

THE OMAHA BEE

DAILY (MORNING)—EVENING—SUNDAY
MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Associated Press of which this Bee is a member...

The circulation of The Omaha Bee
SUNDAY, JAN. 15, 1922
75,461

THE BEE PUBLISHING COMPANY
B. BREWER, General Manager
ELMER S. ROOD, Circulation Manager

BE E TELEPHONES
Private Branch Exchange, Ask for the Department or Person Wanted. For AT lantic
Night Calls After 10 P. M., Editorial
Department. AT lantic 1821 or 1415.

The Bee's Platform

- 1. New Union Passenger Station.
2. Continued improvement of the Nebraska Highways...
3. A short, low-rate waterway from the Corn Belt to the Atlantic Ocean.
4. Home Rule Charter for Omaha...

At the Farm Conference.

Preliminary utterances, presaging the meeting of the farm conference, which gets together at Washington today, do not inspire hope for real results. The antidote for this is the thought that when the men and women who make up the body get together something of a constructive nature will issue.

"America for Americans."

Chicago is going to have no foreign dictation as to its opera, not if Mary Garden can prevent it. Of course, Mary being a true American, born in Scotland, where all true Americans come from, including Sir Arty Lauder...

A New Race of Public Speakers.

Those whose interest or curiosity has led them to attend any of the agricultural meetings that are so numerous during the winter slack must have been struck by the ability of these farmers as speakers. Carl R. Gray, president of the Union Pacific railroad, during his recent visit to the meetings of organized agriculture at Lincoln, remarked on the fluency and clearness with which the speakers there expressed themselves.

It's a Dollar Worth a Dollar.

But there is one thing about the new dollar which cannot fail to disarm the most valid criticism of the artistic hand-drawn dollar: it is its value as currency. It is the only piece of money now extant that is worth precisely 100 per cent. Besides it the English pound, and the French franc look cheap and mean, while the German mark and the Russian rouble are the merest imitations of money.

Wisdom Is a Gift.

A Philadelphian appreciated his cook so highly that in his will he left his automobile and $50,000, the latter, possibly to provide the where-withal to run it.—Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.

Normal Condition.

"Do you think there is an invisible government at work?" "If there is any government at work it is invisible."—Life.

physical training is warrant for extravagance in management. Supremacy in college sports and games is not a prime necessity, and in the end is secondary to the proper training for professional work.

Cost of Road Improvement.

The offer of the governor to all who are interested of an opportunity to participate in a great cost finding contest with a view to establishing what is the more expensive to construct, state or county-built roads, may produce results, but probably will not. As long as a belief prevails that a precinct can do better work than the county, and the county better work than the state, just that long will we have the hodge-podge of highways that has proved so costly in the past.

When the state entered into an arrangement with the federal government, some seven years ago, on the dollar-matching basis, the understanding was that a great network of highways was to be built up, little at a time, until finally the state would have nothing but good roads. County seats were first to be connected, then the smaller communities, and finally a system would be perfected that would serve everybody.

Enemias for Pin Worms.

J. E. Wright, 29 years of age, and since about 10 years old I have been troubled with small white worms (pin worms). When I have the worms in my bowels, I feel very miserable, and have been taking large doses of castor oil during these periods, but found no relief.

It's a Dollar Worth a Dollar.

But there is one thing about the new dollar which cannot fail to disarm the most valid criticism of the artistic hand-drawn dollar: it is its value as currency. It is the only piece of money now extant that is worth precisely 100 per cent.

Wisdom Is a Gift.

A Philadelphian appreciated his cook so highly that in his will he left his automobile and $50,000, the latter, possibly to provide the where-withal to run it.—Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.

Normal Condition.

"Do you think there is an invisible government at work?" "If there is any government at work it is invisible."—Life.

Future for the Jew

When the House of Judah and House of Israel Walk Together.
By H. R. BALDWIN.

Your article headed "Jerusalem, if I Forget Thee," giving a description of Lieut. Vladimir Jabotinsky and his message of last week, was read by me with great interest. It recalled to mind an editorial in The Bee 17 years ago (August, 1905), entitled, "Frenzied Zionism," in which the writer entitled the Zionism of those days "frenzied," because of the intense longing for the restoration of the Holy Land to its rightful owners.

CAUSES OF HERNIA.

