

Urges Governor To Lend Hyers New Year's Eve

Rohrer Also Wants Aid of State Sheriff's 25 Deputies To Assist in Preventing Booze Flow.

New Year's eve parties will be strictly under the observance of the law, at least parties where liquor is present properly to imbibe revelers with the spirit of the occasion, so said U. S. Rohrer, federal prohibition commissioner for Nebraska, who has requested that Governor McKelvey detail State Sheriff Gus Hyers and his 25 deputies for duty in Omaha that night.

Mr. Rohrer's entire force, with the aid of Hyers' men and possibly a detail from the Committee of 5,000, will guard the morals in public cafes and saloons New Year's eve, the prohibition chief announced.

Bond to Be Deferred.
Every one arrested on a liquor charge will be continued to jail until Tuesday morning, the first work day for the federal force following the holiday. Inasmuch as Rohrer has ordered that prisoners held on bond charges shall not be released on bond until information is filed against them, persons so arrested will be forced to spend three nights and two days in jail.

In response to United States Attorney Kinsler's plea that Rohrer close at least one eye on this occasion, Rohrer replied that his office would do its duty at all times.

Special Programs Arranged.
Special programs have been arranged in nearly all the larger clubs, hotels and restaurants. Reservations for the night's entertainment and feasting range from $5 to $7.50 a person, admission obtained only through invitation.

The Brandeis restaurants and the Hotel Fontenelle announce most elaborate programs for the evening. A New Year's morning breakfast will be served in the Brandeis restaurant at 3.

Other places planning elaborate New Year's functions, despite the prohibition officer's edict, are the Omaha club, the Athletic club and the Blackstone hotel.

Grain Dealers To Convene Here

More Than 500 Farmers of State Expected to Attend Convention Tuesday.

The 19th annual convention of the Nebraska Grain Dealers' association will open at the Hotel Rome Tuesday afternoon. More than 500 Nebraska farmers are expected to attend.

Ex-Governor Deneen, Illinois, will make the opening address, his subject being "Loyalty." He will declare that loyalty in all walks of life and business is needed for a proper readjustment of conditions.

Senator W. F. Dale, University Place, will speak on "The United States Grain Growers, Inc.," explaining the proposed working of the new organization. His talk will be followed by an open discussion.

Wednesday there will be meetings of the managers of elevators and directors of organizations. Millard R. Myers, Chicago, and Dan V. Stephens, Fremont, will speak at these meetings.

In the afternoon Charles P. Craig, Duluth, will talk at length on the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence River Tidewater association and its value to midwest farmers and grain growers.

The speakers for Thursday are Leo Stuhr, Lincoln, secretary of agriculture; Prof. R. D. Cole, University of Nebraska; Thorne A. Browne, state railroad commissioner, and J. P. Foley, Omaha, revenue collector.

Negro Found Guilty On Pandering Charge

A jury in District Judge Troup's court took less than two minutes yesterday to find Walter Fontain, negro, guilty of pandering.

The complaining witness was Ruth Milton, 16, white, who testified that she came in from the country to get a position at the Neville hotel several weeks ago.

She asked her way at a drug store at Thirtieth and Douglas streets. The negro overheard her and said he would take her to the hotel. Instead, he led her to a house at 1506 Burt street, where she was held a prisoner, she said. Some one had seen him take her there, however, and notified police, who rescued her and arrested Fontain.

Sentence for the crime is one to 10 years in the penitentiary. Deputy County Attorney Beal prosecuted the case.

Negro Given Sentence Of Year on Dope Charge

Charles Clark, negro, formerly living at 808 North Fifteenth street, was found guilty on a dope charge in federal court yesterday. His sentence is one year and a day.

A dope charge against Howard Hauck was dismissed by Federal Judge Woodrough on the recommendation of Joseph Manning, narcotic agent. Hauck conquered the habit by working on a farm, according to Manning.

New Cut Fares Announced

Rock Island railroad has announced holiday excursion fares at the rate of fare and one-half for the round trip between points west of Chicago, St. Louis and Memphis, where the one-way fare is $25 or less. Tickets will be on sale December 22-24, with final return limit January 4. Minimum excursion fare is $2.50.

Ordered Vaccinated.

Health Commissioner A. S. Pinto yesterday ordered all of his office staff vaccinated.

Police Commissioner Dunn, whose office adjoins the health office, also responded to the order.

New Trial Is Asked In Heart Balm Case

Attorneys for Gertrude Craig, who lost a $50,000 heart balm suit against Joseph Leopold, grain man, yesterday filed motion for a new trial in district court.

In the motion the attorneys charge that the court erred in 12 of the instructions to the jury and that the verdict was contrary to law and the evidence.

Admission of the alleged diary in which Miss Craig named numerous Omaha men who "dined" her and introduction of evidence of Miss Craig's former divorce suit were errors of the court, the attorneys further allege.

After a deliberation of five hours, the jury returned a verdict for Leopold.

Widow Found Dead Two Months After Wedding

Mrs. Thomas Lawless, 43, was found dead in her home, 908 Clark street, yesterday afternoon, exactly two months after her husband was found dead there October 11.

Lawless died just a week after he married the woman who died yesterday. He was an old-time resident of Winspear triangle.

When he was found dead, his bride seemed to lose interest in life, neighbors said. Recently she sold all the furniture in the house except the bed and bedding. She was found, fully dressed lying on the bed. Bottles which smelled of liquor were found near by.

Her name before her marriage was Veronica Covelleskie. The body was turned over to N. P. Swanson, undertaker.

A national highway congress will be held in Argentina in May to thoroughly study the roads of that country.

15-MINUTE TALK

"I thought it was an original idea—buying a suit and overcoat for each of my three boys for Christmas, but this other man over here with six boys just about doubles the Christmas cheer that I'll have at my house," said a customer. This is an example of the practical gift buying that prevails in Omaha today.
