

McKelvie Talks At Anti-Saloon League Meeting

Nebraska Governor Called Upon for "Hurry-Up" Speech in National Capital.

Washington Correspondent Omaha Bee, Washington, Dec. 8.—(Special Telegram)—Gov. S. McKelvie of Nebraska, arrived in Washington today from Charleston, S. C., where he was in attendance at the annual meeting of governors. He had hardly time to "wash up" when he was called upon to address the Anti-Saloon league, now in session here. Later in the day the governor had an interview with Secretary Mellon of the Treasury department on departmental affairs.

Mrs. McKelvie joined her husband here, having come from Lincoln to attend the dinner which President and Mrs. Harding gave this evening at the White House in honor of the governors and their wives.

Governor and Mrs. McKelvie left for New York on the midnight train but expect to return to Washington early next week for a stay of several days.

Senator Norris, greatly benefited by his visit to Nebraska, arrived from the west this morning.

Senator Hitchcock was the principal speaker at the convocation of the University of Minnesota at Minneapolis tonight. His subject was "The League of Nations."

Representative Kinkaid returned from Nebraska today.

John W. Gilchrist of Omaha, a public accountant interested in tax problems, is in Washington on business with the internal revenue bureau.

$16,000 Is Sought For Summer Music

City Concert Club to Appear Before Commissioners in Plea for Appropriation.

An appropriation of $16,000 is asked of the city council by the City Concert club for the purpose of providing for band concerts in Omaha parks next summer.

Representatives of the club will appear before the city commissioners in the council chamber, December 30, together with others interested in civic music.

Heretofore the music enthusiasts have depended on individual subscriptions to finance civic music.

Co-operation of the public is asked in a circular letter just sent out by the City Concert club. The letter reviews the work accomplished during the last season by the club, whose object is to make Omaha one of the nation's musical centers.

Cattle Sale Authorized To Pay $12,240 in Notes

An echo of losses sustained by Missouri Valley Cattle Loan company investors crept into federal court again yesterday when Judge J. W. Woodrugh signed an order authorizing John A. Rine, receiver, to sell 131 head of cattle from the Karl F. Dietsch ranch near Broken Bow, Neb. Dietsch signed notes totalling $12,240, on which a number of Nebraska, Iowa and Kansas banks seek collection.

Smallpox at Standstill; 4 New Diphtheria Cases

No new cases of smallpox were reported at the city health office yesterday. There are three cases on record. Health Commissioner Pinto spent the morning vaccinating at Central Park school, where pupils were exposed to smallpox.

Four new diphtheria cases were reported yesterday. Five cases were released, making a total of 57 diphtheria cases.

Newton Cohn Freed on Bond at Philadelphia

Newton G. Cohn had a hearing in Philadelphia yesterday and was released by federal authorities there under $5,000 for his appearance there April 1, United States Attorney Kinsler was informed by wire yesterday.

"It is in direct opposition to all the instructions I sent to Philadelphia," he said, "and I may have to reconvene the grand jury and re-arrest him."

Cohn was one of nine men indicted for activities in promotion of the Missouri Valley Cattle Loan company. The case is set for trial January 9.

High School Clubs Decree Sky Is Limit

Elaborate Yule Parties Planned by Fraternities and Sororities.

Christmas parties and dances, with the cost apparently no object, have been planned by Central High school fraternities and sororities, according to reservations already made at the fashionable hotels.

The idea seems to be that each society will strive to outdo the other and assessments of $10 a member have not been uncommon this season, it is said.

The Sigma Tau Nus are to spend $5 cents each for programs alone and at least $100 for their ballroom, according to a well informed member.

Their party will be at the Hotel Fontenelle, December 23. Alpha Sigma Lambda is giving a dance at the same place December 28. The party will cost them at least $350, it was announced.

Alpha Rho also will have their party at the Hotel Fontenelle. The O. T. S., a society of girls, will dance at the Blackstone, December 24. The Emanon club is having a party there December 21 and C. T. S., another girls' club, will dance there December 27.

Other parties will be given by the T. K. club, the Les Hiboux and the Phi Lambda fraternity.

First Slacker Trial At Fort Crook Set

Weaver Bausch, 25, alleged draft evader of Leigh, Neb., is being held at Fort Crook, pending court-martial for desertion.

Bausch's case will be the first to be tried at Fort Crook for evading the draft, army officials stated. He has been in the guard house at the barracks since November 11. The American Legion at Leigh arrested him for the military authorities.

Bausch will be tried within two weeks before a general court of a dozen army officers, Capt. R. A. Greer will prosecute him. He will be represented by Lieut. P. E. Jackson.

Oto Bank Closed

Stout City, Ia., Dec. 8.—The state bank of Oto, Ia., with a capital stock of $25,000, was thrown into receivership in district court on petition of the Iowa bank superintendent.

Negro Dope King Is Found Guilty

Smith Heins Held on Three Counts by Federal Court—Heavy Sentence Expected.

Smith Heins, negro "king of dope" peddler and chief wholesaler in the old Third ward, was found guilty on three counts for narcotic sales by a jury in federal court yesterday.

Judge Woodrugh has not yet pronounced sentence against Heins and John W. Moore, his closest rival.

A jury was impaneled to try Versie Edwards, associate of Heins, today. Heavy sentences are expected.

Estella McGuire testified yesterday that she turned over $400 daily to Heins for dope she peddled for him in 50 cents and $1 quantities, for a period of several months. Some days when business was good she turned in as much as $800, she stated to narcotic agents.

Fifteen drug addicts have already been sentenced since Monday. Five are women. Since the government is running behind schedule in disposing of its 62 cases, an effort is being made to have Judge T. C. Munger open a second criminal court here Monday.

U. S. Wants Fingerprints

He who would deposit money in the postal savings banks must now leave his fingerprints as well. This order, effective December 15, was received yesterday by Acting Postmaster Daniel.

Fingerprints of the two forefingers will be taken when the account is opened and whenever money is withdrawn. Postal employees will also be recorded by fingerprints.

New Drake Apartment Structure Temporarily Blocked by Court Order

District Judge Sears yesterday afternoon temporarily restrained the Drake Realty Construction company from building a large apartment house at Thirty-eighth and Davenport streets.

The injunction was obtained by Mary M. Zimmer, Leo Hoffman, Margaret Hynes, George Flack, Ellen Swanson, George T. Forster, J. E. Pulver, Mary H. Doyle and R. B. Busch, all who live in the neighborhood.

In a petition they allege that a large apartment as planned by the Drake company constitutes a nuisance and would diminish value of their property and is a detriment to home owners.

According to Building Inspector Edgecomb a permit was granted by the city council yesterday morning. A hearing will probably be held the first part of the week.

Lincoln Man Goes to Jail On Complaint of His Wife

Lincoln, Dec. 8.—(Special)—Orville E. Rogers, 18, and married, was sentenced to from 1 to 7 years in the state penitentiary for stealing an overcoat from a Lincoln store. His wife, police say, called headquarters and informed them of the theft, saying she "wanted to teach him a lesson."

Kennedy Again Heads State Body

York (Neb.) Man Re-Elected President of Nebraska's Commissioners' Association.

Phil J. Kennedy, York, Neb., was re-elected president of the Nebraska State Association of Commissioners, Supervisors, Highway Commissioners and County Clerks at the annual election yesterday afternoon at the Castle hotel, which closed the convention here.

Other officers elected were: L. R. Barlow, Lodgepole, vice president, and C. A. Holmquist, Wausa, secretary.

The county clerks and registers of deeds held their annual election following that of the parent body and elected A. B. Green, clerk of Cherry county, president. Harry R. Knapp, Custer county, was elected vice president, and Joseph B. Hines, Saunders county, secretary.

Both associations chose Omaha as the 1922 convention city. The organizations held their annual banquet at the Castle hotel Thursday night, Congressman A. W. Jerficus was the guest of honor.

Clothesline Swindle Trio Held for Trial

Webb J. Elliott, Edwin Reice McCormick and Irwin B. McCormick were bound over to the federal court yesterday by United States Commissioner Boehler under bonds of $3,000 each to await trial on a charge of using the mails to defraud Adolph Schneebeli out of $5,600. The defendants did not testify at the hearing yesterday afternoon. Protests of defendants' attorney against "excessive" bonds were without avail.

Schneebeli alleges that the three men sold him the state rights to a new invention, a clothesline to which clothes could be fastened without the use of pins.

Urges Six-Wheel Trucks.

Members of the civic improvement and public highways committees of the Chamber of Commerce were addressed Wednesday by A. T. Goldbeck, chief of the division of tests, bureau of public roads, United States Department of Agriculture.

Mr. Goldbeck advocated laws which would require the distribution of the load of a motor vehicle hauling heavy loads over more wheels. He suggested six-wheel trucks or trailers.

This would lessen the damages to pavement, he said.

No. 2—The long, strong, fitted invisible counters along each side of the shoe, forming a "bandaged brace" to the foot.

No. 3—Narrow heel-bugging feature which makes a "combination last," preventing slippings—giving solid comfort.

When Your Job Requires Standing, Wear Ease-Alls

THERE is always danger to the waitress, and to every woman on her feet, of bringing painful experiences from broken arches or strained foot muscles in the long hours of hurried steps and much standing.

Such feet need strong support. Yet the waitress as well as every woman wants to be dressed smartly in the mode. Both of these she may have, with health in abundance, from wearing the Ease-All shoe, built for her comfort.

Ease-All

The Shoe of Invisible Comfort and Visible Style

The "built-in" steel arches in the shank maintain the weight. The "bandaged brace" formed by a long, strong counter, keeps the foot bones and muscles functioning as nature intended.

Ease-Alls make one free to work happily, without that tired feeling at night because nature has been helped to function.

And don't forget—Ease-Alls are made in the mode.
