Household Linens Lingerie: Blankets: Domestic

NOT in years have linens been more available! They are here in wonderful assortments. Genuine Irish Linens; and plenty of Domestic, too, and we are able to offer them at astonishingly low prices—far lower than they have been—certainly much lower than they will be in February! And we believe lower than they will be again for a long time. Our stocks are wonderful! We anticipate with pleasure the offering of this Great Linen Opportunity, because we are confident of the appreciation it will receive.

January is the great month of opportunities when the woman of today who buys so wisely and so well, can replace her diminished stores at great savings. Tuesday, January 3d, and throughout the first week in January, we feature our Wonderful Second Floor Opportunities—Household Linens, Domestic, Lingerie—both silk and muslin—Blankets, Comforts, Fabrics by the yard, Art Needlework.

Watch for other departments and other floors to follow with their January Opportunity Offerings.

The items given here can only represent in part our tremendous stores.
