Miracle Girl May Solve Fur Theft in Omaha

Psychic Wonder Names One of Alleged Thieves in $10,-000 Robbery - Says "Fence" Has Loot.

Will Eugene Dennie, "wonder girl," top her psychic revelations by solving the $10,000 fur robbery from the I. Berkowitz shop, Twentyeighth and Leavenworth streets, last August 6?

Berkowitz believes she already has given him valuable "tips." In gratitude he presented her yesterday with a silver fox choker values at more than $100.

The "wonder girl" and David Ab-bott, her host, who is conducting experiments for a psychic research so-ciety, spent the whole morning at the Berkowitz shop, rehearsing the rob-

Iowa Senator Would Establish Federal Agency Affecting Workers and Operators

Kenyon Favors

U. S. Regulation

Washington, Jan. 28.-Recommendations that statutes be enacted to compel the incorporation of labor unions and that there be set up a code of laws and a federal agency for regulation of the coal industry.

Chairman Kenyon of the investi-gation committee, was author of the proposal for a federal regulatory tribunal, and the suggestions for obligatory incorporation of unions came from Senators Phipps, Colorado; Warren, Wyoming, and Ster-link. South Dakota, all republicans. The three senators supported Sen-ator Kenyon's proposal for the reg-ulatory body, but declared that unless incorporations were forced, the agency would have no legally re-sponsible body with which to deal. Mr. Kenyon's statement declared that mutual concessions must be made by both operators and miners the West Virginia troubles to end the conflicts, but his colleagues held that the law should provide that when agreements were reached through arbitration or otherwise, the promises thus exacted must be kept. tinue in the ministry for seven years Senators Phipps, Warren and Sterling also differed from Mr. Kenyon as to the responsibility for the West Virginia conditions, where Mr. Kenyon charged that both miners and operators were measurably responsible.
