

Hays Will Save Movies, Is Belief of Big Producer

"But What's Hollywood to Me?" Counters Carl Laemmle as His Train Stops in Omaha.

The movie game that has been described by a dozen or so undesirables in Hollywood will be lifted from its present precarious situation to a high and noble plane, declared Carl Laemmle, cinema producer, at a Union station yesterday when he stepped from the Los Angeles Limited long enough to inhale a few breaths of Omaha air.

"But we're all waiting hopefully and anxiously for Mr. Hays," Mr. Laemmle admitted. "He'll lead the industry out of the rut into which scandal mongers have thrown it."

Leader in Industry.
One of the biggest men in the motion picture industry today is a financial capacity. Mr. Laemmle appears less than five feet tall. He is stout, however. With him were his daughter, Miss Rosabelle, 20; Miss Estelle Cohen; Mrs. Anna Fleckles, sister-in-law; Jules Stern, his brother-in-law; Harry Zehner, his private secretary and Zion Myers, secretary to Mr. Stern.

"Are you going out to clean up Hollywood?" the producer was asked. He smiled.

Going to Play Golf.
"I'm going out to play golf," he said. "Hollywood? What's that to me? My studios are five miles away and I'm proud to state there's never a scandal emanated from them. I've added a 'morality clause' to my contracts with stars and if they don't live up to it, they're fired like any other employe."

"Of course, scandal at Hollywood reflects on the entire picture industry, but not rightfully so. We've got to get rid of those few undesirables whose names are associated with all night liquor parties, silk nightgowns and the like. When Mr. Hays assumes his new position as head of the industry March 5, we producers will lay some facts before him and he'll weed out the wastrels and degenerate in the game."

A delegation of Omaha film men headed by Harry F. Leffholtz, personal representative of Mr. Laemmle in Omaha, met the party at Union station. Mr. Leffholtz accompanied Mr. Laemmle as far as Fremont.

Mabel Not Worried
New York, Feb. 13.—Mabel Normand, the film star, is not worrying about her connection with the William Desmond Taylor murder investigation and she is not letting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Normand, of West Brighton, worry either.

Mr. Normand made public today one of a number of telegrams that he has received from his daughter since Taylor was slain.

"Don't worry, mamma and papa," the message said. "Unfortunately I was at the Taylor house a short time before he was killed. Had I not gone there for books my name would never have been mentioned in the affair. They all know out here that I know nothing about the sad affair and that I will be exonerated.—Mabel."

Mr. Normand said the comedienne spent two months of every year with them and that he expected her to arrive for her annual visit within a short time.

Sioux City Man Named for Iowa Federal Bench
Washington, Feb. 13.—The appointment of former Congressman George C. Scott of Sioux City, Ia., to be United States judge for the northern district of Iowa to succeed Judge Henry T. Read, who is retiring because of age, has been recommended by Senator Cummins, republican, Iowa. It is understood that the nomination soon will be sent to the senate.

SHE DARKENED HER GRAY HAIR

Tells How She Did It With a Home-Made Remedy.

Mrs. E. H. Boots, a well-known resident of Buchanan County, Iowa, who darkened her gray hair, made the following statement:
"Any lady or gentleman can darken their gray or faded hair and make it soft and glossy with this simple remedy, which they can mix at home. To half a pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, 1 small box of Burbo Compound and 1/4 ounce of glycerine. These ingredients can be purchased at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair every other day until the gray hair is darkened sufficiently. It does not color the scalp, is not greasy and does not rub off. It will make gray-haired persons look twenty years younger."

There Is Doubt Slayer of Taylor Will Ever Be Found

So Declares District Attorney Woolwine of Los Angeles—Denies "Faked and Fraudulent" Interview Quoting Him as Declaring He Would Ferret Out Perpetrator of Deed.

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 13.—There is "a grave and serious doubt at the present time as to whether the murderer of William Desmond Taylor, film director, will ever be apprehended," declared Thomas Lee Woolwine, district attorney, late last night.

Mr. Woolwine made this declaration in a statement he issued, deploring what he termed "faked and fraudulent interviews" on the case, and particularly one purporting to have come from him.

His statement follows:
"In the early edition of the Examiner for Monday morning there appeared on the first page thereof, an interview purporting to come from me which was never in effect given."

"Never Took Place."
"This interview never took place, and there is not a word of it that I have ever authorized to be printed, nor did I have the slightest intimation, directly or indirectly, that it would be."

"There is not a sentence to contain my exact language about anything. It is composed of some things that I have uttered in substance. There are some half truths, many absolute falsehoods. I have made complaint publicly about the verdict in the Burch case, but I did not authorize any further statement about that case."

"The following quotation from the false interview was never uttered by me:
"Now, when my office should be directing all its energies in its prosecution of Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain in her trial before Judge Sidney N. Reeve, I have this most baffling of murder mysteries to solve—the killing of William Desmond Taylor."

"I would not make such a statement at this time, when the Obenchain case is on trial and for the further reason that there are now pending in the office of the district attorney many hundreds of cases that should, and do, receive attention, the Obenchain case being only one of that large number."

"I did not say the last quoted words in substance or effect at any time."

"The following language purporting to have been uttered by me is out of whole cloth and is viciously false:
"If the minds of the jurors who first tried (Fatty) Arbuckle, Arthur C. Burch are the minds of the public—then I must confess that the people do not want to be protected by the laws on the statute books."

"The following language is also made out of whole cloth, never having been uttered or thought of by me."
"Nevertheless, I shall ferret out the criminal who killed Taylor. Nothing will stop the district attorney's office from getting at the truth and bringing to the surface the facts which led to the murder of the noted film director."

"The facts are that the duty of ferreting out and apprehending the perpetrator of this deed rests with the police department and I am only consulting with and advising them."

"There is grave and serious doubt at the present time as to whether the murderer will ever be apprehended, and certainly I do not know whether he ever will be."

She Has Told "All She Knew" of Slain Picture Director

Mary Miles Minter

Los Angeles, Feb. 13.—Mary Miles Minter, motion picture actress, issued a statement here today through her attorneys, declaring that she had told investigators "all that she knew" of the life of William Desmond Taylor, motion picture director, slain mysteriously 12 days ago. It said she could not conceive how any person could voluntarily wrong Taylor.

The statement follows:
"There is no personal or financial sacrifice that I would not gladly make to bring the slayer of William Desmond Taylor to justice."

"Mr. Taylor was one of my best friends. His death was a great shock to me. I met Mr. Taylor first in 1919 when he became my director. I was then 17 years old, and his inspiration, his unflinching courtesy and consideration not only to me but to all with whom he came in contact, immediately won my highest admiration."

"From 1919 until the day of his death Mr. Taylor was to me the symbol of honor and manliness, an inspiration, friend, guide and counselor—the symbol of all a girl admires in a man."

"His friendship was uplifting and his advice and aid were invaluable. It would be nothing less than veritable ingratitude if I did not, now that he is dead, raise my voice to proclaim what he was and to reprobate those who would besmirch his character."

"I have told the authorities all that I know of both his life here and in the east. That I fear, has been of little aid to them."

"I cannot conceive the character of a person who would voluntarily wrong Mr. Taylor or cause his death."
