

Council Bluffs Society

Stewart's Entertain.

A dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wolfe of Rockland, Me., was given Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Stewart at their home on South Seventh street. Pink roses were effectively used on the table, at which covers were placed for 10.

Holiday at the Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Quinn left Wednesday evening to spend a few weeks at French Lick Springs, Ind.

En route home they will be joined in Chicago by their daughter, Miss Elizabeth, who plans to leave for there next Friday.

Dinner-Dance.

Dr. and Mrs. A. V. Hennessey had a most enjoyable dinner-dance at their home last Wednesday evening.

Pink and white roses formed the table decorations and 20 guests were present.

For Mrs. Wolfe.

Mrs. J. R. Day and Miss Theda Bereshine gave a luncheon of 12 covers at the Day home last Wednesday complimentary to Mrs. Clifford Wolfe of Rockland, Me.

These hostesses have planned two other parties which will be given in the near future.

Dinner.

Red tulips made an attractive center piece for the dining table at the dinner given Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Shugart.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Heiser, and Mr. and Mrs. Shugart, all of whom later attended the party given in the Eagles' hall by the Tuesday Dancing club.

Bridge-Luncheon Club.

Mr. Carl Coston of Philadelphia, Pa., was the guest of Mrs. Blaine Wilcox and Mrs. Garland Rounds when they entertained their bridge-luncheon club last week at the home of the latter.

Roses and sweet peas were used in decorating and the club prize was awarded Mrs. Dan Sheehan.

To Reside in Council Bluffs.

Mr. and Mrs. George Spooner arrived last night from Des Moines, where they have been living, and temporarily are at the Emmet Tingley home on Willow avenue.

Mr. Spooner has given up his business in the capital city and plans to open an office here.

Mrs. Spooner was formerly Miss Gertrude Tingley.

Tuesday Dancing Club.

About 35 couples attended the party given by the Tuesday Dancing club in the Eagles' hall last week.

One more dance is scheduled for March and that will be held on the 21st. It will be the last of the parties until the post-Lenten affair on April 18, at which time every member of the club is privileged to ask one or more guests. Elaborate preparations are being made for this party, which will be held in the Masonic temple.

Mrs. Patrick Leaves.

Mrs. Frank W. Patrick, who has been visiting Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Hanchett for the past few weeks, departed Friday for Randall, Ill., where she resides.

During her stay in the city Mrs. Patrick was extensively entertained both in Omaha and here, the last affair given in her honor being a lovely luncheon of 12 covers, at which Mrs. John G. Wadsworth was hostess.

Bridge-Luncheon.

Mrs. George Williamson and her mother, Mrs. Ella Pettibone, entertained on Wednesday at the Williamson home for 12 guests, who were invited for luncheon and bridge.

Mrs. F. D. Farmer received a prize for high score and Mrs. Elmer Shugart won the cut-for-all.

Elsks' Dance.

The first of the parties which will be given during March by the Elks was held last Monday evening in the ball room of the club house.

These affairs are proving very popular this winter, with their delightful informality, good music and light refreshments.

To Return Soon.

Mrs. A. Louie and her daughter, Miss Leontine, who sailed for France last May, are now in Algiers and plan to return to America early in April.

They will be accompanied by the Misses Ross and Cecile Hellmuth of Paris, who are coming to Council Bluffs to make their home with their uncle, A. Metzger, and Mrs. Metzger.

During the Louies' stay in France Miss Leontine has been studying French and music.

Entertained in Omaha.

The members of the Klatter club had luncheon in Omaha last Friday with one of its members, Mrs. Herbert Hicks, and the afternoon was spent with bridge.

St. Patrick's Party.

At a meeting of the American Legion auxiliary held last week, plans were completed for the card party to be held next Friday at the home of Mrs. Donald Macrae.

Tickets may be purchased from any of the members or at the door and bridge, "500" and high-five will be played.

Personal.

Alfred Hanchett of New York city is visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. Hanchett.

Mrs. John G. Wadsworth leaves this week for Kansas City, Mo., where she will visit relatives.

Mrs. George Schaaf of Lincoln, Neb., was a guest last week at the home of her mother, Mrs. James Wickham.

Mrs. Harold Ross, who has been in California for a month, arrived home the early part of last week.

Mrs. C. L. Hammel has returned from a six weeks' stay with her daughter, Mrs. H. V. Towner, and family of Bayard, Neb.

Mrs. W. H. Dudley came Saturday from Denison, Ia., to spend some time here with her mother, Mrs. S. L. Etnyre and family.

Mrs. Ernest Johnson arrived Wednesday from her home in Moline, Ill., having been called here by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Dailey.

Mrs. Edward P. Schoenigen leaves Monday to attend a D. A. R. convention in Dubuque, Ia. On her return home she will be accompanied by her daughter, Miss Jane, a student at
