Going back to school aiter vacation has not many compensations, but the chief one is that of having company in your misery. There will be many a lively game of bridge, and many a chat over parties and people encountered in vacation on the trains going east 'tomorrow night, for a good numbr of students will "resume classes" sorrowfully enough next Wednesday. Miss Peggy Reed and Miss Helen Rogers return to Vassar Monday evening, and to Wellesley go Miss Katherine Denny, Miss Fran-ces Patton, Miss Dorothy Arter, Miss Flora Marsh, Virginia Leussler and Josephine Plattner. Miss Izetta Smith will be on the same train, as will Robert Smith, Frederick Nash, jr., and Jim Ingwerson. Allen Clarke re-turns to Chicago Monday. Going back to school after vacation has not many compensations, but turns to Chicago Monday.

Sunday evening will see more of the masculine element congregated in the Union station. Io fact, it will be a "stag" affair. To Dartmouth go Will Nicholson, George Smith, Stewart Edgerly, William Perry and Sam Carlysle. Bolton Mallory and Howard Gray also leave Sunday for Princeton. Several Yale men leave Sunday night-James Connell, Jasper Hall, Dick Stewart, Walter Preston, jr., and Jerry Malone. The University of Nebraska open Monday and the many students from Omaha all leave tomorrow morning.

Thrane-Rhump Wedding.
