Mighty Ovation Given Princess Along Route From Palace to Westminster Abbey.

cessions their arrivals at the west home. abbey door were timed to a nicety and afforded an almost uninterrupted file of the principal participants.

Members of the royal family who were not included in the carriage processions assembled outside the abbey shortly after 11 o'clock where they greeted Alexandra and a few minutes later, the second party con-sisting of the Duke of York and Princes Henry and George. The dean of Westminster received them and to the strains of Sir Humbert Parry's bridal march, faintly heard from the interior of the abbey, they were conducted by gentlemen ushers down the aisle and around the unknown warrior's grave, between rows of guests standing in phalanxes, tier above tier, on either side, to their places in the sacrarium.

Officials of the royal house headed this procession, followed by the mar-quis and marchioness of Cambridge, Lord Leopold of Mount Batten, with the Marquis and Marchioness Caris-brooke, the princess royal, Marie Louise: Princess Helen Victoria, Lady Patricia Ramsay, the earl and countess of Athlone, the duchess of Albany, Princess Beatrice, Princess Louise, duchess of Argyll, Princess Christian and the princess royal, Victoria; the lord steward and lord chamberlain; then came Prince Henry, Queen Mother Alexandra, King George, Queen Mary and the duke of York, followed by 11 house-hold efficiely the attendants bringing assembled in the Jerusalem chamber of the abbey and moved to their places in the sacrarium, the Volunture of the sacrarium, the Volunture of the sacrarium, the Volunture of Constitution of the sacrarium of the s from her coach—truly a princess in her fairy-like gown, combining the sheen of silver, the filmy gown of sulle, the sparkle of beads, the dull sheen of powerle and the standing many control of the standing many control of the subject of an American merchant marine than possibly any previous address he had made to the two houses.

This address, which was most income of the program for the assistance of the program for the program f

Followed by Bridesmaids.

The dean received the party. "Lead Us, Heavenly Father," was played as the bridal procession moved up the nave headed by house-hold officials, the state chamberlain, the dean canons and choir, the latter comprising 44 boys and 22 men. Then came the bride on the king's arm, followed by the bridesmaids, the ladies in waiting, and king's

It was about 11:30 o'clock, when

The 67th psalm was chanted and the anthem, "Beloved, Let Us Love One Another," was sung during the One Another," was sung during the service. During the ceremony the bride carried an exquisitely bound pink service book, a gift from the queen. The royal bridesmaids were: Princess Maude, Lady Rachel Cavendish, Lady Mary Thynne, Lady Victoria Mary Cambridge, Lady Doris Gordon-Lennox, Lady Elizabeth Bowes-Lyon, Lady Diana Bridgeman and Lady May Cambridge.

couple, saying in part:

"It seems probable that no daughter of a reigning king was ever until today, married in the abbey. Certainly no marriage ever occurred here under conditions quite like yours. The wartime partly created them.

In the to resume the carrying of the remaining wedding arra ments.

Nuptial Psalm Composed by American Organ New York, Feb. 28.—The nupsalm chanted today at the wedding arra ments.

"You Stood the Test."

"Each of you in the grim war years found new opportunities and used them. When the fibre of British manhood was being tested by day in the shell swept trenches and on bare hillside, you, my brother, did bare hillside, you, my brother, did much more than stand the test.

"Such testing, such equipment, can make good its outcome in the quieter after years. No call of that kind, no necessity on that scale, please God, will come again in your life time. To those who are worthy of it, peace too brings its privileges in central places. Our central homes can bestow on English life an inestimable boon. If the fierce light which beats upon such a home reveals there what upon such a home reveals there what is honorable and pure; the gain is far reaching; it spreads. There lies the opportunity for both; you are going to use it.

tures of the princess and the king were easily discernible, even by those at a considerable distance, and is surmounted by a gilded crown.

Uninterrupted File.

Owing to the rehearsals of the departure of these three carriage processions their arrivals at the west possible.

Discovery and the war days of your girlhood brought occasion for glad service. Experiences, however simple, in a hospital ward, can give an abiding stimulus to one who cares. In that effort, as also in the leader-ship of disciplined English girlhood, you have gained thought and knowledge which you will now contribute to securing the strength, orderliness and sunshine of a great English home.

