

John N. Frenzer Will Disallowed by County Court

Housekeeper and Children Reach Agreement on Division of Estate After Court Ruling.

Mrs. Clarise L. Mathieu, housekeeper for the late John N. Frenzer, will receive $9,000 and the Frenzer residence through an agreement with other heirs yesterday. The agreement followed a ruling by County Judge Bryce Crawford that Frenzer was incompetent at the time the will was drawn and that the will would be disallowed.

Divorce Is Blamed.

The three children contested the will. Mrs. Mathieu also joined in the contest. The small amount left the children and their objection to probate of the will is said by court attaches to be the aftermath of the Frenzer divorce case of some years back.

After a divorce decree giving Mrs. Frenzer custody of the daughter and Mr. Frenzer the custody of the two sons had been handed down, Mrs. Frenzer and her daughter went to Minneapolis.

A short time later the sons joined the mother, refusing to remain with the father. He brought court action to get them back, but failed.

The mother since has remarried, was not mentioned in the will and made no attempt to contest it, according to county court attaches.

Mrs. Mathieu, however, contended her services as housekeeper were worthy of more remuneration than $150 every three months, as Frenzer had provided.

Left to Charity.

After the will had been disallowed by Judge Crawford a conference was held, during which Mrs. Mathieu was awarded the larger share, and the children accepted as their share the south half of the Frenzer block in Omaha and a vacant downtown lot.

The Frenzer will left small amounts to nine charity organizations of the city and two-ninths of the remainder of the estate, to each of these: St. Joseph hospital, Good Shepherd home, St. James orphanage and St. Mary Magdalene church.

The remaining ninth of the residue of the estate was left to Father Flanagan. These bequests will stand under the new property division agreement, but will be smaller, due to the larger amount received by the children and the housekeeper.

Steamer, Life Boats Smashed, Reported Sinking

Boston, Mass., March 2.—The Norwegian freight steamer Gronof was reported sinking about 500 miles southeast of Cape Race in a radio message received here today. Her lifeboats had been smashed. The steamer Estonia was proceeding to her assistance. The Gronof was bound from New Orleans for Esbjerg.

Girl Travels Half Way Around World to Wed

From the little town on Amity, Ark., Miss Olga Hawkins journeyed 13,000 miles to join her fiance, Rev. Warren Spencer Dudley, and arrange their marriage. Rev. Mr. Dudley is a missionary at Chungking, China. His wife made her sea voyage from Vancouver, B. C., and arrived at Shanghai, from where she went to Chungking, in the western portion of China. Insurrections and uprisings delayed her trip for several weeks.

Prices Stronger at Government Wool Sale

Boston, March 2.—The last government wool auction was held here today with a large attendance. The entire offering was sold at prices which show generally a slight advance, perhaps 5 per cent, over the February sale, although the prices were very irregular and difficult to compare. The American Woolen company was the largest individual buyer, taking 502,000 pounds, while Brown and Howe of Boston were the second largest buyers, taking 431,000 pounds and Winslow & Co., with 401,000 pounds were the third heaviest buyers.

The government has handled altogether, 674,157,554 pounds of wool since the first lot was commandeered for the war, at a total cost of $478,920,123, on which there has been a value recovery of 85 per cent which, according to the statement of Col. Rolfe of the quartermasters' corps, has not been exceeded by any other commodity the government had handled.

Negroes to Observe March 5.

Boston, March 2.—Rev. M. A. N. Shaw, president of the National Equal Rights league, announced last night that negroes throughout the country would observe Sunday, March 5, as citizenship foundation day, with public exercises in many places commemorating the 152d anniversary of the death of Crispus Attucks, a negro, in the Boston massacre.

Demand Made for Funds to Improve U. S. Waterways

National Rivers and Harbors Congress Calls for Appropriation—Small Is Re-Elected President.

Washington, March 2.—A demand was made on congress, in a resolution adopted today at the closing session of the National Rivers and Harbors congress, that it approve at this session, not less than the amount of money recommended by the chief of army engineers as necessary for improvements of national rivers and harbors. President John H. Small of Washington, N. C., who was re-elected president of the congress by unanimous vote, called attention of the delegates to the fact that this is an election year and suggested that they go to their congressmen and demand adequate support for the rivers and harbors improvement needed.

