Says He Will Exert Every Influence to Keep Hands of Wall Street Off Government Project.

Tragic to Delay Action

Detroit, Mich., March 17.—Declaring that "it is the last thing I do in this world I'll exert every resource and influence at my command to keep the hands of Wall street off Muscle Shoals," Henry Ford today broke his silence maintained during the last two months with regard to his offer to lease and operate the government water power project in Alabama.

Freedom of U. S. Industry.

"In Muscle Shoals lies the freedom of American industry," Mr. Ford continued. "During the war the country turned its every resource to help free the world from militarism—a militarism fostered by an international money power. Now, in the same way, we are going to turn the resources of our American industry and American agriculture from that same money power.

A Nation's Power.

"All the people need to catch the idea is an example. A potential example lies at Muscle Shoals. In a sense the destiny of the American people for centuries lies here on the Tennessee river, because who ever controls a nation's power controls that nation's people.
