Father-in-Law Who Caused Arrest for Bigamy Will Aid in Clearing Actor.

Shelby, Ia., Jan. 28 .- (Special.)-Leaving her husband, Oscar V. Acton, in jail in Cedar Rapids, where he is held on a charge of bigamy, Mrs. Acton has returned to her home here. She is hopeful her husband, who was arrested on an in-formation filed by her father, J. M. Koch, will clear bimself of the charge so that they may continue their heretofore happy married life interrupted Acton left Council Bluffs a few weeks ago to become manager of a sewing machine agency in Cedar Rapids. He says he supposed his former wife, whom he married in 1912, and who is 10 years his senior, had obtained a divorce. She had promised she would do so, says Ac-

They were married following a "wild night" party, and lived to-gether but a few months. The woman failed to get a divorce. She lives in Omaha and recently the fact that she was not divorced came to the knowledge of Koch, father of the second Mrs. Acton. Koch says he will try and clear his son-in-law, although the latter is in jail on an information signed by him. If the bigamy charge is cleared away, Koch says he will help Acton get a divorce from wife number one so that he can lawfully rewed wife number two.

Declamatory Contest Held by Denison High School Denison, Ia., Jan. 28.—(Special.)

—The declamatory contest of the Denison High school was wor by Maxine Robinson in the oratorical: Miss Abbie A. McHenry the drama-tic, and Miss Myrtle Malone in the humorous classes. Miss Robinson was made first over all. She had for her selection Mark Antony's speech on Caesar. Miss Robinson was the victor in the dramatic class last year and will represent the Deniso school at the state contest.
