Weddings

Robbins-Hinz.

Grand Island, Neb.—The marriage of Miss Emily Hinz of this ity and Arthur Robbins of Fort Collins, Colo. took place at the Catholic parsonage in this city. Rev. Father Helmes performing the impressive ring cremony in the presence of only the immediate relatives. Following the ceremony a breakfast was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. John Torpey. After a brief honeyman trip in the west the couple will reside in Fort Collins, where the groom is engaged in business.

Marmet-Middleton.
Table Rock, Neb.—Milfred Marmet, the lodest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Marmet of Elk Creek, and Miss Alice Middleton were married at the home of the bride at Steinauer, Neb.

Inn-Goodale.

Pawnee City, Neh.—The story of the marriage of Miss Lois Goodale of Burchard, former Pawnee City High school student, to Wesley Lane of Lewiston, has been made public after having been kept secret by the couple and their few condidants since December 28. The bride went to Omaha to visit an old friend, Miss Helen Dawson, and while there was married to Mr. Lane. Upon returning home, the affair was kept secret.