Strength to Strength.

"Together you will set yourselves to this. Happiness in home life, even when it is blessed like yours with high traditions, is not a matter of course. It has its roots in a mutual love which is tender and thoughtful in resource, unselfish in devotion, but brave and unreserved in its honesty of mutual counsel. So you may to-gether go from strength to strength.

"The power so to do must come from on high. We are here this morning as Christians; our fealty and your fealty are pledged to the living Lord. The center, the inspiration, the master in the home is Jesus Christ, the Lord. It is his name that with gladness of heart and buoyancy of hope we today, on behalf of the whole empire and people, bid you godspeed."

The bride and bridegroom then passed to Edward the Confessor where two registers were signed-one known as the royal register, in which the entry of today's ceremony occupied six pages, and the other, the abbey register, which is signed alike, by royalty and sub-jects. Mary used a gold quill pen, one of her weding gifts.

Triumphal Return.

The signing completed, the bridal march from "Romeo and Juliet," and Mendelssohn's wedding march were Henry, Queen Mother Alexandra, King George, Queen Mary and the duke of York, followed by 11 household officials, the attendants bringing up the rear.

Accompanied by Groomsman.

Viscount Lascelles, accompanied by his groomsman, Maj. Sir Victor Audley MacKenzie, D. S. O., arrived at the Poet's Corner door of the abbey and was conducted to the sear reserved for him at the south side of the steps leading to the sacrarium by one of their majesty's gentlemen ushers. He, with the rest of the assemblage, stood until the royal party reached the places assigned them.

The officiating clergy men—the archbishops of Canterbury and York, the bishops of London and Oxford and Canon. Maurice Lascelles, the bishops of untile Lascelles, the bishops of London and Oxford and Canon. Maurice Lascelles, the bishops of untile Lascelles, the bishops of London and Oxford and Canon. Maurice Lascelles, the bishops of London services and the carriage in which Queen Mary went to the abbey. The route was varied to give other crowds an opportunity to see the couple.

At the Mall the carriage turned through the Marlborough gate and went past St. James palace into St. James street, thence proceeding played. The bride and bridegroom and Canon. Maurice Lascelles, the went past St. James palace into St. James street, thence proceeding through Picadilly and Hyde park to the corner of Constitution hill, and

The sun shone brilliantly on Trial cess Mary's wedding procession.

Just before the bride arrived at the abbey, the crowds became so dense in Parliament street that dozens of women and children terested in the development of a mechant marine as manufacture and feinted.

Delight of Crowd.

As she passed the cenotaph in Whitehall on the return from Westminster abbey after the ceremony, Princess Mary reached from the car-riage window and handed out a bouquet which a sergeant major It was about 11:30 o'clock, when the solemn service, performed by the archbishop of Canterbury, assisted by the archbishop of York and the dean and precentor of the abbey, because of the solemn service, performed by the bouquet which a sergeant major grasped and placed on the cenotaph as a tribute to Great Britain's dead in the war.

Soon after their return to Buckingham palace, Princess Mary and her husband appeared on the balcony over the central arch of the palace, to the delight of the crowd gathered there which cheered the pair for several minutes and waved hats and

As they smilingly bowed repeatedly in acknowledgment of the demonstration the couple was joined by King George, Queen Mary and Queen Mother Alexandra, upon which the cheering broke out afresh, The royal party remained on the The ceremony ended, the arch-bishop of Canterbury addressed the ing then to resume the carrying out of the remaining wedding arrange-

by American Organist
New York, Feb. 28.—The nuptial psalm chanted today at the wedding of Princess Mary and Viscount Lasceles is the composition of T.
Tertius Noble, organist of St.
Thomas Episcopalian church here.
The psalm Mr. Noble said was by American Organist

He said Princess Mary first heard the chant in St. George chapel, Windsor, and desiring it as part of her marriage ceremony, identified it

Still, Coil and Mash Are

Stolen From Courtroom Pendleton, Ore., Feb. 28.—When Justice of the Peace E. P. Dodd of Hermiston went to his office today he found that a still, a coil and some mash, held there as evidence, had been stolen during the night. A pan-el had been sawed out of the door and the thief had then unfastened

Not Yet!!

congenial subjects."

