or-ciler absolving rural carriers from working on Sunday was made out of lairness to rural carriers, since city carriers are not required to work on that day. It was ascertained that mail in the third and fourth class ostoffices could not be expeditiously andled on Sunday without the asstance of the rural carriers so Dr. Vork and Mr. Billany decided to ke the former order in the injest of the farmers living on rural tains a provision that neither party shall be obligated to go to the defense of the other against a nation with which it has a general arbitra-tion treaty. Although the Knox treaty failed, Great Britain notified Japan that the Bryan treaty would be construed as a general arbitration treaty so far as the terms of the alliance were concerned.

This meant that Great Britain would not be obligated to take up arms against the United States in the event of war between America and Japan. Britain, however, would be obliged to remain neutral and this is the extent of the measure of protection which the alliance rep-resents to Japan and which Japan would be willing to forego if a general arbitration treaty were conclud-ed between America and Nippon.
