Fate of Section 15-A.

Robert Marion LaFollette may be relied upon to explode a bomb at any time he thinks the country needs a shock.

Security for Small Savers.

The saver of small sums is perpetually perplexed as to the disposition of his accumulations, seeking always for the highest possible return consistent with absolute safety.

A Gold Star of Peace.

Peace seldom brings forth the same enthusiasm for the ideals of an advancing civilization as does war.

When War Is Not Sin

It is a fact that the churches do not dare to teach that all and every war is sin, but the reason why they do not dare is simply because war is not true.

Human Nature is Naturally Pugnacious.

The struggle of nation against nation and army against army as an outlet for these instincts can be and must be supplanted by new forms of contest.

Answer to Anxious Ones.

A contemporary anxiously inquires what has happened to Col. George Harvey, who has made no speeches for several days.

which will face the economic conferences which are being planned. As long as the governments have the free use of printing presses for creating their support, they are going to be put to it to muddle through.

Judicial Reform Once More.

Some words of sage advice from the chief justice of the supreme court of the United States deserves attention. Mr. Taft has noted, as any observer might, the tendency to resort to the federal courts more and more for the settlement of matters that are subject for litigation.

A more dangerous trend indicated by the condition the chief justice refers to is the steadily increasing substitution of federal for state authority in matters that are subject to regulation by statute.

Out of it all proceeds a gradual weakening of state and enhancement of federal prestige. Power and authority is being centralized, the states parting with their birthright for a mess of pottage disguised as federal aid for local enterprises.

Reasons for the Submarine

Its Service as a Weapon of Defense Justifies Existence.

(From the Boston Transcript)

Americans will be the first to appreciate the force of the plea for the abolition of the submarine which Lord Lee of Fareham has just presented to the Washington conference.

Without question, Lord Lee has made out a strong case against the use of under-sea craft in future warfare. From the British point of view, it is unanswerable.

Such considerations apply with especial strength to the United States, and it is these considerations which have impelled the members of the American delegation—Secretary Hughes, Senator Lodge, Senator Underwood and Mr. Root—to oppose the British in their request for the elimination of under-sea craft.

How to Keep Well

By Dr. W. A. Evans.

Questions concerning hygiene, sanitation and prevention of disease, submitted to Dr. Evans by readers of The Bee will be answered personally subject to proper limitation, where stamped, addressed envelope is enclosed.

ON FEEDING BABIES.

A lady once wrote me, and not so long ago that she would throw her baby in the river before she would feed it a more liberal diet, as recommended by me.

Indeed, I not only hope that she decided to keep it, but that she also decided to feed it more liberal babies, and that one of them is old enough to profit by the results of a clinical trial of the question that has been carried out for a period of seven years in a Stockholm baby hospital.

The theory of the experiment was that just as breast milk is necessary for babies of the first year of life, so breads, cereals, vegetables and fruits are necessary in the last quarter of the year.

With some of the babies under experiment the mixed feeding began at 6 months of age. With others it was begun until later, but in all it was begun under way at 3 months.

The babies were fed five times in the day. The solid milk they received was from 10 to 18 ounces a day, and that was cooked in with the other foods. No milk was given as a beverage, to be taken from a bottle or cup.

The diet of these 9 to 12 months old babies was selected from the following: Grains, rice, oatmeal, porridge, graham, beef, fruit juice, soups, cocoa, scrambled eggs, minced meats, minced fish, rusks, vegetables, potato purées, stewed fruits and potatoes, carrots, cauliflower and spinach.

Some of the formulas were: Porridge, 1/2 cup; water, 1/2 cup; milk, 3/4 cup; 10 per cent cream, 1/4 cup; 10 per cent cream, 1/4 cup; 10 per cent cream, 1/4 cup.

Grease Those Cold Feet.

Mrs. J. M. C. writes: "Will you kindly tell me how to prevent chilblains. As I have to be out in the bad weather a great deal, my feet freeze immediately."

Maybe It Is Gout.

A Reader writes: "I. Why do the finger joints enlarge and at the same time have little bumps on them, the joints being quite painful at times?"

Trachoma Is Contagious.

P. K. writes: "For the last eight years I have been troubled with a disease called trachoma, and have been doctoring for some time, but do not seem to get any cure. Kindly advise me if it is possible to get this permanently cured."

Must Protect Ears.

W. E. A. writes: "Will you tell me if there has yet been found any remedy for inner ear diseases, such as otosclerosis and Meniere's disease, which are supposed to begin in childhood or early youth?"

REPLY.

The Bee's Letter Box

(The Bee offers its columns freely to its readers who care to discuss any public question. It requests that letters be reasonably brief, not over 300 words. It also asks that the name of the writer accompany all letters, but that the editor may know with whom he is dealing. The Bee does not print the names of correspondents in the Letter Box.)

What Really Is Wrong.

York, Neb., Dec. 22.—To the Editor of The Bee: What must we do to be saved? There is so much wrong everywhere and so many doctors each with a different dose and their only cure for what ails us.

Many of the ills that some say all us are not there, and some that do all us are not the result of the ills given, but the remedies offered would be worse than the disease.

REPLY.

Some say the only remedy is an international banking system, with the United States furnishing the capital and credit for the rest of the world to do business with.

Others, that we should cancel the allied war debts so the others could buy of us, and "the great pacific" says the only way to insure peace is to cancel those war debts. Of all soft stuff that is sure the limit.

So they can prepare for the next war with a notion that they can stay another one, with us furnishing the money and part of the boys, then let them annex territory and people to help that of the United States and we get nothing but a vote of thanks after we forgive them another war debt.

Partly to blame, but what caused the taxes to be so high? The war created nearly all the increase, and a great deal of that cost could and would have been saved could we have been allowed an auditing board during the war, instead of the cost plus plan and many other things that lacked proper control.

A Russian-Plotted Crime

(From the Washington Star.)

Ever since September 18, 1920, when a bomb was exploded in Wall street causing many deaths and much destruction of property, search has been prosecuted for those guilty of this atrocious crime.

Spots Unchanged

(From the Philadelphia Ledger.)

During the last few days we seem to have had an epidemic of escapes from prison by notorious criminals. The whole country has come to know and talk about these episodes because most of them were accompanied by acts of bloodshed and violence.

These incidents, coming as items of one day's news in climax to a series of similar events, suggest at least one idea with unescapable emphasis. That is that in every prison there are violent criminals who will not stop at endangering the life of anyone who gets in their way when they are on a rampage.

It is of course, to be hoped that all of those connected with the outbreak will be caught. If this man is telling the truth it should be possible to round up his associates, unless perhaps they are now in Russia, where they cannot be reached at present.

Association of the Russian communist center with the crime is not surprising. It has been known for a long time that from that center has come much of the radical propaganda that has been active in the United States.