Many Cattle Reported on railroad company.

Mr. Petrie said it was quite encouraging to note the strength the market has shown in all classes of live stock in the last few weeks and lot of nice, fat cattle brought to market in the next few weeks. For the Lincoln, Feb. 28 .- Dr. Alphonse Des Jardien of Lincoln, was arrested today on a grand jury indictment charging manslaughter in connection with the death of Mrs. Edna Martin connection, it being alleged that he performed a criminal operation, but the jury disagreed and the case was not pressed by the county attorney.

Manslaughter Charge

Merchant Marine Plans Approved by Nebraskans is practically impossible. "The president very justly challenges those who disagree with him to propose a better remedy than he Harding's Address to Congress Commended by Congressmen Jefferis, Reavis and Andrews.

By E. C. SNYDER.

Washington Correspondent Omaha Bee.
Washington, Feb. 28. — (Special Telegram.)—President Harding's rest, he has yet delivered to the conof the abbey and moved to their places in the sacrarium, the Volun-places in the sacrarium, the Volun-tary being played as they proceeded up the nave.

The king and queen in the state coach and other royal personages up the nave.

Meanwhile, a storm of cheering outside proclaimed the arrival of the country being played as they proceeded up the nave.

Telegram.)—President Harding's fe-ception by congress today took on more of spontaneity for the careful and painstaking thought he had given to the subject of an American pany of about 170 persons, including steel of salve, the sparkle of beads, the dull ahen of pearls and the exquisite clorings of satin and gold lace, against which contrasted the wonterful four-and-a-half-yard train with its silk embroidery and crystal work.

The pearl-hemmed veil, thrown back from her face of a triple diadem of twisted silver and orange blossoms, revealed the demure features of the princess. On her drive from the palace, the bridal gown had been cloaked in a rich ermine wrap.

Followed by Bridesmaids.

This address, which was most adread differences of opinion may be encountered at various merous and radical differences of opinion may be encountered at various merous and radical differences of opinion may be encountered at various points, but the general purpose that the president had given profound study to a subject that looms large in the reconstruction policy of the government of twisted silver and orange blossoms, revealed the demure features of the princess. On her drive from the palace, the bridal gown had been cloaked in a rich ermine wrap.

Followed by Bridesmaids.

Followed by Bridesmaids.

This saddress, which was most acrefully followed not only by the members of congress, democrats and republicans alike, but by crowded galleries, showed that the president had given profound study to a subject that looms large in the reconstruction policy of the government and given profound study to a subject that looms large in the reconstruction policy of the government and approval of the country.

The pearl-hemmed veil, thrown back from her face of a triple diadem ingint, seeming to bear out the gloomy forecasts of the weather experts, but the morning broke bright and republicans alike, but by crowded galleries, showed that the president had given profound study to a subject that looms large in the reconstruction policy of the government and approval of the united judgment and approval of the country.

"The pearl-hemmed veil, thrown be encountered at various points, but the general purpose to the united American merchant marine. defensively in time of war and in in the end."

the industries. Jefferis Delighted.

Congressman Jefferis, who is nember of the committee on merchant marine and fisheries which will handle the legislation, was enthusiastic over the address. He said: "The president's message was a clear statement of progressive Americanism. It offers what appears to be a practical method whereby a portion of the expenditure of $3,500,000, which was paid for ships by our government during the period of waste and war may be utilized as a real foundation for a merchant markets.

real foundation for a merchant marine to carry our foreign commerce. The future progress of American agriculture and industry requires that the United States shall avail itself of some method other than those heretofore tried by the shipping board in an effort to extend the American commerce and the president's message contained many suggestions, which in my opinion are both wise and constructive and if carried out would without doubt do much tocompete successfully in carrying of Waverly November 20, 1920. Dr. American products to the various nations of the world.