Waterways Won't Prorate.

Maj. Gen. Lansing H. Beach, chief of army engineers, addressed the congress today and said that in his opinion "you cannot get a better argument for the waterways than the attitude of the railroads toward them."

"They won't prorate," he said. "It seems to me to be one of the principles of modern business to put a competitor out of the running before the consumer comes into consideration. And much that has been done by the railroads toward the waterways is simply the question of eliminating a competitor in business."

The congress came to an end with the election of directors for the various states and a banquet tonight, at which Vice President Coolidge presided.

Situation Serious.

Big Four Rail Unions Win Partial Victory

Chicago, March 2.—The Big Four railroad brotherhoods representing train service employees today won a partial victory in the controversy with the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad by a decision handed down by the United States railroad labor board.

The controversy involved the service to be rendered by train service employees on passenger trains of the road running into the station at Oklahoma City. Prior to October, 1920, passenger trains were run direct to the Oklahoma City station, but the railroad directed that the trains be turned on a wye before being run to the station after that time.

The big four brotherhoods objected, asserting this was not a part of their duties and should be performed by a switching crew. The board today decided that the train service crews must provide this service for the road but that they were entitled to pro rata extra pay from the time the train entered one leg of the wye until it emerged from the other leg.

Truth In Advertising

When the Strand Theater Unreservedly Endorses a Photoplay—It Means Something

Basing our opinion on that of the many people with whom we have personally come in contact, we feel no hesitancy in stating the Strand theater is and has been for many years presenting consistently the highest type of photoplays available.

In line with this thought it is a well known fact in film circles among those who are in a position to know (and discrediting statements in theatrical advertising), that this theater actually pays more money consistently for its attractions than any other motion picture theater in this state or Iowa.

Yet at the same time we always hesitate in making extravagant promises regarding our attractions, except when occasion truthfully demands, for using such terms as "The Greatest Picture Ever Made" and other P. T. Barnum expressions, because we are not of the opinion that the American public likes to be fooled.

Therefore when we tell you that this theater is renting "Fool's Paradise" for more money than any picture ever rented before in this territory, not on a percentage arrangement, but as a straight buy, it is a fact and not just newspaper propaganda and will stand the strictest investigation by those who believe in truth in advertising.

An advertiser must be careful in his statements, as a picture that might please him and appeal to him as being exceptional, might only please a certain percentage of his patrons.

But we sincerely and honestly believe that "Fool's Paradise" ranks with the very few great pictures ever made and will be considered by many as being the greatest. It having all the elements in its construction that will appeal to every person in every walk of life and hold their attention throughout every remarkable scene.

It is Cecil B. De Mille's greatest achievement, surpassing the world's wildest dreams of beauty and thrill.

Flashing as it does from the oil fields of Texas to Siam, from squalor to grandeur, rushing on through spectacle and splendor, piercing the inmost secrets of human hearts.

When you have the pleasure of witnessing this photoplay, we honestly believe you will agree with us that it is "The Picture of the Century."

Sincerely, STRAND THEATER, Harry B. Watts, Mgr.

OFFICE OF JULIUS K. JOHNSON, MANAGING DIRECTOR.

To the Public Whom We Serve:—

We are presenting a new play at the Rialto starting Sunday. It is called "Just Around the Corner"

The story is one of those which, because of its human qualities, impresses itself indelibly upon the mind and affects the emotions by its convincingness and power.

It is a picture that has no shimmer of silks or flash of wealth, but a picture with real human characters, that take from the heart of mankind all the big fine beautiful things that really count, and weaves them into an hour of pure delight.

"Just Around the Corner" was written by Fannie Hurst who wrote "Humoresque" and is a worthy successor of that masterpiece.

We saw it, we liked it, we laughed and we cried, and we know that you will do the same.

Sincerely, Rialto Theatre

Julius K. Johnson, Manager

P.S. On the same program we will present the World's greatest woman pianist, Mrs. Sturkow-Ryder, in conjunction with the Apollo Reproducing Piano. Also the Comedy King, Buster Keaton in "The Pale Face"