"Would like to know," J. W. P. asks, "what percentage of the population has hernia; what causes hernia; what causes strangulation and what is the danger of strangulation and what is the chance of saving life by operation in strangulation; is there any application or liniment or medicine that cures rupture?"

The report on the draft shows that of the young men examined for service in the United States army in the world war, about 4 per cent had hernia or inguinal rings large enough to make any strain risk hernia. Of the first 2,500,000 men examined, 57,372 had hernia, but the additional 22,292 showed enlargement of the rings.

On the Colored Worker's Side.

Omaha, Jan. 20.—To the Editor of The Bee: To the readers of this paper I want to say something in defense of the colored union man—after reading the letter by A. H. Nelson, an employe of one of the packing house plants of South Omaha.

Enemias for Pin Worms.

J. E. Wright, 29 years of age, and since about 10 years old I have been troubled with small white worms (pin worms). When I have the worms in my bowels, I feel very miserable, and have been taking large doses of castor oil during these periods, but found no relief.

It's a Dollar Worth a Dollar.

But there is one thing about the new dollar which cannot fail to disarm the most valid criticism of the artistic hand-drawn dollar: it is its value as currency. It is the only piece of money now extant that is worth precisely 100 per cent.

Wisdom Is a Gift.

A Philadelphian appreciated his cook so highly that in his will he left his automobile and $50,000, the latter, possibly to provide the where-withal to run it.—Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.

Normal Condition.

"Do you think there is an invisible government at work?" "If there is any government at work it is invisible."—Life.

How to Keep Well

Questions concerning hygiene, sanitation and prevention of disease, submitted to Dr. Evans by readers of The Bee, will be answered personally by subject to proper limitation, where a personal address is enclosed. Dr. Evans will not make a diagnosis or prescribe for individual cases. Address letters in care of The Bee.

CAUSES OF HERNIA.

"Would like to know," J. W. P. asks, "what percentage of the population has hernia; what causes hernia; what causes strangulation and what is the danger of strangulation and what is the chance of saving life by operation in strangulation; is there any application or liniment or medicine that cures rupture?"

The report on the draft shows that of the young men examined for service in the United States army in the world war, about 4 per cent had hernia or inguinal rings large enough to make any strain risk hernia. Of the first 2,500,000 men examined, 57,372 had hernia, but the additional 22,292 showed enlargement of the rings.

On the Colored Worker's Side.

Omaha, Jan. 20.—To the Editor of The Bee: To the readers of this paper I want to say something in defense of the colored union man—after reading the letter by A. H. Nelson, an employe of one of the packing house plants of South Omaha.

Enemias for Pin Worms.

J. E. Wright, 29 years of age, and since about 10 years old I have been troubled with small white worms (pin worms). When I have the worms in my bowels, I feel very miserable, and have been taking large doses of castor oil during these periods, but found no relief.

It's a Dollar Worth a Dollar.

But there is one thing about the new dollar which cannot fail to disarm the most valid criticism of the artistic hand-drawn dollar: it is its value as currency. It is the only piece of money now extant that is worth precisely 100 per cent.

Wisdom Is a Gift.

A Philadelphian appreciated his cook so highly that in his will he left his automobile and $50,000, the latter, possibly to provide the where-withal to run it.—Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.

Normal Condition.

"Do you think there is an invisible government at work?" "If there is any government at work it is invisible."—Life.

The Bee's Letter Box

(The Bee offers its columns freely to its readers who are in possession of public opinion. It requests that letters be accompanied by return address, and that they be sent to the editor, who will not be held responsible for the return of letters.)

Money in Elections.

Edgar, Neb., Jan. 17.—To the Editor of The Bee: I have been reading the account of the democratic levee feast held in Omaha a few days ago and that they have returned to Jeffersonian simplicity since November, 1920, and how some of them spent the amount of money spent by the friends of Senator Newberry in the campaign for the United States senate, but they do not say anything about the money that Henry Ford spent and the underhanded methods he used in trying to get the nomination on both the democratic and republican tickets at the primaries, which was as bad as not worse in its contempt for morals and its effect on the electorate of the state of Michigan as the use of money in advertising during the campaign.

