John James, Called East by Infant's Illness, Loses $300—Gets Funds by Wire.

Binghamton, N. Y., March 18.—(Special Telegram.)—Hurrying eastward to reach Hornell before the death of his infant son, John James of Omaha was robbed on a train between Omaha and Chicago, it became known yesterday. However, the robbery did not delay him long and he reached Hornell before the child died. The funeral was held yesterday and Mr. and Mrs. James left this morning for their home.

According to relatives, Mr. James, who had been hurriedly summoned to Hornell when the boy became critically ill, fell asleep just before the train reached Chicago. When he awoke he found that someone had gone through his pockets and had taken all his money excepting 75 cents. He had about $300 in his possession when he left home.

By the time he discovered his loss the thieves had had plenty of time to escape. Consequently, he waited until he reached Chicago and wired to his father in Baltimore for funds, which were waiting for him when he reached Buffalo. The thieves had not taken his ticket, which carried him through from Omaha to Buffalo.

He arrived in Hornell Sunday night and the little fellow, who had been critically ill in St. James Mercy hospital for more than a week, died Monday evening. For days the physicians had worked to keep the little fellow alive until his father could arrive.

House Leaders to See Harding on Bonus Bill

Washington, March 18.—Republican house leaders expect to confer with President Harding at the White House tomorrow night regarding procedure in handling the compromise soldiers' bonus bill. They are hopeful that he will approve their plan for passage of the measure under a suspension of the rules.

Several of the leaders were in conference early today with Speaker Gillett and arrangements were made for him to meet majority members of the ways and means committee and other republicans, late today to discuss the question of procedure. Mr. Gillett said he might not arrive at a decision today.

Representative Lineberger of California, a former service man, who holds a petition carrying a sufficient number of signatures to insure a call for party conference next Tuesday evening, called on both Mr. Gillett and Representative Mondell of Wyoming, the republican house leader. He would not discuss his conference but it was understood that he had urged the calling together of house republicans to thrash out the whole bonus question. Leaders do not look with favor on a plan for a party conference until they have talked with the president.

They bought Cadillac cars for satisfactory performance—because of the knowledge of the great past—nearly twenty years of continued success—because of complete confidence in Cadillac's future.

Cadillac quality continues to speak louder through its performance than special propositions, inducements and future promises.

Nine new Cadillacs were bought by the most critical people during Show Week. Two re-built Cadillacs and one other used car were also purchased from us by people who have faith in our concern.
