Eastern Renter.

Pat said to the Englishman: "Tou can break me one arm and both me legs and knock out me teeth and I can still whip ye."

I say, that while the farmers all over the nation have been hard hit, yet, we of western Nebraska can still whip the city man who is working on a selary or the eastern renter who is farming eastern farms on shares.

I say and anyone cise who knows anything about it will tell you the same, that you are silly to stick to a job that wafts you around like a chip on a wave, if you have a couple or $3,000 ahead, which is all that is required to take over one of my farms that I have to offer you complate with horses, harness, wagons, machinary, cattle, etc.—a farm already for you to begin work on; a place to which you only have to move your household goods to be ready to start actin.

For Instance:

For Instance:
