

Mayor Dahlman Raps Foster for Unjust Sentences

Declares His Pardons Are Made Necessary Through "Unfitness of Police Judge."

Defending several pardons issued by himself, Mayor Dahlman yesterday called Police Judge Foster to account for his criticism of his action with regard to the pardons.

The mayor, in a letter, severely reprimanded the police magistrate for several utterances made by him in court Thursday.

"Many of the pardons granted by me are made necessary on account of the unjust sentences imposed in police court," he said.

In one case in particular, questioned by Judge Foster, the mayor characterized the magistrate's action as "vicious."

The mayor states that in the case of William Markovitz, sentenced by Judge Foster several months ago for vagrancy, the judge did not take the trouble to investigate thoroughly enough before sentencing the man.

Markovitz was pardoned by the mayor, following the plea of Attorney Winter, South Omaha. According to the mayor, following his pardon, Markovitz returned to the country, where he had been steadily working, until his return to Omaha a few days ago when he was again arrested and sentenced to jail for 30 days on the same vagrancy charge.

"This is not an isolated case," the mayor writes, "you have done the same thing in hundreds of others, and in my opinion, you are not fit to sit in a court of justice."

"Markovitz has respectable parents, a sister working in the First National bank here and another sister is the employe of a local wholesale house," the mayor states. "Your actions in the case have humiliated and hurt them beyond all telling."

Former Church Soloist in Court Second Time in Month for Divorce

Mrs. Adeline Wykoff Kellstrom Again Seeks to Be Freed of Husband, Charging Cruelty.

Mrs. Adeline Wykoff Kellstrom, 3827 North Eighteenth street, for the second time in a month late yesterday filed a petition for divorce from Alvin Kellstrom in the district court, charging her husband with cruelty. She had a previous suit for divorce dismissed October 29, paying all costs.

Last September Mrs. Kellstrom filed suit for divorce, alleging that her husband refused to build fires in the furnace and compelled her to chop wood and to keep the house warm.

Mr. Kellstrom, in his answer, asserted that his happy home was blasted because of the intense desire on the part of his wife for a stage and operatic career. He also charged Mrs. Kellstrom with being too familiar with musicians of the masculine gender.

Mrs. Kellstrom stated in her first petition that her husband is half owner of the A. V. Harmon & Co. wholesale soda fountain supply house, and earns a salary of $300 a month. They have a son, Alvin, 3 years old.

Mrs. Kellstrom was formerly soloist at the North Presbyterian church.

State Primary Election To Be Held July 17 This Year

Lincoln, Dec. 2.—(Special.)—The primary election in Nebraska this year will be held July 17 instead of the third Tuesday in August, as has been the custom in the past. This, the secretary of state says, is due to the Nonpartisan league referendum petitions against the primary law passed by the last legislature which cause the Reynolds law to become effective. This switches the old party conventions around so they come after the primary instead of before.

Wife's Plea Saves Speeding Husband

Judge Suspends Bonner's Sentence With Understanding He Signs Bloodge.

George Bonner, 3517 Parker street, faced a 30-day jail sentence yesterday on a charge of being drunk and driving a truck recklessly, until his wife pleaded with Judge Foster for clemency, and the sentence was suspended.

Bonner, a driver for the Omaha Ice & Cold Storage company, was arrested Thursday afternoon, after his truck had crashed into the automobile of D. S. Williams, 802 South Twenty-first street, which was parked near Twenty-fourth and Cuming streets.

In addition to the suspended sentence, Bonner was ordered by Judge Foster to appear before a priest and sign the pledge. His failure to comply with this order would result in his serving the sentence, Judge Foster warned the man.

James Lorenza, Sixty-fourth and Cuming streets, was fined $7.50 for passing a street car on the wrong side. A daughter of B. F. Marshall, 617 South Thirty-seventh street, arrested for speeding, was discharged.

Lawrence Withrow, a truck driver, was fined $7.50.

Other speeders fined were: T. C. Harrington, Council Bluffs, $15, and D. B. Porter, 2147 Mayberry avenue, $7.50.

Interest on Liberty Bonds Exempt Under Income Tax Clause

Washington, Dec. 2.—Interest on Liberty bonds held by corporations is exempt from the corporation income tax of the new revenue law under a formal ruling issued tonight by the internal revenue bureau.

"Under the revenue act of 1918," the ruling said, "interest on Liberty bonds held by corporations was exempt from the corporation income tax and such interest is also exempt from the corporation income tax under the revenue act of 1921. Liberty bond interests, however, when distributed in the form of dividends, remain subject to surtaxes in the hands of the stockholders in the same manner as were dividends. There appears to be no reason to expect that the new law will give any encouragement to the use of corporations to own Liberty bonds for avoiding surtaxes, but if any such attempt should be made the law provides ample means for dealing with it."
