

Banker "Ice Man" Refused to Quit, Husband Asserts

Armed for Divorce Also as He Was "Fallen" When Gasoline Ran Short.

Armstrong, on the witness stand in the divorce trial by his wife, Helen, testified that the "ice man" refused to be fired, and that he had been bringing ice to the house for about three weeks before he was fired.

Ex-Omahan Youngest High School Student

Carl Roe.

Didn't Quit. I found he was doing it, I talked with him, told him neighbors would talk about it, but he didn't quit bringing ice.

Fed Baby Beef. I said I guessed I was the 'fall' and started out after gas. I got about three gallons at a farm. Three gallons were enough to get us back to town. Hutton later told me the tank leaked, but it didn't leak on the return trip, apparently.

Soldier Relief Body Re-Elects Mrs. Judson

The Society for the Relief of the Disabled, meeting yesterday at the University club, re-elected Mrs. Frank Judson president; Mrs. John Redick, secretary, and Mrs. A. L. ...

Says Charity Society Caused Liquor Raid

Jacob Singer, 2028 North Eighteenth street, told police court officials yesterday that members of a charity association, who were refused financial help by him, threatened to make trouble, and wrote letters to the police department stating that Singer had intoxicating liquor in his possession.

Vehicle Owners Who Do Not Pay Tax May Be Arrested

The city clerk announces that he will keep his office open Saturday afternoon and evening for the accommodation of vehicle owners who have not paid their 1922 wheel tax fees. The police will begin February 1 to enforce the law pertaining to this tax.

Girl Pleads for Doll When Furniture Seized by Writ

"Please don't take my doll," sobbed Mary Sledge, 8, when Constable William Flemming served a writ of replevin at the Sledge home, 2519 South Twelfth street yesterday. The widow and five children, however, lost their furniture and were ousted from the home. The family will be cared for by the City mission until other arrangements can be made.

Lincoln Insane Hospital Tops Market With Hogs

A load of 243-pound Duroc hogs was brought to the Omaha market by J. R. Helms, manager of live-stock at the state hospital for insane, Lincoln. The hogs brought the top price of $8.70 a hundred and were bought by a hog serum company.

Dunn Proposes Bond Issue for Completion of City Jail

Police Commissioner H. W. Dunn stated that he will ask the city council to authorize the sale of $50,000 police station bonds to cover the expense of completing the jail portion of the structure at Eleventh and Dodge streets and also to take up an overlap of about $15,000 on work already done.

Plans to Present Pageant "The Call of the Bell" Here

J. J. Whiting is conferring with the Americanization committee of the Chamber of Commerce in connection with a proposition to put on his pageant, "The Call of the Bell," in Omaha next June. Mr. Whiting produced this spectacle at Superior, Neb., last August.

Brief City News. Police Sergeant III — Police Sergeant David Gardner is very ill with pneumonia at his home, 2415 Capitol avenue.

Files Suit for $100,000 — Alfred Bowen filed suit against the Pacific Fruit company for $100,000 for injuries received when a scaffolding broke down.

Seeks Damages — Elizabeth Herzog filed a suit in the district court yesterday for injuries received January 23, when a Yellow Cab truck struck her.

Firemen Kept Busy — Records at the fire department show that a total of 245 fire alarms have taken place up until yesterday since the beginning of the new year.

Discontinues Evening Service — Rev. Charles W. Savidge of the People's church has decided to discontinue Sunday evening services to fill vacant pulpits in and around Omaha.

Enters Postmasters' School — George W. Harding, Ralston postmaster and a cousin of President Harding, arrived in Omaha yesterday to attend the postmasters' school.

Tailor Shop Looted — Henry Friedel, tailor, 316 South Fifteenth street, reported that burglars forced open the rear door of his store and stole $40 worth of minkings Thursday night.

Accuse Each Other — Each accusing the other of being a crook, George Benson, Windsor hotel, and Jack Slater, Chicago, were arrested by the police Thursday night for investigation.

