

Suicide and Wife in Tiff, Declares Dead Man's Son

Youth Bitter Towards Stepmother, Prostrated at Finding of Lifeless Forms in Home.

"Poor little kids. I guess Dad thought they'd be better off with him, so he took them with him." "Compassion for his dead little brother and sister, Roy, 5, and Catherine, 4, tempered the grief of Henry McGill, 19, whose father, William McGill, 52, asphyxiated himself and two little ones, in a fit of despondency Friday.

Carrington Becomes Advertising Director

B.A. Carrington Jr.

Richard A. Carrington, Jr., has been promoted from advertising manager to the newly-created position of advertising director of The Bee. He will now devote the major portion of his time to the foreign advertising department, working with Prudden, King & Prudden, this newspaper's advertising representatives in Chicago and New York.

Wife Prostrated.

Mrs. McGill is completely prostrated by her triple loss. Her face showed the ravages of a terrible night of suffering and she had to be supported on both sides when she was removed yesterday from the Methodist hospital to the home of a friend, Mrs. George Saffelder, 824 North Twenty-ninth street, Florence.

Thousands See St. Patrick Day Parade in N. Y.

New York, March 17.—The freedom of Ireland was celebrated without reference to any division of political sentiment in the annual St. Patrick day parade on Fifth avenue this afternoon, witnessed by thousands.

Free State Celebrated Without Reference to Political Sentiment—Orange and Green Mingle.

Leading the parade were veterans of the "fighting 69th" National guard regiment in its original uniform. They were followed by Rainbow division fighters. The marching tune of the Irish revolutionists, "Soldiers of Erin," came from many of the bands as they passed the reviewing stand, saluted by Mayor Hylan, former Governor Smith, Auxiliary Bishop John J. Dunn, and other notables.

Bought Candy for Children.

"Mr. McGill came to my house just before noon," said Mrs. Ostrand, "and asked for Catherine. Roy was playing on the sidewalk. He took the children to the grocery store and bought them some candy and then took them home. That was the last I heard of them. My son Earl, 11, went to the McGill home about 2 and yelled for the children, but no one answered. I suppose they were dead then. It is a shame, for the children and the mother were very young."

Had Domestic Trouble.

McGill was an employe of the Kirkendall Shoe company until a year ago. He had been employed there for 18 years, as a shoemaker, according to neighbors. He quit about a year ago and went to work for the telephone company. For several months he has been out of employment, and this has worried him, they said.

2 Soldiers Carried Aloft by Balloon; 1 Falls to Death

Paris, March 18.—Two soldiers, helping to hold a balloon to the ground during maneuvers yesterday at the Angers flying field, were carried aloft when the bag was freed by the breaking of one of the ropes. One of the men who let go when about 120 feet in the air died of his injuries. The other succeeded in securing the rope about him and was carried some distance at a high altitude. The bag finally came down within a reasonable distance of some bushes and the soldier jumped, landing unhurt.