Henry Ford is a man of great wealth and has no doubt that he spent as much money (if the truth was known) as did Senator Newberry. With an organization which commercial in its nature, he responded to his every political wish, it reached out over the state. He had his men working for him by the month, running Ford machines all over the state of Michigan, and that was not all. He had the support of the democratic administration from the White House down. He was President Wilson's candidate and there was government money used in advertising the Ford campaign, but it was used in such a way that it could not be got at, and, of course, it went in as expenses of the war.

On the Colored Worker's Side.

Omaha, Jan. 20.—To the Editor of The Bee: To the readers of this paper I want to say something in defense of the colored union man—after reading the letter by A. H. Nelson, an employe of one of the packing house plants of South Omaha.

Enemias for Pin Worms.

J. E. Wright, 29 years of age, and since about 10 years old I have been troubled with small white worms (pin worms). When I have the worms in my bowels, I feel very miserable, and have been taking large doses of castor oil during these periods, but found no relief.

It's a Dollar Worth a Dollar.

But there is one thing about the new dollar which cannot fail to disarm the most valid criticism of the artistic hand-drawn dollar: it is its value as currency. It is the only piece of money now extant that is worth precisely 100 per cent.

Wisdom Is a Gift.

A Philadelphian appreciated his cook so highly that in his will he left his automobile and $50,000, the latter, possibly to provide the where-withal to run it.—Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.

Normal Condition.

"Do you think there is an invisible government at work?" "If there is any government at work it is invisible."—Life.

broadcast today. There is also right to take wood alcohol. There are always two sides to a story. The public does not know the strike or animal intelligence for the packers; their contradiction notwithstanding. At Cudahay's they have plenty of men, but inexperienced. The ofral is not saved. The men "shoot craps" all night. Some of the characters employed there are so desperate as to make conditions unfair for other men. Evening-time cigars and cigarettes are passed around, each man grabbing a handful. Men smoke at work. They receive board and lodging free, unless they quit, when it is deducted from wages. This fact that packers can feed and lodge men is evidence that they are not fair.

On the Colored Worker's Side.

Omaha, Jan. 19.—To the Editor of The Bee: I note in The Bee a writer says, to which I will add, they are killing lice, according to testimony of one of the watchmen at the packing houses. The right to work is as sacred as to strike. This sentiment is spread

Enemias for Pin Worms.

J. E. Wright, 29 years of age, and since about 10 years old I have been troubled with small white worms (pin worms). When I have the worms in my bowels, I feel very miserable, and have been taking large doses of castor oil during these periods, but found no relief.

It's a Dollar Worth a Dollar.

But there is one thing about the new dollar which cannot fail to disarm the most valid criticism of the artistic hand-drawn dollar: it is its value as currency. It is the only piece of money now extant that is worth precisely 100 per cent.

Wisdom Is a Gift.

A Philadelphian appreciated his cook so highly that in his will he left his automobile and $50,000, the latter, possibly to provide the where-withal to run it.—Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.

Normal Condition.

"Do you think there is an invisible government at work?" "If there is any government at work it is invisible."—Life.

On the Colored Worker's Side.

Omaha, Jan. 20.—To the Editor of The Bee: To the readers of this paper I want to say something in defense of the colored union man—after reading the letter by A. H. Nelson, an employe of one of the packing house plants of South Omaha.

Enemias for Pin Worms.

J. E. Wright, 29 years of age, and since about 10 years old I have been troubled with small white worms (pin worms). When I have the worms in my bowels, I feel very miserable, and have been taking large doses of castor oil during these periods, but found no relief.

It's a Dollar Worth a Dollar.

But there is one thing about the new dollar which cannot fail to disarm the most valid criticism of the artistic hand-drawn dollar: it is its value as currency. It is the only piece of money now extant that is worth precisely 100 per cent.

Wisdom Is a Gift.

A Philadelphian appreciated his cook so highly that in his will he left his automobile and $50,000, the latter, possibly to provide the where-withal to run it.—Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.

Normal Condition.

"Do you think there is an invisible government at work?" "If there is any government at work it is invisible."—Life.

On the Colored Worker's Side.

Omaha, Jan. 20.—To the Editor of The Bee: To the readers of this paper I want to say something in defense of the colored union man—after reading the letter by A. H. Nelson, an employe of one of the packing house plants of South Omaha.

Enemias for Pin Worms.

J. E. Wright, 29 years of age, and since about 10 years old I have been troubled with small white worms (pin worms). When I have the worms in my bowels, I feel very miserable, and have been taking large doses of castor oil during these periods, but found no relief.