Sherlock Holmes Stunt — Detectives Haze and Donahue found rings valued at $1,400, thought stolen from Pauline Ghore, Loyal hotel, hidden on the paneling over a door in her room Thursday.

Stamps Stolen — A thief broke into the First Unitarian church, Thirty-first and Harney streets, Thursday night and stole $5 worth of stamps from the study of the pastor, Rev. Charles Lytle.

Trophy Dispute Undecided — No decision has been reached so far in the John M. Larson trophy dispute, according to a telegram received yesterday from Roscoe C. Tooke, who is representing the Omaha Aero club at the Washington hearing.

Toy Held for Trial — Alfred Toy, who shot at his wife in the confectionery store of her brother, Robert Durnall, 4702 South Twenty-fourth street Tuesday, was bound over to the district court under $2,500 bond yesterday.

Edison Heads Poultrymen — A. L. Edison was elected president of the Omaha Poultry Show association at the courthouse Thursday night. Plans were made for the 1922 show, which has been called off by the Omaha Chamber of Commerce.

Leopard in Los Angeles — Stating that he "had not dropped from sight," Joseph ... former Omaha ... man, now in Los Angeles, denied the charges made against him by Guy P. Briggs, his former partner here, in a letter to The Bee.

Diplomas Presented — Diplomas were presented to the pupils of the Eighth B class, Central school, yesterday after closing exercises in which the following took part: Anita MacDonald, Hazel Showalter, Arthur Goldstein, Dorothy Walner, Gertrude Winthoub and Hazel Showalter.

Girl Appeals Liquor Case — When fined $100 by Judge Wappich for illegal possession of liquor yesterday, Katherine Warner appealed the case and was bound over to the grand jury on a bond of $250. The liquor was obtained by raiding officers in a house near Seventy-second street and Military avenue.

THE BRANDEIS STORE

Men! Here's the Chance of the Season!
Saturday We Offer a Special Purchase of 1000 Men's and Young Men's
Hart Schaffner & Marx

SUITS AND OVERCOATS

Made to Sell at 50.00 to 85.00

Sizes for Big Men, Little Men, Stout Men—up to 48—and regular sizes for every man. We doubt if there's a man in Omaha we can't fit.
 Fourth Floor

Men's Fur Coats at 1/4 OFF Regular Prices

Big fleecy storm coats, motor coats, blue serge and staple suits. A sale after a man's own heart; it offers the very finest clothing in the world at a saving in many instances of more than half price.

Hundreds of Other Suits and Overcoats $20

No charge for necessary alterations. Extra sales people to serve you promptly.

Men! Best Shoe Values

800 pairs of high grade, well fitting shoes taken from our regular stocks and grouped in two lots for a quick clearance.

Fourth Floor—Center

Lot 1—Men's Shoes in black and brown leathers. All sizes in the lot but not in each style. 5.00 and 6.00 values, now 3.95
Lot 2—Men's Shoes in black and brown leathers. Broken sizes but excellent values. Formerly priced from 5.00 to 10.00, now 5.00
Daniel Green Felt Slippers—All colors, 2.25 and 2.75 values, now 2.00
Boys' Shoes—Broken lots taken from our regular stocks, also brown hi-cuts. Sizes 12-2. Were formerly priced from 4.50 to 6.00, now at 3.95

Luggage Bargains

3 Specials From the Luggage Section
 $50 Mendel-Drucker Wardrobe 39.50
 Trunks, at, 39.50
 13.50 and 15.00 Solid Sole Leather Suit Cases, 8.50
 7.50 Leather and Leather Lined Traveling Bags, at, 4.95
 Fourth Floor

Men's Hats Greatly Reduced

Stetson 7.00 Hats, 5.00
Stetson 10.00 and 15.00 Hats, 7.50
Men's 2.00 and 2.50 Hats, at 95c
Men's 1.50 Winter Caps, 95c
Boys' 1.50 Caps, at 95c
 With or Without Fur Inbands
Boys' 1.00 All-Wool Ace Caps, at 59c
Boys' 2.50 and 3.00 Polo Hats, at 1.49
 Fourth Floor