On a charge of manslaughter in this ward enabling American ships to "Progress for America seems to

The psalm, Mr. Noble said, was written when he was a student at the Royal College of Music, Lon-reiteration of what he said to the farmer conference recently held in Washington and apprises the American people that the president is a man with a vision to see substantial her marriage ceremony, identified it by humming the air to Sir Walter Parratt.

The composer formerly was ormained of Fluorethedral and later of the utmost importance and benefit to the great central west. A ganist of Ely cathedral and later of vision to see substantial things and a courage to advocate them mark the president as a master advocate of measures and undertakings for the progress of our people and nation, even though he knows that certain selfish eastern interests are opposed

Congressman Reavis, in his estimate of the address, said:
."It was one of the most thoughtful

Tou Need Not Maye a Cold
If you will take Lazative BROMO QUININE Tablets when you feel the first symptoms of a Cold coming on.—Adv.

and best considered speeches yet delivered by President Harding and deals with the situation as to the merchant marine by proposing a definite remedy for a condition that is creatively in proposible. for Merchant Marine

(Continued From Page One.) tion as was anticipated. Senator Capper of Kansas, leader of the agricultural bloc, said that he was in-clined to support the bill. He said that the farm bloc as such would not oppose it. Senator Norris of Nebraska, chairman of the senate suggests.
"I am in great sympathy," continued Mr. Reavis, "with the suggestion regarding the Great Lakes waterway to the sea and I am in accord with the proposition that the proposed waterway and a merchant marine under private ownership are congenial subjects."

committee on agriculture, on the other hand, expressed his opposition to any cash subsidy to American ships. He said he did not believe the taxpayers of the country view the plan with favor. Senator Borah of Idaho was another republican who

Favors Waterway.

declared his opposition to the subsidy

The sun shone brilliantly on Prin- could be used both offensively and tion without expense to the treasury not available. Provisions is made for the issuance of certificates by consular agents to immigrants specifying whether they may be transported to the United States in a foreign Feed in Platte Valley vessel or American vessel. Among the visitors at the stock yards yesterday was John Petrie, livestock agent of the Burlington

Bromo

The first and original Cold and Grip Tablet, the merit of which is recog-nized by all civilized nations

Be sure you get

Bee Want Ads Produce the Best

Get Well the Chiropractic Way

Every sick person is interested in knowing how to get well, so we invite you who are sick or ailing to investigate what Chiropractic will do in your par-ticular case without any obligation on your part. We make calls at your home when unable to come to the office. Adjustments at the office are 12 for $10.00 or 30 for $25.00. Office hours from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. Complete X-Ray laboratory and twelve individual private adjusting rooms.

Our office in Council Bluffs is located in the Wickham Block, with Drs. Ruberg & Ruberg in charge. Dr. Bur-horn and associates are all graduates of the Palmer School of Chiroprastic.

Dr. Frank F. Burhorn

Bill for Relief of Water Users Passed by House

Congressman Kinkaid Congratulated by Colleagues on Victory After Several Hours' Hot Debate.

By E. C. SNYDER.

Washington Correspondent Omaha Bee.

Washington, Feb. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—Congressman Kinkaid, chairman of the committee on irrigation of arid lands, won a victory today after several hours' hot debate in getting his bill permitting the secretary of the interior in his dis-cretion to extend the time of payment of unpaid water charges on the federal irrigation projects for a period of one year from December 31, 1922, passed by the house without a record vote.

Congressman Mann of Illinois, Snell of New York and other eastern members fought the bill tooth and nail, but the Nebraska member had the strong support of Floor Leader Mondell, Smith of Idaho and Record Mondell Mondel representatives from the Pacific Hog Prices Take Jump, coast states.

In the course of his explanation of the bill, Congressman Kinkaid said that the planting season was affairs good business warranted that the demands of matured and maturing obligations be not forced.

market shon. He said this market shon. The said this ment he head of hogs in the shipment he brought in that be had finished on corn in the last 330 days. ing obligations be not forced.

Congressman Kinkaid was congratulated by his colleagues when the bill will be passed as it looked for a time as if it would have to go over until a later date on account of the opposition.

He said after the passage of the measure that he would do everything in his power to get the senate to pass it before the adjournment of congress. The bill had the endorsement of Secretary Fall.

