Third Birthday of Local Kiwanis Club Celebrated

Lincoln Byrne Tells Members Organization Has Grown Powerful Enough to Outline Program.

In celebrating the seventh anniversary of the Kiwanis International organization in Detroit, the Omaha Kiwanis club also celebrated the third anniversary of the club's organization in Omaha at a meeting held at the Hotel Rome yesterday

Special "birthday" songs were sung, with A. L. Hobbs leading the harmonists, H. S. Disbrow, baritouc, sang a solo and the Kiwanis orhestra contributed its usual excel-

Lincoln Byrne, one of the organ-izers of the club, outlined in a short speech the progress the club has made since its organization.

"From a club which was at first meant to be social, the organization has grown to such strength that it is now possible to outline a constructive program that will result in less the materials used from the old good for others as well as the club."

Mr. Byrne suggested that such a Dr. C. C. Hall, chief of the healt! program be planned and adopted at department inspectors, has been ad-