It's a Dollar Worth a Dollar.

But there is one thing about the new dollar which cannot fail to disarm the most valid criticism of the artistic hand-drawn dollar: it is its value as currency. It is the only piece of money now extant that is worth precisely 100 per cent.

Wisdom Is a Gift.

A Philadelphian appreciated his cook so highly that in his will he left his automobile and $50,000, the latter, possibly to provide the where-withal to run it.—Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.

From Pines to Palms
3 Seasons in 40 Minutes and then California
Through a matchless transformation scene you enter Southern California for your winter vacation. In forty minutes the LOS ANGELES LIMITED descends from the pine-trees of the Sierra Madre to the blossoming orange groves of San Bernardino.
Panoramas of every variety line the route. The great plains, rich in memories of pioneer days, the giant Rockies, Weber Canyon, the mysterious Salt Lake, the canyons of Nevada—and to crown all—Los Angeles, lovely as the dream-city of an Arabian tale.
If you like, return by way of San Francisco or the Pacific Northwest and Denver.
Go on the LOS ANGELES LIMITED. All Pullman, synonym for travel-comfort, luxury and delicious dining car meals. Spacious observation car. Leaves Omaha at 9:40 a. m.
The CONTINENTAL LIMITED, another fine train with observation, standard and tourist sleepers and dining car, leaves Omaha 1:20 a. m. (sleeper ready 10 p. m.)
Union Pacific is the best way to go, one system, one management straight through.
Our illustrated booklet, "California Calls You" tells you where to go and what to see. Write for your copy.
For information, ask—
Union Depot, Consolidated Ticket Office, 1415 Dodge St., Phone Douglas 1624.
A. K. Curtis, City Pass. Agent, U. P. Station, 1415 Dodge St., Omaha, Phone Douglas 4000.

When in Omaha Hotel Henshaw

Character and Clothes. What you wear may be of some importance. How you wear it is of more importance.—Forbes Magazine.

Today's Optimistic Thought. Cheer up! When all the neighbors buy autos you can get a seat in a street car.—St. Paul News.

Aliens and Firearms. Omaha, Jan. 21.—To the Editor of The Bee: I note in The Bee a writer stating that the game warden has cautioned aliens to take aliens' license for hunting, fee $12.00, subdivision B, Article 1 Section 43, subdivision 3, of the laws of 1921, makes this fee for aliens for hunting and fishing license.

Andrew Carlso. Circumstances have deemed otherwise. If all employers were honest and would pay each man a fair wage unions would be unnecessary. But when they refuse to cut the throat of labor, then self-preservation is natural and proper. It is not right to take away from another man. They are a strikebreaker is a sinner. While I do not work at the packing houses now, I have formerly, and I know them from top to bottom. There should be an investigation of packing house conditions. Give our fair and square newspapers. Give our Armour & Co.'s statements. The boards is ridiculous. The board must vote their will be discharged.

Money in Elections. Henry Ford is a man of great wealth and has no doubt that he spent as much money (if the truth was known) as did Senator Newberry. With an organization which commercial in its nature, he responded to his every political wish, it reached out over the state. He had his men working for him by the month, running Ford machines all over the state of Michigan, and that was not all. He had the support of the democratic administration from the White House down. He was President Wilson's candidate and there was government money used in advertising the Ford campaign, but it was used in such a way that it could not be got at, and, of course, it went in as expenses of the war.

On the Colored Worker's Side. Omaha, Jan. 19.—To the Editor of The Bee: I note in The Bee a writer says, to which I will add, they are killing lice, according to testimony of one of the watchmen at the packing houses. The right to work is as sacred as to strike. This sentiment is spread Enemias for Pin Worms. J. E. Wright, 29 years of age, and since about 10 years old I have been troubled with small white worms (pin worms). When I have the worms in my bowels, I feel very miserable, and have been taking large doses of castor oil during these periods, but found no relief.

It's a Dollar Worth a Dollar. But there is one thing about the new dollar which cannot fail to disarm the most valid criticism of the artistic hand-drawn dollar: it is its value as currency. It is the only piece of money now extant that is worth precisely 100 per cent.

Wisdom Is a Gift. A Philadelphian appreciated his cook so highly that in his will he left his automobile and $50,000, the latter, possibly to provide the where-withal to run it.—Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.