

Comedy Skits in the Movies

"What's a jail house without a deck?" asks Eddie Barry, slapstick comedian.

With this menagerie, Baby John Henry, child comedian, is ready to start out in the world of adventure and fun.

"Ain't we got fun," is the sentiment of a pair of sexes in Neal Butts arms. "Yeah, an' do ya call this comedy?" asks Neal.

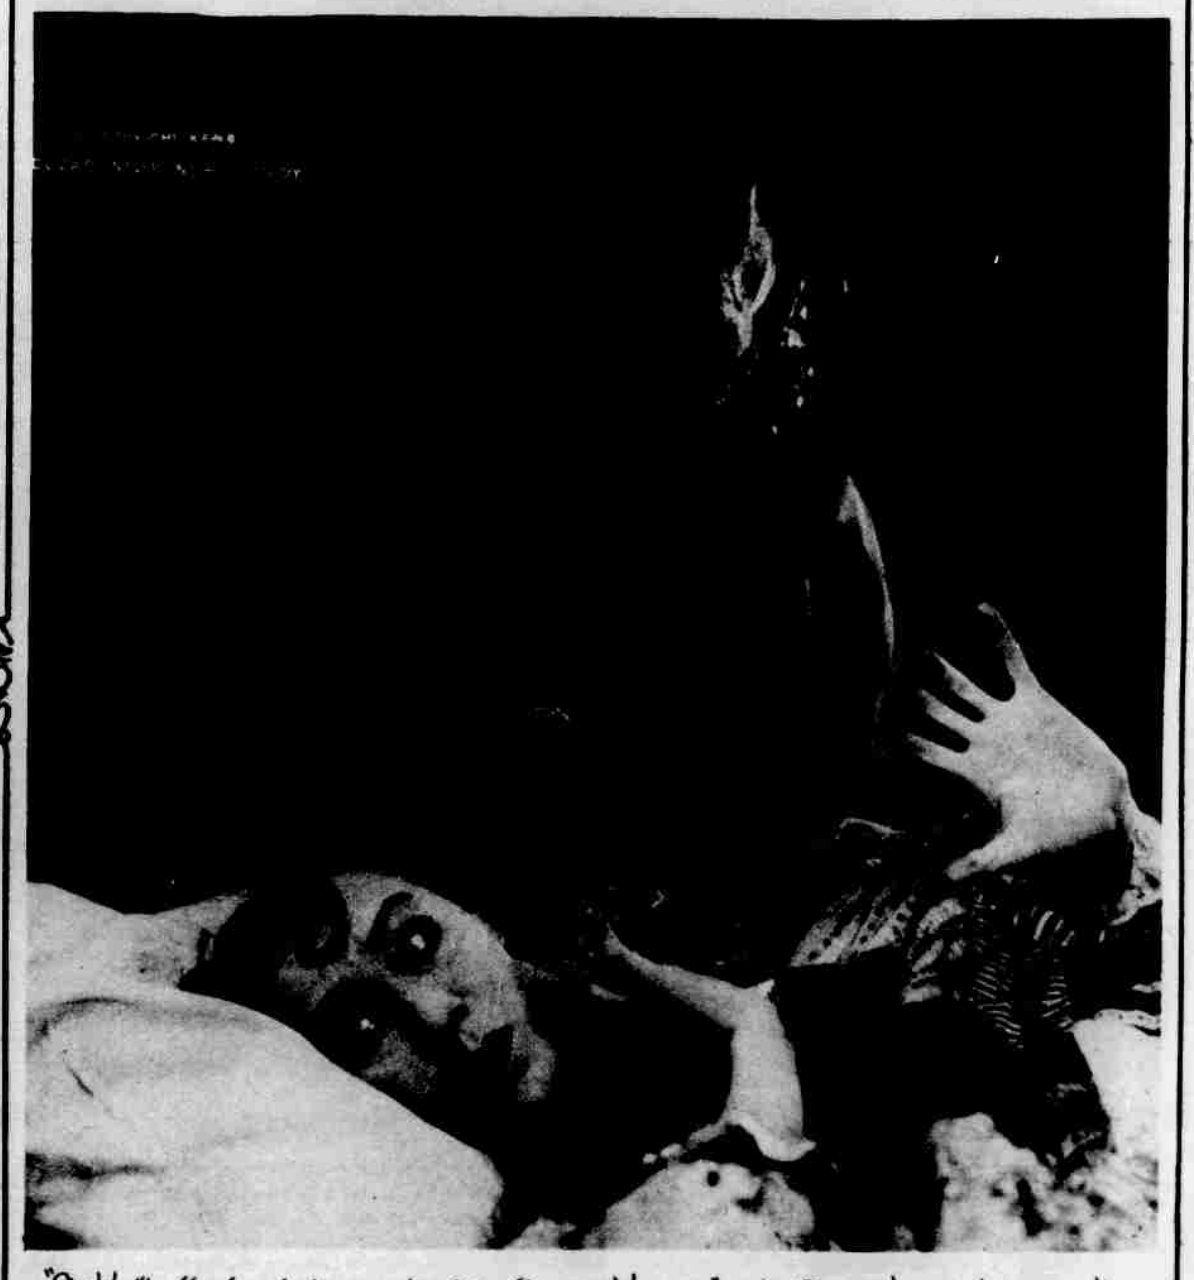

"My heart pounds after three fair maidens," quoth Chester Conklin in loving mood to Louise Fazenda.

Johnny Hines is all smiles when he hits the high spots a la cart.

This is Bobby Vernon pure and simple.

"Taddy" is the best alarm clock in the world, says Louise Fazenda, popular comedienne.
