

MRS. OLIVER HARRIMAN, national president of the Camp Fire Girls, is shown with the Grace Carley Harriman medalion which was awarded at the annual dinner and council fire of the Camp Fire Girls at the Hotel Ambassador, New York, to the guardian submitting the best report for 1921. Miss Modilla Small, a court stenographer who has looked after 100 girls in the last five years, is seated.

A $1,000 BEAUTY. Hazel Keener, from somewhere in Iowa, whose pulchritude recently won her a thousand-dollar award in a movie beauty contest, finds it necessary to seek the protection of an anti-parking sign on her arrival in Los Angeles. But, then, how many persons believe in signs these days? Keystone.

THE JUNIOR LEAGUE girls of New York successfully filled society's stage recently when they presented "Ready Made" at the Hotel Plaza.

DAYS OF REAL SPORT AT PLACID. The latest and most exciting winter sport at popular Lake Placid in the Adirondacks is hitching behind an auto on skis. One must be a ski expert indeed to keep balanced on these tricky contraptions when being dragged across the snow and ice at the rate of forty miles an hour.

A HUMAN GRASSHOPPER ON SKATES. When it comes to doing stunts on the ice one must hand the laurel wreath to Earl Palmer, Plattsburg's sensational speed and fancy skater, pictured here doing a head first dive over three barrels after just having hurled the other barrel pyramid at the right. Unlike some other skaters we know, Earl always manages to land on his feet. Underwood.

THE QUEEN OF HEARTS as portrayed in this distinctive pose by that well-known silver screen satellite, Jacqueline Logan. Her face, her lips, her hands—three "hearts" worth drawing to. Then if you could but catch the one she must wear upon her sleeve and the one that beats in her breast—you'd hold a hand on which to bet your roll. Keystone.

A MOUSE THAT FEARS NO CAT. Mrs. Edward Twinning jr., as Mouse in the cast of "A Boy's Pocket Dream," a novelty sketch given by girls of the Junior League at the Hippodrome, New York. Other characters depicted by the girls were Top Candy, Ball, Firecracker and Kite.

Butter-Nut

"The Coffee Delicious"

Supplies that final test, the required essential that decides the dinner question.

PAXTON & GALLAGHER CO.

