

Woman Asks Arrest of Husband, Later Pleads for Release

She said she was thoroughly scared and that she would like to see her husband replaced by the stovepipe. They took her to the local station and charged her with being drunk and disturbing the peace. Thirty minutes later Sabo's wife called police headquarters and asked for her husband's release. She said she would like to see her husband replaced by the stovepipe.

John Sabo, 32, of 12th and Franklin streets, was arrested last night for disturbing the peace. He was charged with being drunk and disturbing the peace. Thirty minutes later Sabo's wife called police headquarters and asked for her husband's release. She said she would like to see her husband replaced by the stovepipe.

The January Linen Sale Prices 35% to 50% Lower Than Last Year

Once a year, ever since 1886, this annual January linen sale has brought its wonderful values to the women of this community.

Linen Stocks Should Be Replenished During This Sale—for These Reasons:

Contrary to the general belief, good linens are not plentiful. The supply is far from adequate, and many items are not being manufactured.

Linen prices became stabilized about
