

Nebraskans Get Big Loans From Finance Body

Only Three States Receiving Federal Aid Faster—Million Dollar Credit Extended in Five Days.

Only three states are now receiving money at a faster rate from the war finance corporation than is Nebraska. Iowa stands first in the latest list, with South Carolina and Utah next.

"Nebraska farmers and bankers are showing more interest in the war finance loan system," said F. W. Thomas, chairman of the state committee, yesterday. The campaign to carry credit to the grain growers and live stock interests of the state is proving to cover every locality. Millions of dollars are yet to be brought to the state—how many will be determined to a large extent by the interest and enthusiasm shown by the country bankers and their clients.

Jack and Jill

"How did you pass this miserable afternoon, dearest?" asked Jack, as he toasted his slippers before the open fire in the living room, and puffed away at the pipe of marital contentment.

"Oh, I forgot to tell you about our charity club," and Jill's eyes brightened. "We had the loveliest time at the church."

"And what's it all about?" "Well, we have determined that charity begins at home. So, nearly two dozen of us worked for the poor of the neighborhood."

"Sounds fine. I'd like a big sweater myself," and Jack was aggrieved. "A sweater for you, dear? Where would you use it?"

"Oh, around the house, and skating and so on. You promised to knit me one the year before we were married. You did it—knit."

"Jack, you silly goose. These poor people are really destitute. It's a bitter cold weather, and we are giving the garments direct to those cases we visit and see."

"I suppose it's all right," answered Jack, cleaning his pipe with a knife. "But how much yarn did you use up?"

"Well, it will be about $4 worth before I get through my quota of things, but that's not so—"

"Four dollars' worth! My goodness, that ought to buy a suit of clothes."

Jack began multiplying numbers on the back of his evening paper. "Twenty-four times $4 is $96. Let me see—$96 worth of baby socks, leggings, sweaters, hoods and so forth."

"But Jack, dear—" "Dear is the word, Count in the labor and it amounts to about $200 worth of stuff—enough to keep an orphan asylum warm in Greenland. Why, there are not that many babies in the neighborhood."

Jack lapsed into a meditation. "You are a very selfish, uncharitable old pig and I don't like you a bit," said Jill with a pout.

Jack walked around to her, held her shoulders and leaned over to steal a kiss. Jill admitted a tiny affection.

"Besides, we have a lot of fun out of it, some one plays the piano, and another sings and we get down in the big room of the parish house."

"Oh, that's it—a good time was had by one and all?" "Jill turned up her nose, and Jack read his paper."

MOVIES

Will Rogers is seen here giving a little Romeo advice in the art of making love to Raymond Hatton, character actor, both appearing in "Doubling for Romeo" at the Sun theater the last three days of this week. The hero tries to emulate the love-making of Romeo, but finds that his cowboy training is a handicap. The picture is a comedy from beginning to end.

Today's Attractions.

Sun—"Doubling for Romeo."
Strand—"Don't Tell Everything."
Rialto—"My Lady Friends."
Moon—"A Virgin Paradise."
Empress—"Garments of Truth."
Brandeis—"The Black Panther's Cub."
Muse—"The Last Door."
Grand—"Thomas Meighan in 'The Easy Road.'"
Hamilton—"Will Rogers in 'Honest Hutch.'"

Cecil B. DeMille will not produce pictures while abroad. The director declares that this, his first vacation in eight years, is to be that and nothing else.

A general strike on the Italian railroads has delayed the production of George Fitzmaurice's picture, "The Man from Home," from Booth Tarkington's play. Mr. Fitzmaurice and his company are now in Rome but expect to proceed at once to Naples, where the first exteriors of "The Man from Home" are to be filmed. Jose Ruben, the well-known Broadway actor, has joined the cast.

William D. Taylor's new production, temporarily titled "The Noose," with Betty Compson as star, uses a view of the ancient Roman catacombs employed by the Paris apaches as an underground den. By a process that is most ingenious, new lumber is made to look old, the edges filed and stained and the marks of many generations and subterranean dampness imparted to it. In this den an apache dance is executed, giving Miss Compson a chance to prove what an apt pupil of Theodore Kosloff can accomplish in a week or two of intensive training.

Committee Organized To Oppose Vaccination

Col. C. G. Cunningham has been elected president of the Committee of Protest, organized to distribute literature setting forth the dangers of vaccination and to sponsor public meetings to be called in pursuance of a campaign of education.

"We shall prove," said the colonel, "that vaccination does not afford immunity from smallpox and that it is responsible for the spread of many diseases. We are prepared to prove these facts by the record. We strenuously oppose compulsory vaccination. Free literature may be had at 700 Omaha National bank building."

Plan Concert and Dance for Families of Ex-Service Men

The ladies' auxiliary of the American Legion announces that their entertainment in the Auditorium Monday night, December 26, for the families of ex-service men will include a concert and dance.

No charge will be made, but the men who attend will be asked to show their American Legion or Victory buttons. The American Legion band will play, Alma Huntley will sing and pupils of Adelaide Fogg will dance.

The program will begin at 7:30.

PATRICK J. HALEY
Syracuse, N. Y.

"I'm feeling like a new man since Tanlac soothed and toned up my stomach and for the first time in 40 years can eat a hearty meal and suffer no distress afterwards," was the remarkable statement of Patrick J. Haley, 107 Prospect Ave., Syracuse, N. Y., a well-known iron and steel worker.

"Only those who have had stomach trouble in a bad form can know what I suffered during all those years. I was almost a nervous wreck, too, and for years I didn't know what it was to get a good sound sleep at night."

"I got new life and energy from each dose of Tanlac and now I'm a well and happy man instead of a sick and miserable one as I was for so many years. I'll vouch for the merit of Tanlac at any time."
