

Family Without Funds to Pay for Dead Lad's Burial

Death of Uncle an Hour Before Boy Killed Under Auto Drains Purse Relatives Say.

The funeral of Marion Barnell, 10, killed by an automobile Sunday, is temporarily halted.

Inability to pay expenses for a funeral is the reason advanced for the delay by Walter E. Scott, 2301 Leavenworth street, an uncle who identified the body after it had lain for 20 hours in Healey's undertaking rooms.

Uncle Is Buried Today. Oliver Scott, another uncle of the dead boy, who died of tuberculosis an hour before the youth was killed, will be buried at 10 this morning from Jackson's mortuary.

George H. Gibson, house superintendent at Fairmont crematory, who was driving the automobile, will appear at the inquest. He is at liberty on a bond of $2,500.

Marion and his mother were returning home from Mrs. Barnell's mother's home, where the uncle died. Marion was on a coaster wagon while his mother walked. In a short while Mrs. Barnell was a block ahead of her son.

Identify of the youth was established when the mother went to the Scott home and learned that Marion had not slept there. Scott made a search for the boy.

Headquarters they told him a boy killed by an auto was still unidentified.

J. H. Moorhead to Be Candidate for Congress

Friends Say Former Governor Will Seek Democratic Nomination for Seat in House of Representatives.

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 6.—(Special Telegram.)—John H. Moorhead, former governor, will be a democratic candidate for nomination for congress in the First district, it was announced tonight by Moorhead's personal friends.

Two years ago Moorhead was the unsuccessful candidate against Governor McKelvie. Excepting Governor McKelvie, Moorhead was the only second term governor since John H. Mickey, who concluded serving his second term in 1907.

Republicans in the First district are split in three ways in the primary, between Walter L. Anderson, Lincoln; Lieut. Gov. P. A. Barrows, Lincoln, and W. W. Annis, Dunbar.

J. H. Edmiston, chairman of the new third party central committee, left Lincoln this afternoon, presumably for Polk county, where he will endeavor to persuade J. N. Norton, democrat, to become the third party candidate for governor.

It is known that Arthur G. Wray of York, who announced Saturday he would be the candidate for governor on the third party ticket, will withdraw in Norton's favor. Two months ago Norton refused proffers of the Mulen-Hitchcock faction to fuse with them and become a democratic candidate for governor.
