THE Brandeis Store has grown to its present proportions through appreciation of its merchandising and policies. Its pre-eminence is the sincere tribute of the buying public to the steadfast aim of this Institution to be an essential factor in the community, to master obstacles, to advance constantly in the right direction, to divert its broad experience to the benefit of those who have made this store, through their patronage, a realized ideal—a store worth while.

Look over this page of bargains for Wednesday. You will find many things for which you have long waited, and all at prices that you never expected to obtain.

The Silk Hosiery Sale on the Main Floor will be particularly attractive, for it is in fact a "two for one" sale and the quality is as attractive as the price.

You cannot afford to miss the big sale of Curtain Materials in the Basement. There you will obtain values of 59c for 25c. This is one of the best opportunities ever offered in this particular line.

The Towel and Wash Cloth Sale in our Linen Department on the Main Floor will draw many people, for the price places these timely offerings within the reach of all.

Then there is the "Out They Go" Sale on the Second Floor. Read this ready-to-wear ad and then inspect the garment; you will be delighted at the values to be found here, as well as in the offerings all over the store on Wednesday.
