226 Teams Take Floor in First Round of Meet

Corps of 42 Officials to Handle Games—Semi-Finals to Be Played Tomorrow and Finals Saturday.

Lincoln, Neb., March 8.—With the arrival here today and tonight of high school basketball squads from all corners of the state and the announcement of "ready" by officials in charge, everything was in order today for the opening at 8 a. m. tomorrow of the state's court classic—the 12th annual championship basketball tournament staged under the auspices of the University of Nebraska.

Two hundred and twenty-six boys' teams are prepared to jump off with the opening whistle tomorrow and the first round in all of the 15 divisions must be played off before the seven playing courts are locked up for the night. The second round and semi-finals are scheduled for Friday, and the finals on Saturday.

Courts at the coliseum, university armory, Y. M. C. A., university chapel and the boys' and girls' gyms at the Lincoln High school, will serve the opening games. Lincoln and Grand Island meet in a Class A game at the coliseum at 2:25 tomorrow afternoon; Ravenna and York, Class B, at the coliseum, 8 a. m.; Columbus and Sidney, coliseum, 10:40 a. m., and Gering and Scottsbluff, Class C, armory, 2:40 p. m.

A corps of 42 referees are on hand to officiate on the various floors as well as a full company of timers, scorekeepers and other officials. All games in the tournament will be 30 minutes in length, which also applies to the finals. Finals in the four top divisions will be played on the coliseum floor Saturday night.

Purveyor Replaces Farese on Card

EARL FARESE, New York bantamweight midget who was scheduled to provide 10-rounds of fist entertainment for one Earl McArthur of Sioux City at the fight shed tomorrow night is ill with the flu, according to an announcement made last night.

The little Gotham scrapper worked out with his stablemate, Dave Shaded, at the Omaha "Gym" Monday afternoon, and during the evening became ill at his hotel. Yesterday two physicians, one representing the state boxing commission, examined Farese and pronounced him unfit for Thursday's fight show.

Earl Purvey, Denver bantamweight, has been secured to fight 10 rounds with McArthur. These two knuckle whippers collided in Sioux City not long ago, the popular verdict going to the Denver lad.