Renews Strength!

Where there is need for a building-up tonic after prostrating illness, SCOTT'S EMULSION taken regularly, usually spells renewed strength and vigor.

Soott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J. ALSO MAKERS OF FOR INDIGESTION

ALL MEN WILL KNOW

Estate of $5,307,072

New York, Feb, 28 .- George W. Perkins, financier, who died June 18, 1920, left a net estate of $5,307,072, according to an appraisal filed in surrogate court late today. The bulk surrogate court late today. The bulk of his estate was left to his widow and two children.

The widow, Mrs. Evelina B. Perkins, was bequeathed $2,513,043; a daughter, Dorothy Perkins Freeman, $682,319, and a son, George W. Perkins, jr., $534,803.

Other bequests included: Emily S. Perkins, a sister, $129,803; Mary Kihm, a friend, $127,695, and $1,299,302 to children of the testator's 299,302 to children of the testator's son and daughter. Besides real estate and personal property, stocks and bonds valued at $3,844,798 were listed in the ap-praisal, $797,000 of which was in Liberty bonds.

Among other corded was $10,744 returned to Post-master General Will H. Hays, who Reaching $10.75 a Hundred Hog prices took another jump yes-terday, going to $10.75 a hundred. John Jansen of Fordyce was one of about to open and that water on John Jansen of Fordyce was one of these irrigation projects, in which those who profited by the rise in western Nebraska is so vitally in-terested, is as essential to successful choice load of hogs for which he farming as seed for planting.

He spoke of the hardships the users of water had gone through in the spectacular decline in prices and said that in private and individual said that in private said that the said t

Plattsmouth Man Makes

Good Profit Feeding Hogs yesterday's market at the stock yards by Phillip Hirz, who brought in 30 head of choice heifers that averaged 968 pounds for which he received $7 a hundred. The heifers were bought here four months ago at $5.50 a hundred and were fed on corn and showed a good gain.

Left by G. W. Perkins

Left by G. W. Perkins

According to Mr. Hirz he has received about 87 cents a bushel for his corn by feeding it to hogs that he has brought to market and he said he was satisfied with his profits.

Death Claims of $23,000 Allowed by A. O. U. W.

Grand Island, Neb., Feb. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—The Grand Lodge A. O. U. W. finance committee, in session here today, allowed $23,000 in death claims, and set aside $30,000 of reserve for investment in approved

-just

Blue-jay to your druggist Stops Pain Instantly

The simplest way to end a corn is Blue-jay. A touch stops the pain instantly. Then the corn loosens and comes out. Made in two forms—a colorless, clear liquid (one drop does it!) and in extra thin plasters. Use whichever form you prefer, plasters or the liquid—the action is the same. Safe, gentle. Made in a world-famed laboratory. Sold by all druggists. Free: Write Bauer & Black, Chicago, Dept. 11.

THE BRANDEIS STORE

ANNOUNCING The New Edition of

VICTROLA BOOK OF THE OPERA

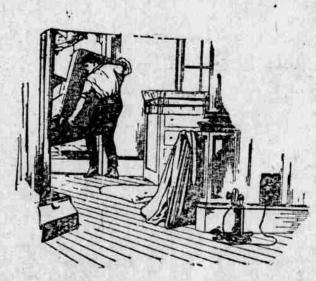

Every Home Should Contain This masterpiece of Musical Literature

Complete stories and illustrations of over one hundred operas.

Photos of Artists Composers and Scenes from every

This Book Would Cost $5 if Sold Through Other Than Victor Dealers -GET YOURS TODAY

VICTROLA DEPARTMENT

The Telephone!

If you have ever moved to a new location without first having a telephone installed, you will recall how its absence was felt.

To make such a happening less probable, it is best to notify us as soon as you know when you will move.

But sometimes, even in spite of an advance notice, we cannot provide service at the new location as promptly as we would like to do. This is particularly true the first of the month when many people are moving at the same time.

> Before moving your telephone we need to know your name and telephone number, the street address or apartment number to which you are moving and when you want telephone service at your new location.

